Pittsburg, Pa., Dec. 4, 1895. Hobbs' Remedy Co., Chicago: Gentlemen,-For years I have been suffering from kidney complaint and acute rheumatism in their most aggravated form. The latter disease, physicians say, was caused by what they claimed was an extraordinary amount of uric acid in the blood. I have tried remedy after remedy, all of which were advertised as the only cure, and have spent hundreds of dollars with different specialists without anything more than temporary relief. My occupation, that of a travelling salesman, was such a detriment to a cure that all the doctors consulted said I would have to abandon it if I ever expected permanent re-
