Capital Notes OTTAWA, June 21.—Throughout last week the house of commons worked with great industry and on Friday night about fifty members had gone home. Much was said on the same day of the wrongs of general Cameron, but outside Sir Charles Tupper, who spoke exhaustively on the subject, very little interest was taken in this rather hackneyed theme.

The rumor is current here that the senate will throw out some of the government bills and sit for long weary days to come. This sounds like a fairy tale, and past experience has shown that the senate possesses a wonderful capacity to dispose of a vast deal of legislation in a remarkably
