A Report was presented by the Board of It states that the survey of the river, and preparation of the necessary place for the bridge, has been progressing for several months, and will be completed in a few days -when the necessary publications, as required by the Charter, will be made. The plans are being prepared by the Hon. H. H. Killaly, the engineer employed by the Bridge Company.

The Report states that the President the Company, Mr. Brydges, has lately been in England, and that whilst there he entered into arrangements for securing the immeate construction of the bridge?

The capital has been subscribed, and needful contracts entered into The Atlantic and Great Western Railways and the Grand Trunk Company of Canada have contracted with the Bridge Company to pass over the bridge, as soon as complete, all their through traffic with a guarantee that the tolls upon such traffic shall not be less than £10,000 sterling a year each, thus ensuring a handsome income to the Bridge Company to start with A contract has been made with a thoroughly responsible contractor in England who is now executing very large works o cessary sidings and buildings on both sides of the river for the interchange of traffic between the different railways. The bridge is to be a most substantia structure of stone and iron, and is to have two floors-one for the railway traffic, an

THE WASHINGTON CONSPIRATORS New York, Aug. 2. The Government steamer Florida, which carried the Washington conspirators, Mudd, O'Loughlin, Arnold and Spangler, to Fort Jefferson on the Dry Tortugas, has returned here from that place on the 26th, and from Key West on the 27th. The prisoners were not aware until after starting on their journey that their destination had been changed from the Albany Penitentiary to this arid spot off the southern coast o Florids, and on being intermed of it were unpleasantly affected; but after their arrival, on finding that the island, which is about thirteen miles in extent, has a fine sea breeze, is very healthy, and was not so bad a prace as they had supposed, they were agreeably disappointed, and congratuput to appropriate services.
