About one o'clock on Sunday morning the fire alarm disturbed the slumbers of the residents of Mill and Water streets and quickly brought out the fire brigade. The tire was in the frame house on Water street, just in front of C. E. Bartlett's office, and occupied by J. W. McCreary. The fire was observed before it had made any headwithout any damage to speak of. The bcfriends in Camden East and are not yet aware of the occurrence. It is a mystery how the fire originated.

D. P. Henwood and Walter Bruton wheeled to Cataraqui on Saturday and spent Sunday with friends there. Carrie McCoy, who has been very ill for the past two months with a lung affection, is, we are pleased to say, gradually recovering. Caswell Burley, a little fellow about twelve years of age, met with rather a painful injury on Saturday last. He was assisting Frank Rikley to turn the icecream freezer, and got his fingers jammed in the cogs of the freezer. The injury will be quite a painful one.
