Paragraphs Picked Up About the Wharves And Elsewhere.

The schr. Fleetwing cleared for Oswego this morning.

The schr. Annie Falconer will make her next trip to Charlotte.

The schr. Annie Falconer arrived in from Charlotte, yesterday, with coal.

The str. Swift, from Ottawa, and the str. Persia, from St. Catharines, were at Swift's this morning.

The steambarge King Ben passed through for Oswego from Smith's Falls, last night. She will take another cargo of coal to the Falls.

A sand bar has formed at the entrance to Port Colborne harbor, and is becoming a serious obstruction to navigation in the canal.

There is very little lumber being shipped from here to the other side this season. The Yankees are not buying at all. A rush is expected soon.

Passed Port Colborne: Str. Averell, Chicago to Ogdensburg, general cargo; str. Tilley, Duluth to Montreal, flour; Toltec and barge, Duluth to Kingston, wheat; Glengarry and barge, Fort William to Kingston, wheat; Nipigon and barges, Hancock to Ogdensburg, lumber.

The str. Passport, up from Montreal, was delayed five or six hours on account of fog. It was accordingly late when she got here. The steamer started for Toronto but only went a short distance. As she was late and the night dirty the boat turned back and laid here all night. She will return to Montreal.

There has been some enquiry for vessels to load wheat at Buffalo for Kingston and the schooner Sir C. T. Van Straubenzie is now on her way down to Kingston with a cargo of this wheat. The wheat coming from Buffalo is the wheat dealers desired to bring in last winter free of duty. It is north-west wheat and was shipped to Buffalo, but prices going up in Canada the owners wanted to bring it in here to sell free of duty. The government refused to do this, however, and as a result the wheat was stored in the elevators at Buffalo. There is now said to be such a margin between prices in Canada and the United States that the owners of the wheat can bring it over here, pay the duty, and still make a profit.

Medical Association.

TORONTO, June 5.—The annual meeting of the Ontario medical association was commenced this morning in the medical council building, Dr. R. Bruce Smith in the chair. There was a large attendance of delegates from various parts of the province. The event of the morning was the presidential address of Dr. Bruce Smith, in the course of which the president said the very radical amendment to the Ontario medical act proposed during the last session of the legislature would, if adopted, have placed medical profession in a most indescribable position. The council, however, as a result of discussion, enjoyed to-day the confidence of the profession to a greater extent than ever before and the increased territorial representation would probably silence the fear that general practitioners throughout the province have not the influence in the council to which they are entitled.

To Reach England To-Night.

SOUTHAMPTON, June 5.—It is expected that the American line SS. Paris, from New York, having on board the Cornell university crew, will arrive here at 8:30 o'clock this evening. Arrangements have been made so that the car on which the crew are to travel and four trucks carrying their boats will be detached from the regular train at Basingstowe, and from there will proceed direct to Henley.

Rescued Two Men.

LONDON, June, 5.—The British str. Mongolian, Captain Jarrett, from Montreal, May 23rd, which arrived at Liverpool yesterday, reports that on May 26th she took on board two members of the crew of the American fishing schooner Howard Holbrook which had drifted away from their vessel in a small boat while tending their trawls. The men were picked up eighteen miles off Cape Razier.

FORMED AN ANGLING CLUB.

THE PURPOSES OF THE NEW ORGANIZATION DETAILED.

It Will Seek to Stop the Infringements Upon the Laws of the Land By Fishermen of a Speculative Turn of Mind—The Officers Who Will Be in Charge.

It is generally conceded that there is no summer sport so popular as angling, especially round about Kingston, and no wonder. With a sheet of water on her southern border, the Rideau to the east, Sharbot Lake, Loughboro and the back lakes to the north, Kingston has water privileges of which many a city might well be envious. All sorts of game fish are to be found in abundance, and so popularly known has this fact become in recent years that the citizens of the United States now flock northward to enjoy the treat. However, it is quite natural to suppose that such waters have not been left entirely to the enjoyment of the rod and line. Wherever good fishing grounds are discovered speculative fishermen, as well as members of the sporting fraternity, may be found. The dominion government has been very liberal (some people think too much so) in granting licenses to fishermen for nets, etc. Not satisfied with these privileges the fishermen are not unfrequently found infringing upon the reserved waters and it is more particularly for this latter reason that a number of the anglers about the city deemed it advisable to form a club and by this means certain privileges and powers could be obtained from the government for the purpose of protecting the haunts set aside for anglers. The objects of such an association would be the prevention of fishing with nets illegally or by other unsportsmanlike methods in certain waters in the vicinity of Kingston and the enforcement of laws regarding the same and generally the promotion of such schemes as will advance the interests and pleasure of anglers. Such an association, an American one, on a more extensive scale, exists down the St. Lawrence. J. Morgan Shaw got the ball a rolling by conferring with the minister of marine and fisheries and was informed that the department was inclined to deal favorably with such organizations. Encouraged by this information Mr. Shaw met a few of the city anglers interested and they met at the Hotel Frontenac, last night to organize. It was decided that a club be formed and that it be called "The Kingston Anglers' Association." The officers were elected as follows: President, J. Morgan Shaw; first vice-president, J. M. Forsythe; second vice-president, W. C. Martin; secretary, W. A. VanTassel, treasurer, T. McK. Robertson.

Executive committee—S. McBride, J. M. Madill, J. S. Henderson, J. Bredin, Jos. Nicol, Col. Van Straubenzie, J. Bastow, H. E. Walton, H. Howard, J. E. Twigg, J. Brickwood, W. M. Stevenson, J. Routley.

The officers were appointed a committee to draft a constitution. A popular membership fee of $1 was decided on. Application will be made to the department at Ottawa for a license. The popular resort of the club will be The Brothers.

The minister of marine and fisheries was waited upon by Senator Mullin, of Albany, N.Y., and Secretary Thompson of the anglers' association of the St. Lawrence, who proposed the setting apart of the river St. Lawrence on both sides, in Thousand Island district, as a free fishing ground to the citizens of both countries. At present United States anglers are charged a license fee of $5 for fishing privileges in Canadian waters, while the alien labor law is enforced against Canadian boatmen on the American side. An arrangement will probably be made on the basis of the abolition of both these restrictions, as a result of the discussion yesterday. Hon. Mr. Costigan promised that when the anglers' association meets at Alexandria Bay shortly Dr. Wakeham, Canadian commissioner, will attend to arrange a series of regulations.

The Yankee Yacht Boat.

PROVIDENCE, R.I., June 5.—For the first time since the Defender has been under construction Wm. K. Vanderbilt, the head of the syndicate building the yacht, visited Bristol yesterday, in company with his brother Cornelius. It is said that Mr. Vanderbilt was much pleased with the lines and general construction of the yacht. Judging from the appearance of the Defender it will be nearer three weeks than one week before the yacht will be ready for launching. Riveters are still at work and no attempt has yet been made at putting down the deck. The planking is being prepared, and to lay it will take about a week. Again, there has been no attempt made to polish or paint the body of the boat, and something of that sort will certainly be done before she is put overboard.

English Sporting Opinion.

LONDON, June 5.—The Sporting Life says: "Never since the appearance of the Harvard team in 1859 have a more formidable American combine than that of Cornell throwing down the gauntlet and they must doubtless be labelled dangerous."

Sporting Life prefers Florizel for the Manchester cup but says "If it were a straight course we would not oppose Banquet. Anyhow he may be victorious." The Sportsman, in selecting the probable winner, couples Florizel and Banquet.

Offering Training Grounds.

DALLAS, Tex., June 5.—Telegrams were sent to Corbett yesterday by E. R. R. Green, president of the Texas Midland railway, and J. S. Grinnan, president of the board of trade, both of Terrel, Texas, offering training grounds and every convenience that he wants. They ask Corbett to offer suggestions as to what he needs for himself and his trainers. The first big bet recorded on the fight makes the odds three to two on Corbett. Mr. Green put up $3,000 against $2,000, by John W. Dunn, of Chicago, a theatrical man who is here on business.

Repairs To Be Made.

The school property committee made an inspection of the schools yesterday, and will report at the next meeting of the board on repairs that will be required. It is the intention to kalsomine all the schools.

A Good Market.

The farmers of this section have more wheat in their hands than a good many people suppose. A few of the well-to-do farmers have been holding their wheat crops for a couple of years and their big prices now is a bonanza for them. Wheat has gone over the dollar mark in the old country.

They Got Their Ride.

The pupils of Cataraqui school were made happy yesterday afternoon. Superintendent Folger presented each pupil with an electric car check and the children went away singing his praises. The ride was promised last summer, but the pupils were not discouraged. As a result the open cars in the afternoon contained many jolly parties.

A Disgraceful Affair.

Last evening, between ten and eleven o'clock, disgraceful conduct was carried on in a house at the lower end of Bagot street. A man and woman, different tenants of a house, were cursing each other in an outrageous way. Although the quarrel was kept up for fully an hour and a big crowd had congregated, no policeman hove in sight.

From the Manufacturer to the Consumer vs. Four Big Profits.

They all wonder how we can sell our clothing so low. The solution is simple and true:—Manufacturer sells wholesaler, two profits. Wholesaler sells retailer, three profits. Retailer sells consumer, four profits, whereas we manufacture and sell at a single profit, See? Star Hall.

Another Journalist Captured.

G. H. Porteous, on the editorial staff of the Montreal Witness, a bright journalist, was married on Monday to Miss A. M. Craig, of Cornwall. The auspicious occasion was marked in many happy ways, and Mr. and Mrs. Porteous left for Montreal, bearing the richest of blessings. Mr. Porteous, besides being a vigorous worker in newspaperdom, figures in Y.M.C.A. and church circles.

Picnic At The Mills.

Zion church picnic at Kingston Mills turned out a big success yesterday afternoon. Between 300 and 400 people went down from the city. Six vans were kept in motion. The grounds were elegantly decorated and looked beautiful. There were plenty of refreshments and the picnicers put in an enjoyable time. The fancy drill was a good feature. Routley's orchestra was on hand. Besides the vans there were fifty or sixty single rigs. It was a boon to liverymen. The company returned at ten o'clock.

Separate School Board.

A regular meeting of the separate school board occurred last night. There were present: Father Kelly, chairman; Messrs. Behan, Hanley, Duffy, Cochrane, Staley, Norris and Fahey. The reports from the different schools showed that the attendance had increased during the month. The classes were now larger than in years. A committee in charge of St. Mary's school was given power to look after repairs and alterations to be made on the school during the holidays. The repairs will be extensive. Arrangements were made for the closing of the schools.

Licenses Were Granted.

An adjourned meeting of the Kingston presbytery occurred in Cooke's church yesterday afternoon. Those present were: Rev. H. Gracey, moderator, and Revs. Houston, Fowler, McPhail, Cumberland, Lang and Macgillivray. The object of the meeting was the granting of licenses to Robert Laird, M.A., Sunbury, and James Leach, B.A., Renfrew.

The application of Rev. T. J. Thompson, of the American Presbyterian church to be received into the Canadian Presbyterian church was approved of and transmitted to the general assembly, which meets next week at London.

Literary Competition.

The Toronto Saturday Night, a recognized authority in Canada on matters pertaining to literature, refers as follows to the short story competition offered by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, of Brockville:—

"It is gratifying to find this large business firm interested in literature, and the nature of the competition is such that a keen interest is sure to be aroused in all parts of Canada. There is perhaps no portion of the world that yields material so abundant, situations so piquant and characters so striking, for the writer of short stories, as may be found in Canada and more particularly in the northwest territories. We have seen what Gilbert Parker has been able to do with his all too limited knowledge of the Hudson Bay country. Had he or any other trained writer as complete a knowledge of our great northwest, the traditions of the forts, the half-breed and the Indians, as is possessed by hundreds of our readers, the literature of the world would be enriched. Winners of cash prizes in other competitions are excluded, so that there is no reason why beginners should not try a hand."

Three hundred dollars is offered in prizes, the amount being divided among the best five stories received. Stories for competition must reach the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., before the 1st of July next.

The Late Mrs. Henry Halliday.

Deep and wide-spread was the sorrow when it was known a short time ago that death had entered the home of Henry Halliday and claimed his fair young wife after an illness of only a few days. Mrs. Halliday was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Niles, of Wolfe Island, and only became the bride of Mr. Halliday—now bereaved—last January. A service in memory of the deceased lady was held in the Methodist church, foot of Wolfe Island, last Sabbath afternoon. Sorrowing friends filled the edifice to its utmost capacity, and the many beautiful floral tributes testified to the love and esteem in which the departed one was held and were fit emblems of her lovely character. Rev. G. R. Lang conducted the memorial service and based his address on the words of John xiv., 1-3. He feelingly contrasted the sadness of his mission to-day with the joyfulness of Jan. 23rd when it was his privilege to unite Mr. and Mrs. Halliday in the bonds of holy matrimony. During the service the choir—of which Mrs. Halliday had been a member—sang touching and appropriate selections, and at the conclusion the friends and relatives went in procession to the cemetery carrying with them the offerings of choice flowers, with which they literally covered the grave. The relatives of the late Mrs. Henry Halliday gratefully acknowledge the sympathy and kindness shown them in their great sorrow by their friends and would like them to know how fully they appreciate the offerings of lovely flowers which were placed on the grave.

Barriefield Briefs.

BARRIEFIELD, June 4.—The effects of the late frosts have disappeared in the wonderful growth induced by the few past showers of rain which fell here. The heat is intense. Attacks of bronchitis, influenza and a general round of colds are the result of the sudden and extreme changes of weather. James Morrison is shearing sheep and is kept busy. The sheep look beautiful after they leave his hands as if the fleece had been taken off with one smooth stroke. Edward McLaughlin returned from his boat on Sunday with a bad cut on his head caused by a wrench in the Lachine canal. Mrs. and Miss Milton took a carriage load of beautiful flowers and plants to decorate the last resting place of a kind and still sadly missed husband and father, the tender wishes of many went with the flowers as they passed on their mission to that quiet spot. Father O'Brien, with a visiting priest, has been calling on the Catholics in the village. They are the first that have called in a very long time, except on business. They were very welcome. The commons are swarming with horses and cattle from the city. If there was no bridge many in the city would be in as bad a plight as some in Barriefield. Many people here are of the opinion that the proposed electric railway will be like the blast furnace, and that there will not be another move in Kingston till some more Yankees come along and wake them up to appreciate their own resources and advantages.

Married This Forenoon.

A very pleasant event occurred at the residence of R. H. Toye, 82 Gore street, today when Mr. Toye's niece, Miss Emma Crothers was united in marriage to James C. Johnston, of the firm of A. C. Johnston & Bro. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. C. O. Johnston in the presence of many friends. Miss Carrie Lingham, Belleville, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Laidlaw, commercial traveller, looked after the groom. Both young people were popularly known. Their presents were numerous and of fine quality. The happy couple left for New York, via Montreal. They will take up residence on Brock street.

They Found The Body.

William J. Edgar, jr., was drowned in Black river, near Glen Park, Watertown, Sunday afternoon. After finding that grappling was unsuccessful the Donnelly salvage wrecking company was wired for a diver. John Donnelly, jr., went over with a diver, James Clark, and after diving for a short time Clark brought the body to the surface. The head was wedged in a "V" shaped crevice in the rocks and was held down by a two-inch iron shaft which laid across the opening. The water at this point was twenty-five feet deep. Mr. Donnelly and Clark arrived home last night.

The Officers' Opinion.

Although many of the non-commissioned officers and men are of opinion that the battalion will not receive any grant from the government this year, the officers of the battalion are differently disposed. Word has been received from Col. Smith that he attended the department and he thought there was no doubt whatever but that the battalion would receive its regular appropriation. Furthermore the days for inspection as chosen by the battalion, June 12th, 13th and 14th for company and 15th for battalion, would probably be approved of.

A YOUNG LAD DROWNED.

LADS WENT TO BATHE IN NAPANEE RIVER.

And One Took Cramps And Went Under—His Companions Were Too Small to Afford Help—The News About Our Neighboring Town.

NAPANEE, June 5.—A very sad accident occurred at the sand banks on the Napanee river yesterday afternoon about five o'clock, when Fred., the fifteen year old son of Allan Neilson, of Sandhurst, lost his life. After school a few of the boys went down the river to bathe, and it appears young Neilson took cramps and drowned before assistance could be procured. Allan Preston recovered the body after being in the water over half an hour, and all efforts to resuscitate him proved fruitless.

The other boys who were with him were small and could not swim well, and therefore could not render him assistance. The remains were taken to his father's last night.

The R. T. of T. gave a moonlight excursion, last night, on the Ella Ross to Glenora and Picton. The boat left the wharf at seven o'clock and was comfortably filled. Zina Ham and B. S. O'Loughlin, of Yarker, left yesterday for a trip on the continent. They expect to be absent two or three months. Miss Alice Nielson returned this morning from Riverside, Cal., where she has been for the last seven years. T. Bedford-Jones, Brockville, is visiting Judge Wilkison.

AN ACTION FOR DIVORCE.

Pugilist Corbett And His Wife Are in Trouble.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Rumors have been current that there was trouble between the champion pugilist Jim Corbett and his wife and that she had begun proceedings for divorce. Mrs. Corbett's father, Mr. Lake, when seen, last evening, and asked if the papers in the action had been served on the pugilist said: "Yes, I think they have been served, but I must not talk. If the details of this trouble become public they must come from the other side. At present my daughter will not speak. When the right time comes, however, she will be prepared to give her side of the case. My daughter cannot be seen. She is ill—prostrated by this trouble—and we are having a hard time to quiet her." Mrs. Corbett, seen earlier in the day, was very nervous and refused to say whether or not she intended to secure a divorce. "I have nothing to say, not a word. I will neither deny nor affirm the truth of this report." Corbett was not in the city and could not be seen, but his manager and friend, W. A. Brady, refused positively to discuss the matter. Corbett, when the foremost athelete in San Francisco, met Miss Allie Lake. She was studying to be a teacher in the state Normal school. It was a case of mutual attraction, strengthened by the opposition of the parents on both sides and culminating in a runaway match. When Corbett went to Salt Lake City, in 1886 to fight Duncan McDonald, Miss Lake followed, according to secret arrangement, and the couple were married by a justice of the peace.

The Armenian Situation.

LONDON, June 5.—The reply of the Turkish government to the note of the representatives of Great Britain, France and Russia in regard to the reforms in Armenia is not satisfactory.

The Pall Mall Gazette, in an article on the situation, expresses belief that Russia is behind the sultan, and that there is little incentive for anybody to spend their strength to protect such a race as the Armenians. "Therefore," the Gazette says, "Englishmen ought to listen to far-seeing statesmen like Lord Salisbury, and not give heed to Turcophobe zealots who are going blindfold into chaos."

The St. James Gazette says: "This Armenian business is not really as serious as the newspapers declare it to be."

By The Queen's Command.

I once performed at Windsor before Her Majesty and several members of the Royal family, and, oh, it was the most delightful experience I have ever had. The speaker was an enthusiastic young actress, as popular as she is beautiful. "The honor was certainly a great one," we murmured. "Yes," she responded quickly, "but it was not only that; Her Majesty was so kind, you know. It really did you good, the way she treated you." That is just it. Proper treatment is all we want. Nine-tenths of the sickness we suffer might be cured if we only had proper treatment. If you are ill or feel out of sorts, seek relief from the true friends of the sick and suffering—Holloway's Pills and Ointment.

Police Court—Wednesday.

"Saxy" Agnew got into a row with a saloon keeper on Ontario street last night and was arrested by the police. There was great excitement at the time and officer Small had his hands full getting Agnew to the police station. Only a charge of drunkenness was preferred against him this morning. He was remanded. The charge of fighting on the street will probably come up to-morrow.

Treed By Wolves.

Eganville Enterprise.

We have received the following information from an authentic source, which shows that wolves are by no means scarce around Basin depot, on the Bonnechere. On Tuesday last as John Carabine, employed on McLachlin Bros.' drive, under Foreman Reynolds, was carrying a bag of potatoes from the depot to the camp he was chased by a pack of wolves. Not wishing to abandon his load, and it being rather weighty to run with, he climbed a tree, taking along with him, however, the potatoes. The occurrence happened in the evening and it was not until nearly morning that the denizens of the forest took their departure, and permitted him to resume his journey. Mr. Carabine states that he would have tried to chase them off by throwing potatoes at them but he was afraid he would have none left for breakfast.

KIEL, June 5.—The trial passage through the Baltic North sea canal was made by the emperor's yacht Hohenzollern, with Prince Henry, of Prussia, on board to-day. The trip was in every respect successful. The Hamburg-American line steamer Palatia also passed through the canal, having on board Chancellor Hohenlohe, Dr. Von Boetycher, vice-president of the imperial ministry; Herr Von Koeller, Prussian minister of the interior; Baron Marschall, Von Bieberstein, imperial minister of foreign affairs; Count Eulenberg and other prominent persons.
