CELERY NERVE COMPOUND

CURES NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

A CONSTABLE'S ORDEAL.

A man committed to Brockville jail as a dangerous lunatic.

For several years now, Eaton, son of Almon Eaton, who lives about one-half mile from Sealey's Bay, has been a weak intellect. Lately he became violent, and on Wednesday last declared the Lord had told him to kill his father. With a club he beat his father for a time, and the family fled to another house. The family remained there until he returned to his own room, which he has reserved to himself for about three years, not allowing it to be attended to by his family. His father took advantage of this, and procured a warrant. Constable Lester Sly, of Morton, was sent for, burst into the house, and succeeded in getting Eaton handcuffed. Then, he was taken before James Moulen, J.P., and committed to Brockville jail.

Constable Sly's labor has commenced, A. J. and driver were engaged, and by 8:30 a.m. made a start for Gananoque. The prisoners were put into the car, and party were given a smoking out to themselves on the trip to Brockville. Eaton was lodged in jail about 4:30 o'clock. Those who saw the trouble at Gananoque state give Constable Sly much praise for the treatment of so trouble-prone a case. He will remain here to be sure if he is the last of his kind. The prisoner is about twenty-six years of age, and had always lived at home with his parents.

Police Court—Tuesday.

Geo. Barnes, O. Reynolds and Alphonse Elliott, three strangers looking rather tough, were up for drummings this morning. They were fined $1 and costs or ten days in jail each. They will put in the time.
