

A CARD OF THANKS. It's Just As True

We take much pleasure in thanking the people for their patronage since we started business, and especially for the crowds that responded to our advertisement in last Thursday's paper. Being new beginners it was very encouraging to us to see our customers going away pleased and satisfied that what we advertised was carried out to the letter. The fine ladies' fine double-ribbed wool hose, worth 65c. per pair, was advertised at 50c., or two pairs for 75c., was picked up like hot cakes. We have a few dozen left, but have ordered fifty dozen more and expect them in a few days.

CORRIGAN & CO. DELIGHTFUL ODORS.

Remains of the Late William Vautour. From the Milton Vautour, Recovered and Buried. Taken and the Body Secured and Vaulted.

The hiding of the body of an old man to the left of the entrance at the corner of Brock and Albert streets, on Sunday night, turns out to have been more than a trick of brookside students, or the act of some young "navy hand," who desired to procure a subject to illustrate one.

When the relative arrived at the police station here, and told their story to the chief, they were told of the discovery that had been made in the shed at the corner of Brock and Albert streets. The relative started for the scene, but the men had been taken away, as reported in yesterday's issue.
