SAN FRANCISCO, March 8 - The sale of] seats for the Fitzsimmons-Corbett fight began in this city at noon Saturday. soon as the sale opened Billy Williams, for Charles L. Asher, of the Baldwin hotel, purchased $1,500 worth of $40 tickets. During the afternoon nearly 200 tickets were sold. About half were $40 seats and the proceeds, according to agents Cook & Clark, amounted to nearly $6,000. Many tickets were also sold in the evening. was expected that 5 000 tickets would be sold in the city alone, but that the estimate has been reduced considerable is shown by the fact that 2,000 tickets have been retained to supply the demand of both Oakland and San Francisco.
