THE WEATHER AND THE CROPS .-- Yesterday and the night previous we had short refreshing showers, which makes all nature smile again. Though it was not much wanted, still it done a deal of good. The business. hay harvest is nearly all over, and the quantity reaped shows still better the abundant crops in this vicinity. The wheat crop is looking exceedingly well, and the grain is heading out very finely, though the stalks in some places are short. The fareners are laying in for a good harvest, for York, who were using Plantation Bitters, failure of the crops for the last few years.
