A MONTH OF DANGER!

October Weather Dreaded by Rheumatic Sufferers.

Sudden Changes in Temperature Bring Agonies and Suffering.

Paine's Celery Compound Should be Freely Used This Month.

The Only Medicine That Cures Rheumatism and Sciatica.

We have just entered on the month of October, a time fraught with tremendous dangers to all rheumatic sufferers. It is terrible to contemplate the agonies that thousands will have to endure. The victims are many; they are old and young, rich and poor. Some wealthy sufferers will betake themselves to climes with fewer dangerous changes of temperature; but the vast majority are obliged to face and endure the evils that must surely come, unless they seek the help of Paine's Celery Compound, that medicine that never fails in the most terrible cases of rheumatism.

In the complete banishment of rheumatism and sciatica, Paine's Celery Compound has more wonderful cures to its credit than can be shown by all other combined medicines.

It should be remembered that Paine's Celery Compound does not simply relieve for a few days or weeks; this wonderful medicine goes straight to the root of the trouble and takes away the seeds of disease forever. Medical men know well of its value in rheumatism, and endorse its use. It is therefore folly on your part to go on suffering when such a cure is within your reach. If you are a rheumatic sufferer and wish a complete cure see that you are not influenced to take SOMETHING ELSE, even if your dealer recommends it; your safety depends entirely on Paine's Celery Compound and its miraculous virtues.

SHE'S TO ADORN BLENHEIM.

FIVE MILLIONS WILL BE GIVEN BY W. K. VANDERBILT.

Wedding Day is Fixed—Marlborough Will Have a Duchess on Nov. 14th—Honeymoon on Papa's Yacht And in Some German Castle—Wedding Gifts Galore.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt and the Duke of Marlborough will be married on Nov. 14th in Grace church. Right Rev. Henry C. Potter, D.D., bishop of the diocese of New York, will perform the ceremony, assisted by the rector, Rev. Dr. Huntington. William K. Vanderbilt will give his daughter away at the altar, but whether or not he will appear at the reception, which is to follow the ceremony at the residence of Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Madison avenue and Seventy-second street, is a question nobody seems able to answer.

In deference to British custom, the marriage will be celebrated at noon and will be followed by an elaborate breakfast, thoroughly English in all its details. The Prince of Wales, it is said, will send a representative to this country to attend the wedding. The duke's mother, the Marchioness of Blandford, will also be present, likewise a number of his relatives. That Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt or any of William K. Vanderbilt's family will go to the wedding is considered quite improbable. Society is asking itself whether Cornelius Vanderbilt will present his niece with the silver dinner service purchased by him years ago of the duke's father. It was formerly used at Blenheim and each piece bears the arms of the house of Churchill.

The young people will make the trip in regular fashion, quite by themselves, aboard Mr. Vanderbilt's yacht Valiant, which he will place at their disposal. On their arrival on the other side the duke and duchess will proceed to Saxony, where, through the hospitality of the emperor of Germany, they will spend a few weeks in some picturesque out-of-the-way castle. Their visit to Germany over, they will go to Blenheim by way of Paris, where they will be joined by Mrs. Vanderbilt. Blenheim is one of the finest estates in England, or in the world. It is situated in Oxfordshire and contains about 2,700 acres.

When Mrs. Louis Hemmersley married the present duke's father Blenheim had suffered greatly from the want of money to keep it up. She at once set about restoring it as much as possible to some of its old-time splendor, although it could never be fully restored at any price, for many of its superb art treasures went under the hammer at the Marlborough art sale in 1886.

In addition to the dowry of $10,000,000 to go with Miss Vanderbilt upon her marriage with the duke, another settlement of $5,000,000 has been made by Mr. Vanderbilt. This last sum, it is understood, will be entirely expended on Blenheim, and will enable the duke and his young duchess to keep it up in regal state. The future Duchess of Marlborough will be presented to the queen by the Marchioness of Blandford at one of the spring drawing-rooms.

Mrs. Vanderbilt and Miss Vanderbilt have come to New York. Besides the splendid settlement Mr. Vanderbilt has made upon his daughter, it is understood that he will give her some superb jewels, among other things a long string of diamonds like the one he presented her mother some years ago. It is two yards long and consists of large matched gems. The duke's mother will bring the Churchill jewels over with her for her son's bride.

GOMEZ HAS ESCAPED.

He Got Away From The Cordon Set To Entrap Him.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Information direct from President Masse, in Camageuy, Cuba, to the junta here, says General Maximo Gomez has escaped from the cordon in which General Campos endeavored to entrap him in Puerto Principe. Gomez, it is reported, has fled into the province of Santa Clara to organize the army there, upon as perfect a footing as the army of the Orient, and he will try to effect a junction with Roloff. Masso has heard that General Campos has sent Generals Mello and Navaro after Gomez. It is said that after Gomez has now organized the now rather raw forces in Santa Clara, he will proceed into Matanzas to join La Crete, who has arrived there from this country, and has 2,000 men under arms. General Gomez declares he will advance the revolution close to Havana.

Again the Rebels Were Routed.

MADRID, Oct. 1.—The Imparcial's special despatch from Havana says: "Colonel Rubans' column made anattack at Potrera, in the Varas district of Sancti Spiritus, upon a force of 2,000 rebels, under Serafin Sanchez, Castillo and other leaders, and after a prolonged fight the rebels were routed, leaving forty dead and many wounded on the field. Among the killed were the rebel leader Ganches, his brother-in-law Pirs, and the mulatto leader Legon. The Spanish had eleven wounded, including Colenel Ruban, who received a bullet in his thigh. Gen. Martinez Campos has gone to Villas."

GREAT DAMAGE TO SHIPPING.

The Vessels on the Upper Lakes Having Lively Times.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich. Oct. 1.—The terrific northwest gale which has raged here for two days continues to do great damage to shipping. It is reported that two large steamers are ashore at Kewenaw Point. The captain of the Schuykill, which arrived from Duluth yesterday morning, says he could not make out who they were, but thought they were the Matoa and Masaba, belonging to the Minnesota company, and valued at $20,000. The steamers cleared from Two Harbors yesterday for Cleveland loaded with iron ore. The point where they are aground is said to be the most dangerous one of any on the whole chain of lakes. From White Fish Point comes the report that a schooner is flying signals of distress. Two tugs have gone to her rescue.

At Sheldrake the barges Carney and Lillie May, of the Nellie Torrent tow, are ashore and total losses. Twenty boats are anchored between here and Iroquois Point and above the encampment several large steamers are awaiting an abatement of the gale.

BUSINESS LOOKING UP.

Several Concerns in New Jersey Resuming Business Again.

ELIZABETH, N.J., Oct. 1.—Signs of returning industrial and business prospects are beginning to increase here. The announcement is made to-day that an English syndicate has leased postmaster Sheridan's large factory on South Broad street for five years and will manufacture paper boxes. The plant has been idle nearly two years.

The Fowler car works at Elizabethport, which have been shut down since 1894 have been purchased by the Lewis car company, of Brooklyn, which will re-open the plant soon and give employment to several hundred hands.

The oilcloth factory on Grove street which also has been idle for a couple of years, has been leased by a foreign company that will make felt hats and give employment to about 200 persons.

The Farm Colony.

TORONTO, Oct. 1.—Rev. Dr. Galbraith presented to the Methodist ministers an appeal for co-operation from the promoters of a scheme for the formation of a co-operative colony. They purpose procuring a tract of 500 acres, obtain a loan of $20,000 and have $5,000 in shares of $10 each, which will be of two classes, non-profitable and those taken by the "colonists." The raising of produce and kindred occupations are projected. The clergymen appointed Revs. Dr. Galbraith, C. O. Johnston and J. C. Speer, to render any assistance practicable.

French schooner Marie Blanch, from St. Pierre for Bay of Islands, with general cargo, went ashore at Lapoile, Nfld., last night; vessel and cargo a total loss. Captain and one man saved out of a crew of five.

The SS. Lake Winnipeg passed Father Point, Que., from Liverpool, inward, at 3 a.m. to-day.

CAPT. EASTMAN'S COMPLAINT.

Decided to Abandon His Trip Rather Than Do Howard's Bidding.

OTTAWA, Oct. 1.—The department of justice has decided that the collection of 12½ per cent. royalty by the customs department for authors is illegal, and therefore it is to be stopped.

Capt. John Eastman, of the schr. Amazon, of Lunenburg, N.S., seventy-three tons register, writing from North Sydney, C.B., details the harsh treatment which he alleges Capt. "Gat." Howard meted out to him on the Labrador coast. On the 18th August the Amazon was boarded by officer Howard at Old Fort, in the straits of Belle Isle, and ordered out of port. Capt. Eastman was preparing to proceed to Harrington Harbor, where he had accepted a charter to convey a cargo of fish. Howard learning of this wanted the Amazon to proceed to Blanc Sablon and to enter and clear at the customs there necessitating a special trip of several hundred miles. Rather than do this Eastman says he decided to abandon his charter, by which he suffered a net loss of $500, and this he claims the dominion government should make good to him. He says that officer Howard was unnecessarily abusive and offensive, and even refused to allow him to buy food necessary for himself and his crew. Capt Eastman's is a Newfoundlander, but his vessel is of Canadian register, and he thinks that he should not have been treated in such a high-handed manner by a dominion custom officer. Capt. "Gat" Howard's side of the story still remains untold, no report having yet been received from him at the department.

J. C. Glashan, school inspector of this city, has been appointed a member of the board of civil service examination.

The supreme court met to-day when Mr. Girouard took his seat on the bench. All the other judges were present. The commission appointing Mr. Girouard was read by the registrar, after which the Quebec list of cases was taken up.

Major general Gascoygne has reached the city and was at his office this forenoon.

A SUNDAY SCHOOL EVENT.

A New Departure in Connection With the Quarterly Reviews.

There was, in the Queen street Methodist Sunday school, on Sunday afternoon, a new departure in the way of a quarterly review. As a result of previous arrangements there was a competition among the scholars of the different departments in the writing of essays on the features of the quarterly lessons. The papers were given beforehand to the superintendent, who had them referred to a committee, which made the valuation of them. On Sunday the three best papers were read to the school, and the winners were only announced when they were called up for their prizes, thus:

Miss Alma Ferris, for the best connected summary of the quarter's lessons, a copy of Trumbull's "Studies of Oriental Life."

Miss Stella P. Emmett, for the second best summary of the lessons, a copy of Farrer's "Life of Christ."

Master Alex. Fokes, for the best summary of the wanderings of the children of Israel, and the principal events transpiring between the exodus from Egypt, and the death of Joshua, a copy of "Ben Hur."

The Queen street Sunday school is graded after the manner of the public schools. The promotions have just been made, and with next Sunday begins the record for the honor roll of 1895-96.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Dr. Ryckman's Contention.

KINGSTON, Oct. 1.—(To the Editor): Please allow me to say that I think your stricture in last night's paper is too strong in saying that I "erred and that without reason," assuming "that the majority of votes cast for Hon. Mr. Harty were influenced by corruption, and all of them, since he quoted 432." I did not say just that. Your own report in another column states my thought exactly. That large majority was "melted away." If 216 votes were bought from the other party, the majority disappears. My remark was based on the report of the judges, "We determined that such corrupt practices were of so extensive a character as necessarily to void the said election, notwithstanding the large majority of votes," etc. I made no remark intended to imply that all the electors of Kingston "were sinners above all the Galileans." The crime is general, and should not be minified, but soundly rebuked.—E. B. RYCKMAN.

It is learned that prior to the str. Wallish going on the rocks at Beacon Perch, the Wallish came into collision with a vessel supposed to be the Norwegian steamer Flos, now anchored at Skelmorlie with her bows badly damaged.

It is reported from Washington that secretary Olney intends indulging in a little tail-twisting policy. He will invite Russia to assist the United States in patrolling the Behring sea against the "piratical Canadians," and if England dares to interfere why she will have to take the consequences.

Despatches from various points in Indiana, Illinois and Iowa indicate a general movement of coal miners for an advance in wages. At Brazil, Ind., yesterday, the miners' demand for seventy cents per ton was granted by the operators. It is reported that the Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania operators will refuse the advance.

Work on the amphitheatre, Austin, Tex., has not been resumed and the building stands as the carpenters left it Saturday evening. President Stewart, of the Florida athletic club, says work on the structure costs him $1,500 a day and he does not consider it good business judgment to take any chances on what the legislature may do.

James Smith, Neenah, Wis., was arrested last night charged with being one of the men who wrecked and robbed a train on the Wisconsin Central railroad at Waupaca, a few nights ago. Smith confessed. He admitted that he was a member of the gang of bandits, which consisted of four men, and said that the leader of the gang was Jack Connors. Officers are after him.

The city of Hamilton is now having trouble with its water works system. Yesterday morning a serious break was discovered in the main pipe under the pumping house, at the point where it divides into two mains, where it carries the water from the beach to the city. The supply is entirely shut off, and the engines may be prevented from pumping for three or four days.

At the Wayfarers' inn, New York city, indigents can get a "square meal" by working up one-sixteenth of a cord of wood into condition for the stove, and a night's lodging and two meals require that one-eighth of a cord be so treated. Last year 25,000 men found food and shelter at the inn. This is a practical way of administering philanthropy. Cities and villages could establish such inns, now lockups, and compel vagrants to "pay their keep."

LINCOLN FOR PRESIDENT.

Harrison. It Is Said, Will Give His Support To Him.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—The Herald says, in an interview published on Sunday, John C. New, ex-president Harrison's closest friend and political representative, made the statement that if Mr. Harrison was to give his support to any presidential candidate it would be neither to McKinley nor Reed, but to "some one else," who Mr. New did not say. The Herald has it from an indisputable authority that this "some one else" is Robert T. Lincoln, of Illinois. Mr. Harrison and the man whom he appointed minister to England have long been near friends, and John C. New has also been a partner in this intimacy. The New York custodian of the Lincoln boom is Thomas L. James, who is now in Europe.

The formation of the anti-Harrison combination has caused the Harrison people to show their hands. Mr. Harrison's friends say he is not a candidate, but that he will be nominated and elected. It was learned from the same authority, who told who "some one else" was, that the anti-Harrison combine, led by Thomas C. Platt and Senator Quay, has decided to support former speaker Reed.

The Pennsylvania manufacturers prefer an eastern to a western man and to consequence the Reed sentiment is growing stronger and the McKinley sentiment weaker.

Senator Quay's second choice is Senator William B. Allison, as he is Mr. Platt's third.

The Augsburg Abend-Zeitung says that Prince Leithold, regent of Bavaria, has refused to pardon Lotin Stern, of New York, recently condemned to a fine and imprisonment for insulting Baron Von Thuengen, deputy commissioner of the Spa at Kissengen.

IS STRIPPED OF HIS RANK.

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENT BRINGS CHINA TO TERMS.

The Viceroy of Sze-Chuen Was the Cause of the Outrages at Chen-Tu—He Will Never be Allowed to Hold office Again—His Subordinate Officers Were Also Denounced.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—A despatch from Pekin was received at the foreign office yesterday confirming the statement that China had acted favorably on the demands of the Marquis of Salisbury for the punishement of the viceroy of Sze-Chuen who Sir Nicholas O'Connor, the British minister at Pekin, reported was responsible for the outrages beginning in May at the mission stations in Chen-Tu, the capital of Sze-Chuen.

The despatch received at the foreign office states that the Chinese Official Gazette has published an imperial edict announcing that the viceroy of Sze-Chuen has been stripped of his rank for failing to protect the missionaries and will never again be allowed to hold office, so that his case will serve as a warning for all future time to officials who may be disposed to do wrong.

The decree also denounces the subordinate officials of the province who failed to take proper action for the protection of the missionaries.

The Pall Mall Gazette says that the Sung-Li-Yamen (the board controlling Chinese foreign affairs) formally communicated its decision to the British minister, who expressed himself as satisfied with the terms of the edict. "It is now probable," also says the Pall Mall Gazette, "that the British vessels which had entered the Yang-Tse-Kiang river for the purpose of enforcing the demands of Great Britain, will forthwith descend the river and resume their former stations."

Admiral Buller, commander-in-chief of the British fleet in Chinese waters, has arrived at Shanghai on board the despatch boat Alacrity.

Dedication Of St. Peter's Church.

Last Thursday the new Anglican church in the village of Harrowsmith was solemnly dedicated to the worship of Almighty God. The services in the morning consisted of matins and celebration of the holy eucharist, with a most impressive sermon by the Rev. J. K. McMorine, of St. James' church, Kingston, who emphasized the fact that all worship on earth in the church should lead up to and prepare us for the higher worship in heaven. A public dinner, generously and liberally provided by members and friends, was served in the town hall at 12:30 o'clock when a great many sat down to a most sumptuous meal. At 4:30 o'clock the church was photographed by the Rev. John Fisher, of Thomasburgh, and at five o'clock the bell rang for tea. Evensong was said at seven o'clock and a very appropriate sermon preached by the Rev. Rural dean Carey, of St. Paul's church, Kingston. In the course of his sermon the rural dean described the church as being "a perfect little gem." Both morning and evening the building was thronged with worshippers. The clergy who took part in the services during the day, were Rev. Rural Dean Carey, Rev. J. K. McMorine, Rev. J. R. Serson, Rev. F. D. Woodcock, Rev. R. Coleman, Rev. J. Fisher and the rector. The amount of money contributed during the day amounted in hard cash to the sum of $94.

The Higher Criticism.

How Two Documents may be Found in One. A monograph in connection with the Higher Criticism, by Dean Carmichael, of Montreal.

The dean besides being eloquent has more than a popular knowledge of the natural sciences. Now he adventures into the field of higher criticism. He selects portions of the writings of modern English authors and shows how it is possible to resolve them into two documents of somewhat different character, so as to justify the theory that they are not the work of one man, but originally were produced by two, and were fused by a third. He gives examples from Stanley's description of the "Passage of the Red Sea," from dean Farrar's "Life of St. Paul," from Pressense's "Life of Christ," Kinglake's "Description of Louis Napoleon." The Dean gives first-rate work, and offers enough to justify him in appealing to students for an arrest of judgment in regard to the criticism of the old testament documents.

Success excuses means.

A pretty woman never forgets herself.

No woman cares to know why she loves a man.

Dreams of wealth don't come true as often as work for it does.

Adam was the only husband who never complained of dressmakers' bills.

A wife loves a new bonnet quite as well as a husband loves a good dinner.

Good intentions never die—which may be a reason why they are so seldom carried out.

A man may pray without ceasing, but if he doesn't pay without ceasing, it won't amount to much.

When you hear a man talking about having the best wife on earth, it is a good time to watch how he treats her.

JUST BENEATH THEM.

At Least a Canadian Letter To The New York Herald Would Indicate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—A Herald special from Victoria, B.C., says: Letters just received from London, regarding Mr. Rose's challenge for the America's cup, give a key to the dissatisfaction expressed by the British press in connection therewith that it is not likely to please the British colonist, especially the Canadians. Members of the Royal northern yacht club writing to E. Graham Webster, of Victoria, say that the trouble all lies in the fact that Mr. Rose is not a native-born Englishman, and many in the old land still rate all "colonial" subjects a little lower than themselves. The coming of a colonial to the rescue soon after Dunraven's failure to bring home the coveted cup, is especially galling to a certain contingent of English yachtsmen, and on this account, as well as for the glory itself, the good wish of all fellow Canadians will be with Mr. Rose and his yacht in 1896.

New Fall Mantles.

To see them is to admire, to admire is to desire, and this usually makes a buyer, for as a rule prices elsewhere are much higher than at the new mantle rooms of George Mills & Co., 170 Wellington street.
