AN IRON ORE CONFERENCE.

DR. DAWSON SECURING IDEAS FROM CITIZENS.

What is Desired is an Official Statement as to What the Ores of Frontenac are Suited For—The Difficulty Found in An Interview With Blast Furnace Men.

As was to be noted by the WHIG of last night Dr. Dawson and Mr. Inglis, of the geological department, Ottawa, were met by the special committee of the council yesterday afternoon in the mayor's office in regard to gleaning information about the ores of our back country. Those present were: Dr. Dawson, G. M. Inglis, Mayor Wright, Alds. Gaskin, McIntyre, Richardson, Prof. Nicol, Mr. Leonard, C. B. Joseph Bawden, J. Donnelly, A. Chadwick and J. S. Muckleston.

Dr. Dawson explained, as has already been published, that they intended to make a survey of the back country, Frontenac, Lennox and Addington, and Mr. Inglis would make a very clear and lucid report on the quantity and quality of ore to be obtained. He would leave Mr. Inglis on the field to carry on the work.

Mr. Bawden stated that the iron ore interests in this district had heretofore been carried on by American capitalists. It was felt that something should be done as there was a likelihood of the back country opening up. The mines to the west might get in ahead of Kingston and thus kill any enterprise for this locality. This had been the case in New York state, even. Ore was brought in from Cuba and other places while good ore lay imbedded in New York state. There was a prejudice abroad as to the value of the ores in this neighborhood. It would be well if a valuable statement could be obtained from the geological survey.

Dr. Dawson said the hematite ores would be the most important.

Mr. Bawden stated that the magnetic ore had also been neglected. In fact, he doubted if the amount of magnetic ores shipped from this district could be ascertained.

Mr. Muckleston stated that when the deputation went to the other side they found an ignorance of the Frontenac mines as to their quantity and quality. He thought there would be no difficulty in getting Canadian capital to work the mines in this section, since their true value was made known.

Ald. McIntyre explained that when the deputation arrived at Pittsburg and Youngstown they found that Julian Kennedy and his company were not prepared to go ahead because of a lack of information as regards the mines around here.

In answer to Mr. Donnelly, Dr. Dawson stated that it was Mr. Inglis' intention to make a chemical analysis of ore taken from all the mines he visited.

Mr. Bawden thought that more money could be made out of charcoal iron than coke iron if it was deemed advisable to establish such an industry. About 50,000 tons a year of charcoal iron was shipped into England. There was considerable forest yet untouched by fire, and if this could be utilized it would be a good thing.

Dr. Dawson remarked that it might have the effect to make the farmer more careful about his forests.

Prof. Nicol stated that the samples brought into the mining school were good, and he was backed up in this opinion by Mr. Drummond, Montreal. There was very little phosphate or sulphur in the ore.

Mr. Donnelly explained that he had made an analysis of a quantity of ore from our back country the other day and found it went 67½ per cent. The degree of perfection was seventy. This was a remarkable test.

Mr. Leonard was quite satisfied that Ontario could compete in ores with any other province or county.

Michael Gradey, Capt. Jones and many other gentlemen in the city will give the scientists some valuable information.

The meeting was merely for the purpose of a talk and the exchanging of ideas, etc. There is no telling what may come out of the tests to be made if the ores are as good as many people claim.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of the People—What They Are Saying And Doing.

M. Crawford, Buffalo, is here on a visit to F. Crowley.

W. Galbraith, of Bowmanville, is the guest of H. Wade.

C. Marchand, Philadelphia, is here to spend his vacation.

James Burns, formerly a tinsmith here, now of Rochester, is home on a visit.

A. Robbs, Chicago, is here to spend his vacation. Mr. Robbs has done well out west.

A. D. McMartin, of Cornwall, is the guest of J. A. Macdonald, of Williamsville.

Miss Halligan and Miss Lynch, Albany, N.Y., are visiting Miss Halligan, Brock street.

J. Patton, of Syracuse, is spending holidays with John Harold White, University avenue.

Dr. Dawson will leave on Saturday to inspect the boring for oil at Athabasca, N.W.T.

P. Devlin and wife returned yesterday afternoon after spending a week in Toronto visiting friends.

Frank Campbell, Amey Gourdier and wife, Toronto, are the guests of William Shanahan, Princess street.

Manager Robinson, of the Bank of British North America, is off on a vacation. Mr. Philpot is acting manager.

Dr. W. G. M. Byers, Gananoque, has gone on a trip to England, relieving the surgeon on the steamship Lake Ontario.

Mrs. Livingston, Kingston, was among those who picnicked, on Aug. 1st, at Cape Vincent, at a gathering of the Scobell family.

Dr. Whitaker, a graduate of Queen's college, was in the city yesterday, buying medical supplies. He will locate in Morrisburg.

W. J. Godden and W. Hutchinson, Kingston, are off for a fortnight's festivity in the camp life of the Mississippi, near Carleton Place.

This morning Dr. Dawson and E. D. Inglis left on the K. & P. R. for Renfrew. They will visit the iron ore properties along the route.

Ald. J. S. Skinner will spend two weeks' holidays on the Saguenay, and on returning to Kingston will make a vigorous canvass for the office of mayor for 1896.

Dr. Arthur R. Elliott, son of R. Elliott, Belleville, is practicing medicine in Chicago. His skill saved the life of Mrs. French Sheldon. He is a graduate of Queen's.

While J. A. Macdonald, inspector, is enjoying a vacation, W. Whitaker, of North Williamsbury, assistant inspector of weights and measures, is in charge of the local office.

E. P. Wilbur, jr., D. Abbott, P. De Shiel and Ray Wilbur, of Pittsburg, Pa., summering on Sport Island, left to-day for Bob's Lake, where they will spend a few days fishing.

Penn & Lee, Syracuse, N.Y., spring manufacturers, have failed. Liabilities $75,000. Mr. Penn once lived in Gananoque. Both members of the firm have handsome cottages at Thousand Island Park.

Yesterday, while en route to Toronto, Hon. J. A. Chapleau and some friends, of Quebec, stopped an hour in the city. They were entertained by James Swift, Dr. Ryan and other friends in the Frontenac hotel.

W. M. Campbell, policy writer at the head office of the North American Life Insurance Co., is with his brother, C. M., making a tour of Eastern Ontario on a bicycle. They were here last night and left to-day for Montreal.

Excursions Out To-day.

The str. America took 200 people to Ogdensburg this morning. It was a delightful day and the trip could not but be a pleasant one. The str. Hero had a fair crowd to Massassaga park, near Belleville, where the Scotchmen are holding a picnic.

From Toronto To Montreal.

The steamer Euridice arrived in from Toronto this morning en route for Montreal with about 150 people on board. The excursionists were given an hour in the city. The price of the round trip ticket from Toronto to Montreal was $5, a very cheap rate.

Next Monday at Lake Ontario Park.

James E. Hardy, the high wire wonder, has been re engaged to give an afternoon and evening performance of a special character and at each performance will carry a man across on his back. The Jubilee singers will also give a rousing concert at each of the above performances. Admission free.

Everybody Knows.

That all classes of dry goods, carpets, oil cloths, etc., are being offered at extraordinary low prices at R. McFaul's big summer sale. Dress goods at cost price. Chambrays, percales and sateens reduced. Carpets away down in price. Curtains in lace or chenille at cost price. Everything cheap at R. McFaul's big summer sale.

He Was The First Traveller.

At the meeting, yesterday afternoon, Mayor Wright told of his first trip to Calabogie. He was then a traveller on the road, and he claims to be the pioneer drummer to reach that point. He had to drive along the dump with a horse and rig. It was an eventful trip. This was twenty years ago, before a railway was laid.

Crowd At The Park.

The largest crowd of the week attended Lake Ontario park last night. The entertainment was one of the best yet put on. Hardy, on the wire, did many things that he had not previously performed. The most noteworthy was his carrying a boy of 80 lbs. across the wire on his back. His show is a good one. The Smiths were also up to date.

The People Were Convulsed.

J. B. McKay, reader, is a great favorite with Thousand Island audiences. At an entertainment this week he recited "Old Ace" and made a good impression; but when he told the story of "The Man Who Joined," and discussed the advisability of "Going to See Maria" the audience was simply convulsed. His picture of the man who did not want to sleep in church was very funny, and he had to respond to many encores. He has been secured to fill another engagement at the park.

Tour of Canadian Channel.

Str. Hero amongst the islands, Saturday afternoon, 2:15 p.m., calling at Gananoque both ways. Fare 25c. Tea 25c.

Canadian Publications.

There are ninety-two daily papers published in Canada, and Ontario produces forty-five of them. There are nineteen semi-weeklies, and Ontario puts out seven of them. Out of 587 weeklies Ontario's share is 361. Ontario is credited with fourteen out of a list of twenty-two semi-monthlies. Ontario issues eighty-one monthlies; there are a total in Canada of 123. Of Ontario puts out 510 publications out of a total 860, leaving 350 for the rest of the dominion. Newfoundland has five publications; two dailies, one semi-weekly and two weeklies.

He Died in Belleville.

Samuel Kyle, aged ninety-four, died in Belleville on Tuesday. He was an Irishman and came to Kingston during the famine. Mr. Kyle worked at what he could get to do till 1849, when the making of illuminating gas was commenced and he was the first man to manufacture it here. The gas works in Belleville were built in 1854, and the first manager, William Breckenridge, came to Kingston to secure a man conversant with the manufacture. He was impressed with the ability displayed by Mr. Kyle and made him a flattering offer to go to Belleville and take charge of the works. Mr. Kyle accepted and on Christmas day, 1854, Belleville was first illuminated by gas. Mrs. Kyle married Mr. Kyle in 1843. To the couple have been born eleven children, all of whom are dead except one, George, a tinsmith in Chicago.

Ogdensburg Field Day.

Steamer America, accompanied by 14th band, will run an excursion to Ogdensburg on the 15th.

Crooks At Work.

J. A. Macdonald and wife returned yesterday after a trip to St. Anne's, Quebec, Montreal, and Alexandria. They went down in a palace car and with them, as passengers, were two young men, identified by the employees of the train as crooks. The porter in charge of the car watched the movements of the men all night, and had he not been careful Mr. Macdonald might have lost his wallet. The men went to bed before nine o'clock and awoke at eleven. They walked up and down the car and on seeing the porter they went to bed. Two hours later they got up again and walked about. On seeing the porter they returned to bed and remained there until morning.

There were plenty of pickpockets at Ste. Anne's. While the services were going on in the Roman Catholic church over a thousand dollars must have been stolen from the pockets of women and men. Mr. Macdonald says the crops are better in the east this season than last.

Chisholm, who spent seven years in Kingston penitentiary, and now seventy-five years of age, one of the most famous horse thieves known to the Canadian police, was arrested at Tilsonburg, having stolen a horse, buggy and harness from the Oneida reserve. He had traded the outfit in his travels.

The water on the American side from Cape Vincent to Ogdensburg and on the Canadian from Kingston to Prescott may be set apart as an international park. The waters shall be open from shore to shore. It is hoped the Canadian government will set aside several large islands for park purposes.

Yesterday the I.O.O.F. had the biggest demonstration ever attempted in the first district of Ontario, in Paradise park, at Kingsville. There were 6,000 people on the grounds, conceded to be the finest natural park in Ontario. It was the civic holiday in Windsor and Walkerville and other Essex towns, and as far east as Ridgetown.

Remember.

The steamer America will leave sharp at 2 p.m. on her famous "special annual tour" among the islands, Saturday, the most attractive trip ever made out of Kingston. Fare 25c.

The Outfit Was Sold.

On Friday last a man giving his name as John Smith drove in from Napanee and put up his horse and rig at McRae's livery. He wanted to sell the outfit on Saturday, and Mr. Hobbs, driver of a stage, seeing a good bargain, took him up. Hobbs paid thirty-eight dollars for the outfit. The same afternoon Smith left for down the river on the str. Empire State. Yesterday another man came down from Napanee looking for the horse. He said he had loaned it to Smith. The owner left for Bath to claim his property.

Coffins Were Uncovered.

This morning corporation employees, while making a drain on Ordnance street, struck nine coffins. Two were children's coffins and one contained a skull. There were no bones or other matter in the seven adult coffins. The street in olden times used to be a part of the old graveyard. The coffins were resting on brick beds, and about four feet under the surface. The coffins were found near the corner of Clergy and Ordnance streets.

He Could Not Come.

This morning G. H. Allen wired Hon. Wilfred Laurier if he would be able to attend a young liberals' convention here on Labor day. This afternoon this message was received: "Engaged to be in Quebec city on that day." Mr. Allen will now wire the leader of the opposition asking him what date he can give Kingston.

He Is Quite Ill.

Frank Thomas, manager of the New Orleans Jubilee singers, is seriously ill at the Stanley House, suffering from heart disease. He has been eighteen years on the road and the only member out of the original troupe. If he does not improve he will be removed to the Warsaw sanitarium.

Civic Holiday Excursion.

The new steamer America to Picton, Monday, at 11 a.m., calling at Lake-on-the Mountain each way. Fare 50c.

INJURED IN A RUNAWAY.

DANIEL M'BRIDE HAD HIS SKULL DAMAGED.

Driving Home The Horses Ran Away And The Occupants Of The Rig Were Thrown Out—Rev. Fr. McDonagh Had His Ankle Sprained.

Daniel McBride and J. Vanalstine were in the city yesterday, and, after transacting business started for their homes, in the township of Pittsburg, in the afternoon. On nearing Byrne's corner the horses, a spirited team, got frightened and could not be managed by McBride. He did his best to hold them in but the harder he pulled on the animals the faster they went. The men were thrown on the road and the horses went on. McBride fell on his head with the result that a fracture was made in the frontal bone three inches square. When Dr. Bell arrived he was unconscious, but during the time the doctor was waiting on him, he revived, but only for a few moments, when he again relapsed into unconsciousness.

After binding up his wounds the doctor ordered McBride to be taken to the Hotel Dieu. Vanalstine was bruised about the face and body, but was not seriously injured.

In answer to the call to attend to McBride, Father McDonagh started to drive to the scene of the accident. On the bridge his horse became alarmed at a bicycle and acted badly. The wheel of the buggy got in a crack in the bridge and while the priest was trying to steady the horse one of his feet caught in an iron in front of the buggy and he had his ankle dislocated. He bravely drove to where McBride was lying and performed his duty and then had his leg treated by Dr. Bell. The reverend gentleman did not risk to drive his horse home again, and was fortunate in meeting Mrs. Cunningham, who was driving with some Syracuse friends. They took the priest into the rig and drove him to the city. His horse was led to the city behind Dr. Bell's buggy.

At nine o'clock last evening doctors could not tell whether McBride would live. He was very low last night. The report this morning was that, although very low, still he is better than he was last night. If McBride lives to get strength enough, and his brain is not affected, an operation will be performed.

D. McBride was a little easier at three p.m., and there are hopes of his ultimate recovery.

FRONTENAC CHEESE BOARD.

A Suggestion That Was Not Presented As a Motion.

The cheese market is again stagnant today and little business was transacted. The board was opened at 7 7-16c and only raised two points. The Liverpool cable called for 38s 2d to 39s. This is pretty low, but still Mr. Lake and others thought the buyers should have come up a few notches. In fact, Mr. Lake moved that the board send an agent to the old country to sell the cheese of this district, and Mr. Staley, of Wolfe Island, thought it would be a good idea, as every one knew about what it cost to keep up middlemen, with which term he spoke of the buyers. Mr. Lake also complained of the buyers picking out factories that were handy and that the rear fellows were never approached unless absolutely necessary to fill an order. The motion was not put however. It created considerable laughter but it is a question if some concern was not felt by some of the members. There were 2236 cheese boarded, 119 of which were white. The colored were: Batterset, 100; Crow Lake, 68; Cold Springs, 120; Bear Creek, 90; Farmers' Friend, 75; Glenvale, 50; Granite Hill, 100; Harrowsmith, 200; Lake Shore, 60; Maple Leaf, 40; Morning Star, 30; Oso, 45; Oregon, 80; Pine Grove, 54; Pine Hill, 75; Perth Road, 60; Rose Hill, 82; Sand Hill, 109; Sharbot Lake, 65; Tichborne, 72; Wolfe Island, 111; Forrest, 100; Union, 100; Excelsior, 60; Wagerville, 75; Ontario, 30; Cataraqui, 75; Sunbury, 40; Keenan & Son, 75. White—Harlowe, 58; Fish Creek, 61.

Crow Lake accepted Mr. Murphy's offer of 7 9-16c., and Battersea, Sunbury, Sand Hill and Excelsior took the same figure from Mr. Vanluven. Mr. Madden got Farmers' Friend and Harrowsmith at 7 9-16c., and Mr. Bartlett got Harlowe for 7¾c.

$15 a Minute

Is what few people are privileged to make. You can do it by buying a pound of forty cent Osh-K-Osh tea. For the present you can get it for twenty-five cents. One thing is sure, a tea that is used every day by a great number of intelligent and prosperous people, and which is admitted to be a good article, is cheap at twenty-five cents, and is a safe investment for those who use tea. One dollar will purchase four pounds at our Kingston store, 109 Princess street, and at Toronto, Peterboro and Kingston.

Successful Canadians.

Belleville Ontario,

Douglas N. Boyce and Thos. Moon, of Chicago, wheeled through here Thursday morning on their way home, which is Sydenham, near Kingston. Both these young men have been very successful out west and hold responsible positions. Mr. Boyce is assistant manager of one of the largest velvet departments in America, and Mr. Moon is floor manager of one of the large retail stores there. This shows that Canadian boys are not behind in the race in Uncle Sam's domains.
