MARINE ITAMS. -- Yesterday was very unpleasant, rain talling all day. Not mu business has been done since Tuesday. The arrivals reported on Wednesday were the Royal Mail eteamer Magnet, going down at habitable globe. ten in the morning, and the Champion up in the evening. The latter had a very heavy load of freight. The schooners W. | in Canada and sold by all Druggists. Sanderson, Kenosha and S. Robinson arrived with wheat (see imports) for J. H. Henderson & Co., and discharged same day The two former are now leading. The American Express steamer Bay State passed up yesterday morning at six, and the Ontario down'in the afternoon. 'The Royal transferred into the barque Valetta, loading barley for Chicago.
