The departure of a son from beneath sidence of her patient, which is fre- present. The slcor is covered with a the paternal roof does not present any spectacle of desolation. Masculine life has, from infancy, an individuality, an independence, an exotism, so to say, which is essentially wanting in female existence. When a son abandons his parwrest, this separation causes but little interruption in their mutual relations. A man marries, and still maintains his friendships, his habits, and his filial affections. Nothing is changed in his life; it is only an additional tie. His departure is, consequently, a mere simple separation; while the departure of a young girl, become the wife of a few hours, is a real desertion—a desertion with all its duties and feelings still fresh about it. In one word, the sen is a supling which has always grown apart from the trunk while the daughter has, she, in return, has appeared to pour forth upon you both an equally inexhaustible gratitude; you loved her beyond all the world, and she seemed to cling to you with a proportionable affection. More than another that impresses experienced bicycle riders with the E. & D. wheel it is the high quality of material, workmanship and finish that enter into its construction. Time and money have been sacrificed without stint so long as the "best" was produced. The Main feature, however, is the bearing. This is so constructed that dust or rain cannot get into the ball race and the oil cannot get out of the pathway of the balls. For this reason it is only necessary to oil the E. & D. wheel BUT ONCE A SEASON. No oil can is furnished with kit of

It is worth something to have a distinctive mount. That's why the E. & D. is a favorite with both rider and dealer, and it's easy to sell a favorite. The time will never come when others will be "just as good," remember that.
