THEY FOUND HER IN PRISON SHE WAS IN RAGS AND MUCH EMACIATED.

A Woman of Affluence in Cuba Carried Away—Insurgents Found Her in Prison and Made a Rescue—Gomez Was Slightly Wounded.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A special from Havana by way of Jacksonville, Fla., under the date of yesterday says: Calabazar, in this province, was raided Friday. The Spanish jail was forced open and eighteen insurgents who were to be shot this week were released. Most of the Spanish guard of fifty were killed or wounded.

Among the prisoners was Isabelle Teresa Monte, said to be a relative of Gen. Acosta. She is nearly fifty years old, and had been confined in a vile prison more than three months. She had disappeared from her residence, two miles from this place, and her friends had made many attempts to ascertain her whereabouts, but without success.

When she was found she was in rags and emaciated to a shocking degree. She was very prominent in that section, had been raised in affluence, and the insurgents almost destroyed her reason. The insurgents were so wrought up by the field where they had had the fight and hacked the bodies of their fallen enemies so as to be sure that a spark of life did not remain in any of them.

WILLOUGHBY FENCED. He Said That Private Conversation Led Him to the Views He Held.

LONDON, April 6. At to-day's sitting of the parliamentary South African committee an official from the war office produced a number of letters written by major Sir John Willoughby, the contents of which the witness refused to disclose upon the demand of Mr. Labouchere at the sitting of the committee last Friday.

The first letter read was dated from Holloway jail where Willoughby was serving a term of ten months' imprisonment which recently expired.

The writer said that he had taken part in the Jameson movement in Matabeleland and in the honest belief that the raid was undertaken with the knowledge and assent of imperial authorities. Major Willoughby was called to stand and Sir William Harcourt asked him a number of questions designed to draw out a statement of his reasons for believing the raid to be the sanction of imperial authority to which he answered that his belief was based upon private conversations which he had had with Dr. Jameson.

The witness was pressed for a more detailed answer, but after facing with his questions for a while, he finally refused to give any further information on the subject.

The chairman warned major Willoughby that the testimony he was giving was in direct conflict with that given by Dr. Jameson and asked him to explain to the committee the reasons why the testimony of the two should be so much at variance.

Willoughby repeatedly declined to make any explanation and the chairman began a new line of questioning by asking which imperial authority the witness understood to have sanctioned the raid into Boer territory, but he refused to answer.

The chairman informed Willoughby that both he and Dr. Jameson would be recalled to the purpose of reconciling their statements and the committee then adjourned until Friday.

The government works arrived at the farm before the engineer got around, and with the best intentions in the world, but no notion whatever of machinery, they proceeded to get steam up in the boiler.

They managed to ruin the engine and narrowly escaped blowing up the whole outfit. The Penhallows lost the fall threshing and have still a claim against the government for $371.

Wanted A Day Fixed. LONDON, April 6.—In the house of commons to-day the Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, first lord of the treasury, and the government leader in the house, said that the majority refused to vote to devote a day to debate a motion for an address to the queen praying that the forces for crown shall not be employed against the kingdom of Greece or the people of Crete in accordance with the notice given by Sir William Harcourt, the leader of the opposition, yesterday.

The ground upon which he based his refusal was the fact that the proposed motion was altogether too ambiguous.

A HUSBAND ACCUSED OF ATTEMPTING TO POISON. A Railway Conductor is Charged With a Terrible Crime—Husband and Wife Have Not Been Living on Good Terms—A Bottle That Had Been Tampered With.

SHERBROOKE, Que., April 6.—A sensation was created here to-day when it became known that Henry Burns, express-conductor on the Boston & Maine R.R., and a well-known citizen, had been arrested on a serious charge of attempting to murder his wife by poison. Burns is twenty-eight years of age. He lives with his wife at Sherbrooke house.

Mrs. Burns has been ill and has been taking medicine nearly all winter. On Saturday she noticed that her medicine bottle had been tampered with, there being more in the bottle than when she had taken the last dose. However, she took a dose and found that it burned her mouth and throat considerably. It seems the couple haven't been on very good terms for some months and several incidents in connection with the present case made her suspect her husband had put something into her medicine.

She communicated her suspicions to friends this morning high constable Moe was sent for. After satisfying himself of the seriousness of the affair, he arrested Burns. The prisoner is still in jail.

A SUIT FOR DAMAGES. To Recover the Value of a Lot of Lodge Paraphernalia.

WINDSOR, Ont., April 6.—A case which promises general interest, more especially in P.P.A. circles, commenced before Judge Horne at Sandwich to-day. A large number of prominent men are in attendance from London, Stratford, and other eastern points to give evidence. Last December William Harding, a cabinet-maker, of Sandwich, entered a suit against Jackson Little, Toronto, to recover $800, the value of lodge paraphernalia, which had been ordered from Harding by Little for the use of the different lodges throughout the province. When Little received the papers in connection with the suit he repudiated all responsibility, although admitting, it is said, that he had given the order for the stuff to Harding. In order to relieve himself of some of the responsibility or liability which his friends in the west had subjected him to, Little brought a counter suit against Rev. F. R. Ghent, rector of St. Mary's church, Walkerville, and ex-mayor son of Windsor, who, as grand lodge officers, Little contended, were equally liable with him for any indebtedness incurred by the grand lodge. About three weeks ago counsel for the Toronto litigants made a motion before county judge McHugh, asking permission to withdraw the co-defendants' names from the action, which was granted. Little and Harding in consequence will fight the matter to a finish. It is understood that attempts have been made by various members of the order to have the matter settled out of court, so that the inner workings of the society might not be laid bare to the gaze of the world, but a compromise would not be listened to by either side.

BADLY DEMORALIZED. A Russian Correspondent Says This in Regard to the Greek Army.

NEW YORK, April 6.—A special to the Herald from St. Petersburg says the correspondent of the Russian Gazette has returned here from Athens and states that the hatred of the Russians is so great there that he had to leave, being in fear of his life. He went to the frontier and found the Greek troops in a lamentable condition of demoralization. There is a feeling here that the Greeks will stop their fanatical programme after the firm and almost sternly worded declaration of the powers.

ATHENS, April 6.—The seventy-sixth anniversary of the raising of the standard of the cross against the crescent on April 6th, 1821, beginning the war against the Turks, which resulted in the independence of Greece, was celebrated throughout the kingdom to-day with great enthusiasm. All business was suspended and popular participation in the national fête was general. In the forenoon the king and queen, the ministers and the foreign diplomats attended religious service in the cathedral, where a Te Deum was sung, and the remainder of the day was devoted to holiday making of every description. As the king drove to and from the cathedral he was constantly cheered by the great crowds of people living on the streets, and showers of papers bearing the inscription "Hurrah for War" were thrown into his carriage. Despite the warlike temper of the people there were no disturbances.
