PRINCIPAL GRANT AT HOME. A DECIDEDLY PLUCKY GIRL.

Principal Grant returned yesterday by the afternoon train from Toronto after a visit of about five weeks to Manitoba and the north-west. He was accompanied by his wife and three children.

A DECIDEDLY PLUCKY GIRL. Miss Maudie Welch, the young lady so severely injured during the storm at Cape Vincent last week, is recovering rapidly.

MISS WELCH IS RAPIDLY RECOVERING FROM INJURIES. She, with a Reporter Regarding the Collapse of Her Impressions When the Hurricane Raged on Sept. 13th, 1894.

When the storm struck Cape Vincent, Miss Welch and her friend, who accompanied her, decided to remain there over night rather than trust their lives to the mercy of a gale.

When Miss Welch was rescued from the wreck she was in a condition of collapse. Her life was so severely shaken that she was unable to get up for several days.
