A SPLENDID SUCCESS

A Large Audience At The Band's Benefit TELEGRAMS FROM THE EARTH'S

It speaks well for the generous and kindly nature of the people of Kingston that such a large audience turned out, in last evening, to attend the benefit concert given by the band of the 14th battalion in aid of the Wure's fund for the relief of the unfortunate Lindsay family, whose Manitoha had the first heavy snow storm | terrible experiences are known through out the province. It is commonly said, in Count DeCary, founder of the Hungarian | these cynical mineteenth century days, that men have grown callous and selfish in the pursuit of the "almighty dollar," that they have no thought for the needs and misfortunes of their fellows. While this is undoubtedly true of some-and an occasion like that of last night serves to single them out-vet in the hearts of the ters have returned to London from Copen- great majority the milk of human kindness flows freely, and the cry of distress never for the brute. The idea caugh and early in the even ing the men began to gather and talk the matter over. A rope was then brought and the party involuntarily made a move to Page street. Here two or three women who had learned of the intentions made a raid on the relatives, in the crowd and quickly ran them bome. The word quick ly spread and other women were soon on the scene and, capturing their relatives, so decimated the ranks of the would-be lynch MADE ers that the balance gave up in disgust. One man who did not desire to go home when his wife wanted him to, was picked up by her and a daughter and literally car-ried indoors.
