THE DAILY BRITISH WHIG is published every Tuesday... THE WEEKLY BRITISH WHIG is published on Monday...

THE SCHEME INTERFERED.

The city council last night heard the report of the three who visited Youngstown, Pittsburg, and other places for the interest of the blast furnace, which was the practically a final service as far as the Hamiltons and their scheme were concerned.

SMELTING WORKS SCHEME.

Mr. Brown, president of the trade union, Mr. McKelvey, Geo. Richardson, D. M. McIntyre, etc. The joint committee of the city council and board of trade has to report as follows.

THE DAILY WHIG.

"O'piter pro Deo." A NIGHT HOW'D YE DO! Things have come to a very pretty pass in parliament when a member of the government will rise in his place and say that, as an instance of the order of the house, documents, regarded as confidential, will not be brought down and submitted to public inspection.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Toronto defeated its civic fight scheme by an immense majority, which forces the conclusion that the people do not believe in municipal ownership.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Insuperable Rock. Toronto, Mass., May 31. (To the Editor.) "Higher Criticism" called, has aroused investigation, and has been pointed to the order of a vigorous scrutiny from various standpoints.

HE CRITICIZES EDITORIALS.

THE MONARCHICAL PRINCIPLE of Government is not in the least a British one. It is a decidedly Democratic Principle. It is the principle of the British and Canadian Constitutions.
