Louging for a fairer clime! Drifting, drifting, morn keeps breaking On our tiny back, so frail, We, oft dreaming, the awaking.

Drifting, drifting, here] we flitter, Moments worth far more than gold ! Seizing baubles that but glitter, Which, to us, so peace untold !

Yander ! fadeless flowers expanding Freshened from the fountain love May we drift into that landing Fragrant with sweet joy above!

Ever drifting ! earth still bids us, And a lingering look we cast On some charming spot behind us Pleasures, buried with the past !

Ah I while drifting I storms to gather, And sweep hercely all around, Then ! we think, we would much rather, In the smitten clefts be found !

Ever drifting ! onward driven, At the world's capricious will,

Gracious Father ! guide to Heaven, Whisper to us, peace, be still !

Drifting ! drifting, Lord we perish ! Was the Galileans cry-Years are passing! hope we cherish, Save ! oh save us, ere we die !

CANADA. Durham, Co. Grey, Dec. 12, 1865.

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 15, 1865. LETTERS & TELEGRAMS.

P. O. D., Ottawa; O. D. & Co., Boston. THE BUTCHERS' SHAMBLES.

The extraordinary high rent at which the City Council has placed the Stalls in Council reduces the price fully one-half. procure the verdict. $100 a year is a great rent to pay, and if the whole Stalls are rented at that rate, a revenue to the city of $1600 would accrue, compensate for the outlay. City Councils should not victimize any class of the inhabitants, and the Butchers have as much | siding.

compete with the country farmer or country O'Reilly, Q. C., for defendants.

Engineer, requesting pay for extended, who brings in his mest in quar- This morning the Grand Jury came into On motion $20 was granted.

On the people who consume the mest; for | unsale, and we would strongly advise the | Mr. E. Joyner, that the petition of Wm he can, and that way can only | fence in place of the present one or raise it | of Kennebec was reconsidered.

this case, reported in full yesterday, back to stay in gaol. d might as well have let "good enough"

GREEN VS. PATTERSON ET AL .- Action on Robert Patterson and George Wilson, ted last apring the west part of a house he trees on the plaintiff, who kept a Saloon and owned in Let 24 to the plaintiff, who how- Grocery on Wolfe Island. There was no ever could not occupy it at once, owing to less than eight counts in the plaintiff's delits not being habitable. Patterson on this claration, and the amount of damages was erden adjoining. When the place was cupied the time of the Court the chief paired, the defendant Patterson allowed of Saturday and resulted in a verdict for ned in the east half of the house for At half-past two o'clock th months, when he left as alleged by the | journed till Monday morning

VOL. XXXIV.

KINGSTON, CANADA, THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 21, 1865.

in a verdict of not guilty, on account of the youth of the prisoners. They were then discharged. The Court then proceeded to try Brown for burglary, and the Court adjourned a half past nine o'clock this morning.

Friday, Dec. 15th. o'clock this morning, Judge Draper pre-

Reuben Brown, tried yesterdsy afternoon

worth's farm, as he was responsible for the fire spreading from his larm to those of others. They considered that it was for W. H. Wilkison & Reeve for the defendant Rayworth to prevent the fire spreading to Lasher. Cook's farm, and charge the Company for the new Shambles is a matter of surprise | the expense he was put to. Sir Henry Smith, Q.C., and Mr. B. M. Britten for the to all. $200 a year for a space of 16 feet ! plaintiff; Mr. M. C. Cameron, Q.C., and No Butcher can possibly pay any such rent, Mr. James O'iteilly, Q.C., for the defenand the consequence will be, that the Stalis | dants. The case was not concluded till will remain untenanted until the City | late in the evening, and we were unable to

Saturday, Dec. 16th.

right to fair and honest treatment, as other | Woods vs. THE GRAND TRUNK RAIL- the country formerly tested. citizens, which certainly in this case, they | way .- Verdict for $200 for plaintiff was returned last evening. Sir Henry Smith Committee on County Property, which was Butchers lie under great disadvantages | and Mr. B. M. Britton for the plaintiff ; in carrying on their trade. They have to Mr. M. C. Cameron, Q. C., and Mr. Jas. a communication from Mr. Robinson, County ters, and sells it at a rate far below what I Court, and presented the usual address :- | Moved by Mr. Moore, seconded by Mr. a compete with him in the retail spected the Gaol, beg leave to state that township of Oso. Besides, such is the fearful scarcity | they have found it clean, the bedding good | Upon motion of Mr. Neale, seconded by | would so decide if the question were put to a | first indication of returning conscious and at a fearful expenditure, procure | soners had no complaints to make against | repairing a bridge on the leading road, be- | penal servitude. ther meat for his daily supply. | the officers of the institution. The Grand | tween the townships of Barrie and Claren-To make that men pay $200 a year for the | Jurors find that only two of the locks of of selling in an open Shambles, is | the Gaol are secure, but have been in- At half-past four o'clock the Conneil ot only an injustice, but a cruel piece of formed by the Governor of the Gaol that adjourned. the County Council intend having all the The Council resumed at ten o'clock this Should the Council persist in its order, locks put in a proper condition as soon as morning. whom will the loss chiefly fall ? I around the gaol we would state that it is Intoher must make up his rent in the | County Council to rither build a strong | McCaddy for a re-survey of the Townshi be, by extra charge to his customers. This | higher, so that prisoners cannot escape. extortion on the part of the | We also think it very unjust that the seconded by Mr. Strachan, that upon the Conneil is of such a character, that an inhabitants of the district should pay taxes petition of William McCaddy, the Warder o the people in some way should | for the support of a lot of vagrants in idle- | memoralize the Government to order their own living. They might be taken by ship of Kennebec at their expense, or give a guard to the nearest quarry, and there petitioner authority to have the survey break stones enough to repair the roads .- | made at his own expense. Carried. By this means they would take a part of | The Council then took up the Council that any of the prisoners would W. Gibson, that By-law No. 54 of escape, it would be very easy to place a ball and chain on the leg of each prisoner, past nine o'clock, Judge Draper presiding. | and by this means they would not escape ;

WM. F. MEDLEY,

Grand Jury Room, # Dec. 16, 1865. (

fore them, ordering a copy of the address to to the County Council.

The first case this morning was LAMBETH VS. DICKINSON ET AL .-- This defendant. William Patterson, ren- landford and a Bailiff for an unlawful disount allowed the plaintiff to occupy the | $200. The chief contest was as to the also to be given half of a stable and | sale of the plaintiff's goods. The case ocended for Green, and afterwards forbid T. L. Soonk for plaintiff; Mr. J. O'Reil as the | n'elock, Judge Draper presiding. The case | the Special Committee to enter into the defendant. Verdict for the plaintiff, not in the store bonse during it to have been spoiled by rot in the store bonse during the winter of pay to Grand Jurors was a charge of committing a criminal assault on a charge of committing a criminal assault on a poung lady patient? The matter of pay to Grand Jurors was a charge of committing a criminal assault on a young lady patient? The defence was that the villian is now in custou, or a charge of committing a criminal assault on a young lady patient? The circumstances according to their deserts. Of the hard are as follows.

J. J. BURROWES, ESQUIRE, JUDGE, PRESIDING.

Mr. Wilkison, for the defendant, contended that there was no sale under the Beaument has thus secured what he came the plaintiff, destroying veveral acres of circumstances, that there must be an actual England to ask at the hands of Her Majesty's wooded land on the same, and burning up | and continued change of possession of the | Government- not only acquittal, but prethe timber. The plaintiff therefore sues property sold, under the Act Respecting tection and honourable recognition.' If he the timber. The plaintiff therefore sues for the damage to the farm, as it arose from the negligence of the Company in the first place, and 2adly for neglecting to make first place, and 2adly for neglecting to make for his uncorruptible integrity, should be the stery of their own sensations at the time for his uncorruptible integrity, should be efforts to put out the fire in proper time. - there was no sale. The case however went thus defeated. It may remind his Excel- of the attempted assasination; and although The green Fermion light begins to assume The defendants contended that they were to the Jury, and they brought in a verdict lency of the fact recorded in an old chronicle, under ordinary circumstances such revelations extrem to the Jury, and they brought in a verdict lency of the fact recorded in an old chronicle, under ordinary circumstances such revelations extrem to the Jury, and they brought in a verdict lency of the fact recorded in an old chronicle, under ordinary circumstances such revelations. only liable for the damage done to Ray- in Doyle's favor. 'So they hanged Haman on the gallows that should certainly be regarded as within the empty question of rank, title, and prece-

Messes, O'Reilly & Machamara and Mr. he had prepared for Mordeoni.'-Manchester B. C. Davy for the plaintiff Doyle; Messrs. | Examiner.

COUNTY COUNCIL.

this afternoon.

that Wm. Ferguson, Esq., M.P.P., be re- | distant the addresses. quested to use his influece with the o'clock this morning, Judge Draper, pred Government to authorize the inspection of the weights and measures of the city, to show the standard weights and measures of gressing.

> Mr. Day brought up the report of the adopted with a slight amendment; and also Engineer, requesting pay for extra services.

It was then moved by Mr. Mudie moved by Mr. Mudie, seconded by the words "Grand Jurors," and that a By-Hogan vs. LEATHERLAND .- The Jury and they would not be so lond of coming | law be passed fixing the pay of Grand Jurors at $1 for first three days attendance put and carried by the casting vote of the loss is £ 200,000 sterling. Warden, there being nine members for and i Mr. W. Gibson moved, seconded by Mr.

E. Joyner, that the well in the gaol yard be lowing Committee : - Mr. Strachan, Mr. E. Joyner and the Warden.

There was a hitch in this matter between the Warden and some of the members, and the Council adjourned for recess, withou the motion being put to a vote.

morning, the Warden, D. D. Calvin, Esq., The account of Mr. Wm. Robinson glazing for the gaol from 1862 to 1864, city, by moving, seconded by Mr. Moore, that in the vent of the City Council being de-

The Court opened at half-past nine few days afterwards, Mr. Robinson came | the room of the ex Chief Justice a gentleman | Doctor will not fail to find abject apole down to Kingston, and Doyle paid him the | who would be the willing tool of a faction in | gists to sustain his not less awful assumpti balance of the purchase momey. the colony; whose main object has been for of Divine power to heal the sick and restore Mr. John Lasher, a resident of the same many years to set aside the spirit and the the blind by miracle.

Township as Robinson, had a certain claim letter of British law, and to defy the authorithe house of one Mary Cameron, living in of $150 or $160 against Robinson, and got the township of Pittsburg, was acquitted out an attachment against his goods and by the love and living to England, the whole complainant being unable, through illness, to be the love and living to the love and livi by the Jury, and discharged from custody. Sheriff of the County of Lennox and Ad-Woods vs. THE GRAND TRENK RAILWAY dington, and among the goods seized were and especially to those of the colored race, Company .- This is another of the are hose eighteen sheep belonging to Doyle. | will rejoice to learn that Mr. Cardwell, the cases again till. Grand Trunk Company. The question for the Jury to decide was | Secretary for the Colonies, has set aside the whether there was an actual and bona fide | suspension order of Governor Hincks, railway in the Township of Ernestown sale from Robinson to Doyle, and whose accompanying it with a severe censure on his from the sparks of a locomutive. The fire property were the sheep at the time of the Excellency for his hasty and unwise procedure, and has replaced the Chief Justice in

FURTHER BY THE JAVA.

Lincoln. The document shows a cordial and THE PONIAN TRIALS.

Liverpool, Dec. 2.

STEPHENS IN PARIS. The London Morning Post states Stephens, the escaped head centre, arrived in Paris. The jailor who connived at his escap has been committed for trial.

ACQUITTAL OF CAPT. CORBETT. In the Court of Queen's Beach the tr f Capt. Corbett on the charge of seiling isting men for her, resulted in his acqui cree in Jamaica. He held the Governor would yet appear at the bar of justice. LARGE FIRE IN LIVERPOOL.

The London Times says that it canno A SPEECH BY MR. BRIGHT.

The dry goods establishment of Messra. as the Compton House, was burnt. It was consternation and observation of minute par-After a short discussion the motion was the largest in the town. The estimated | ticulars is not common in circumstances of

DEATH OF DR. BARTH. The death of Dr. Barth, the African traveller and explorer, is announced

VISIT TO THE PENITENTIARY.

made our way to the Provincial Peniten- | cry of Miss Seward, 'Oh | he will kill my | essentially he was an honest man. It is situated about a mile and a father!' But he saw nothing of his assailant half from the city of Kingston, besides the until a hand appeared above his face, and sterling integrity, not only as public ser-Lawrence. - Hamilton Times. . * The Penitentiary is situated on the extreme western edge of the city-and im | statesman only thought, 'What a handsome | affairs of this city for nearly a quarter mediately alongside the populous Victoria

Ottawa, Dec. 15. A Cabinet Meeting was held here yesarbitration, by paying such a sum of money, not less than $3,000, as the Committee has left on his mission to the West Indies, was drinking tea, and that it tasted good. &c. The deliberation of the Council lasted city prisoners and the use of the Court | from twelve o'clock, nuon, until five o'clock

DR. POTTS NEW ROLE.

Justice deviated from the beaten path of his | the brother knew now bounds. He came im- perished by the executioner or have William Doyle, a Butcher from Kingston, predecessors, and consulted the statute book mediately to London, and consulted with his shot down, is very large. Their villages, some time in the month of August last, of the British constitution, rather than colonial friend, Ald. John Campbell, who went with houses and settlements have been rated. purchased from one William Robinson, a traditions and usages. This independent him to the Mayor's office, got out a warrant and such terrible example given them farmer residing in the Township of Fred- course of action has greatly exasperated and had Potts arrested. The case will be will prove a permanent check to any future ericksburgh, eighteen sheep. At the time | Governor Hincks and his partizans. How tried on Monday at the Police Court. We rebellion. the purchase he paid on account $15, | could they be rid of so obnoxious an intruder? | understand bail was refused. It is as well. MORRIBLE SCENES-DEAD BODIES LYING AL the full price being $41. He there and There seemed but one way-to suspend the We can't imagine any one in the city so dethen marked the sheep with red paint on | Chief Justice from his office and emoluments. | graded as to go his surety. We demand that the head, and left them in the possession of This the Gevernor did on his own responsi- | the trial be searching, and the punishment Robinson until he should call for them. A bility; and without delay he appointed in commeasurate to the crime. We suppose the River must be unwholesome on account marched on their way from Monklands to

LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS. G. S., London; C. J., do.; M. D.,

THE SENSATION OF BEING MURDERE

pale of privacy which no public position | euce upon which the () liabony takes gives us warrant to invade, yet as, from the stand, defying the Decemvies of the Febian

Johnson, on the assassination of President | ing the fellow's endeavor to press into Mr. | amazement of America, Great Britain, the | Seward's room, he (the assassin) drew a | Isle of Man, and all other principalities and erick Seward's head. What followed it | IR. itself, and the great C. E. of I. R. the New York Herald that Mr Hecker, the Mr. Gibson moved, seconded by Mr. Day, hearty appreciation of the good feeling which | revolver, which he presented at Mr. Fredwhatever he may be and wherever the mystic functions of his awful office. seconds. Mr. Frederick Seward's first From this statement the astonished world ! The Fenien trials at Dublin are still pro- thought was 'I hat's a navy revolver.' The man pulled the trigger, but it only snapped, knowledgement signed by W. Mechan. Fin- | in bills, tickets, and other necessary expenses Luby, the proprietor of the Irish People, and his intended victim thought 'That cap ancial Secretary, and countersigned by Shaun of the citizens' association. $35,000 produced had been found guilty. The jury were two missed fire.' His next sensation was that whom the Saxon with his usual stidied invol. only 10,000 rotes. The successful candidate hours in deliberation before returning the of confusion and being upon the floor, rest- ence styles John O'Mahony, President, all got over 30,000. Are we to presume that he verdict. The prisoner addressed the court ing upon his right arm, which, like his manner of circles, and brotherhoods and father's jaw, was barely recovered from a sisterhoods and Faugh a-Ballaghs have been imphasically denied and repudiated the allegations of assassination which had been | bad fracture—the assassin had felled him in the habit of collecting and forwarding to urged against the Fenians. He admitted his to the flo r with the butt of the pistol—he | those dignitaries sums of money ranging from guilt according to the interpretation of Bri- put his hand to his head and finding a hole | teas and twenties up to thousands of dollars the City Butcher can afford to sell it at, The Grand Jurors of the Quarter Sessions E. Joyner, that $30 be granted to build a tish law, but believed himself inspects according to the interpretation of first the cap did not miss per month. Nor are these contributors contributors contributors to the light that the cap did not miss per month. Nor are these contributors contributors contributors to the higher standard of eternal fire after all. Then be became insensible fined to any one country, or even to any one country, or even to any one country. right, and that a majority of his countrymen, and remained so for two days or more. His fornia sends her ingots, and Cuba her and mutton, that he can with diffi- | and the provisions wholesome. The pri- | Mr. Moore, that $10 be granted to assist in | vote. He was then sentenced to twenty years | was the question ' Have you got the ball blooms, sometimes on general principles, so out?' after which he feel off again into a times for final call, whereof we can comatose condition, which was of long continuance. On the very afternoon of the | day when President Lincoln was assassinated, Mr. Frederick Seward, who was all end, we do not pretend, making Assistant Secretary of State, had asked his to Mr. Seward's great gift of readly presentation of Sir Frederick Bruce, which is pretty certain that where so a was to take place the next day. Mr. Seward | keeps flowing from the round wo to Sir Frederick, and he laid the outline of speech upon the President's table, that somebody is to be the red-whiskered and as I have previously informed . readers, President Lincoln that afternoon Seward's suggestions, and thus preparso executed as aimost to dely legal President Johnson which was regarded the assassin's knife. The blood spouted;

replying as to whether it would be possible

FROM JAMAICA.

pressors of Erin, or the O'Mahony and Biddy, seeing how abundant already are sinews of the Fenian war, will more than their habitual prudence tive in addressed as so friendly, and fair, and idence by waiting a bit to see dignified. Mr Frederick Seward's first goes before investing more large O'Mahony, at least, can't in reason wan more power to his elbow than "Has Sir Frederick Bruce been presented since he knew not what had bappened at wresting that power from him, by way ameliorating the Fenian condition had left them. Mr. Seward's mental experianexpected and not fully apprehended perit. recreation .- New York World. Mr. Seward was lying upon his side, close to a frame which had been made to give him DEATH OF ALDERMAN JAMES BAKER. case, and to protect his broken jaw from Died on Friday night, Mr. Alderman James pressure. He was trying to keep awake, having been seized upon by a sick man's fancy | Baker, for thirty-seven years an inhabitant it was that if he slept he would awake, up of this city, and for over twenty years of with the lock-jaw. He was brought to full the popular Alderman for Outario Ward .-Having obtained the necessary pass, we | followed by the entrance of the assassin, and | It may be said of James Baker, that then his thought was, 'What handsome vant, but also as a private citizen, in cloth that overcoat is made of! The assass- deniable. His connection with in's face then appeared, that the help-ess man! (Payne was a fine looking fellow.) century, has made his name as familiar in Then came a sensation as of rain striking ! him smartly upon one side of his face and | Kingston as a household word, and side but he left no severe pain. This was

(From the Cork Herald, Dec. 1)

DRILL ASSOCIATION .- On Thursday even-

Another Cabinet Council was held to-day. The ministers went around to all the public. offices this morning to see how work in the different departments was proceeding. Another council is to be held to-morrow on Saturday. A man belonging to one of the scouting parties in search of the rebel Aliles, inform-Bruce, is in town. Two wild cats have recently been shot in (Morant Bay Cor. Jamaica Standard.)

Stoney Gut, and no doubt they dealt out;

Those whom the soldiers spared the Margoni have destroyed, and my informant states tha

from the barracks -Trinity District -down to Coley Estate, only two cottages have been

MONDAY MORNING, DEC. 18, 1865.

LETTERS AND TELEGRAMS.

P. W., Ottawa; with rem.

town yesterday. It had committed great de- | disposition made him a universal favorate; part of it, which runs through the Blue ! predations before it was killed. Mountain Valley. It was through this dise; A furious snow storm is raging here and winter seems at last to have fairly set in ford, Dec. 14 .- Last evening, at balf-past and other papers. The bex was found this his family. morning on Victoria square, but the money gone, and contained the notes of hand.

The New Brunswickers have recovered their equanimity, grievously disturbed by rumours of a Fenian raid. The Governor Mondo a hasty journey to the frontier, but ow seems to be ashamed of the alarm. He ! hat there is no danger of an attack on that nature of the case, the whole affair has been Senate. He is striking not merely for his al- exists anywhere so long as the public are on during 1866. Thomas Kirkpatrick, Esq., brought before the world in its minutest | tars and sea-coal fires in Union Square, nor | the alert and ready to meet whatever may | details, it seems not improper for me to even for the vision of the golden crown of arise General Doyle, commanding the troops seconded by h. Chown, Esq., proposed make this triffing but interesting addition Brian Borboihme; but for a matter of a cool in Nova Scotia, was asked for a reinforce. John Breden, Esq., which proposition was The English papers publish a despatch to what is already known. Mr. Frederick hundred thousand dollars or so per month ment in St. John. Instead of complying from Secretary Seward, communicated to Seward said that on stepping from his bed- poured now into his coffers, as appears by with the request, he sent back word not to received very kindly by a large number of room into the passage and seeing the assas- the Fenian fiscal statement for the month spare the raiders on his account. The Gen- the inhabitants. Both proposer and sethem through the American legation. It is a room into the passage and the passage of the edification and fond of a loke. of confidence from Great Britain to President and called him to account. On his resist- where publish in full for the edification and fond of a joke.

> powers, including, as we strongly suspect the | Colonel Charles G. Halpins Informs Mayoralty election, in New York, expended $35,000 in the contest-$20,000 in buying will learn that in return for a bandsome ac- | up the Mozart Hail Democrats, and $15,000 expended three times as much as Mr. Hecker ?

LATE FROM MONTREAL. A STABBING AFFRAY.

Two young Canadians, who had quarreled in a favern, went out on the street, when struck the other several times with a knife but thickness of cloth saved him. The assail-

The objet of the gang of thieves, aged 18, scaped from his cell. He used a bench as a This morning a large number of counterfei greedbacks were circulated by a stranger, tained. Three cheers were given for Mr.

over $5 000 on him. $300 were passed There was a row in the Council about approbation.

it is snowing. A private telegram from Ottawa reports that the Cabinet Council yesterday was on- | cheering, the Mayor Elect got up and recrely devoted to the consideration of the re- turned thanks. He spoke modestly and question, and that Mr. Galt will

mittee this morning, but did not end in blows. | abilities allow him, fulfil the duties of the tion to release it from the obligations im- citizens had called him, and hoped when posed by its charter. The directors state the year of his Mayoralty expired to meet 18 months, and though a large dividend was advertised a few weeks ago, It was paid out | did. of the capital stock. The corporation is ikely to do something for them, but not all

The prisoner who escaped from the celi Government, and we believe communicated vesterday was recaptured this morning and to the Governments of the sister Provinces The jail is crowded to repletion. Over 380 prisoners are now there and the number is

The first of a weries of Crystal Palace couceris came of this evening with great ecist. ver eight thousand persons were present. complete an erchestra has never been heard ment was complete and effective. The pro- hope of obtaining such a treaty. a stand-still they were run into by a freight suggest to Her Majesty's Government, any

The city has just lost an excellent inhabitant, Mr.; Gilbert, of the British American Hotel.

Mr. Gilbert for seventeen years past bas and ministers will probably leave town again i lived in Kingston, and for the past nine, has Mr Dickson, the member for Huron and been a joint proprietor of the British American Hotel, where his integrity, his this neighborhood. One was brought into high mindedness, and his amiability of not only with the travelling public, but with all who enjoyed the pleasure of his acquaintance. Mr. Gilbert was a very DARING ROBBERT IN DEARTFORD.- Brant- esteumed citizen of Kingston, whose prossix, as a boy about sixteen years of age, an | perity was his over aim, and his death apprentice of Donald McKay, saddler, of this | consequently has cast a gloom over us allto the residence of Mr. McKay, he was set lie was a native of Louth, Lincolnshire, upon by two men near the Custom House, | England, and has died in the prime of his on Market street, knocked down, and the manhood, from an insidious disease that seventy dullars in cash, besides notes of hand | has destroyed many valuable members of

TUESDAY MORNING, DEC. 19, 1865.

THE NOMINATION OF MAYOR.

Yesterday at 10 o'clock in the City Hall, the City Clerk took his seat to receive nomcity, and, indeed, that no cause for alarm | mations for the Mayoralty of Kingston Mr. Breden's favor. No other nomination being made, but the Clerk in obedience to the statute was compelled to remain an hour

During this interim Dr. Barker proposed a Vote of Thanks to the retiring Mayor, John Creighton, Esq., and prefaced it with a lew culogistic remarks on the excellent manner in which Mr. Creighton had performed the functions of Mayor during the past three years. When this motion was put every hand in the Hall was held up in approbation of the Mayor. Shortly afterwards Mr. Creighton entered the Hall, and in being told of the vote in his favor, made a short excellent address to the voters, and after thanking them for the high honor they had conferred upon him, spoke highly it hen forced his body through. He was ar- | would receive the same support from his Council which he himself had always ob-Creighton at the conclusion of his speech which was received with marked tokens of

When the hour was expired, no other nominations being made, the City Clerk declared Mr. Breden elected, and after the yet ably-he said he had lived nearly all-A fracas between Mayor Beaudry and Alder- his long life in Kingston, and expected to end his days here. He would as far an his Our horse rallroad company is in a state of office to which the kindness of his fellow

CONFEDERATION

The widow of Detective O'Leary is to get | The following amportant despatch has $200 and her husband's funeral expenses been recently received by the Canadian Downing Street,

> " Sin, ... I think it right to acquaint you that I have been informed by the Secreta of State for Foreign Affeirs that, in the opinion of Her Mesesty's representative Washington, the necessity of having the various Previncial Legislatures would be was a serious difficulty in his way, and that the union of the Provinces would afford the best weeds of the concert are to be divided among . It is evident that if the gentlemen who are now about to proceed to Mexico. A fatal accident occurred on the Vermont | British and Spanish West Indies and Brazi or which Mr. Moragh, a cattle dealer of this | manner the trade and commerce of those train. Mr. Moragh had a large sum of money new arrangement with the countries