FOURTEENTH IN MONTREAL.

THE VOLUNTEERS HAD A REALLY ENJOYABLE TIME.

They Were Well Entertained by the Montreux-Finest Decorations Ever Seen - A Big Share in the Honors During the Military Parade - A Tremendous Thrill in the Metropolis.

No person not seeing the decorations could be the least idea of their magnificence. All the large principal buildings as well as hundreds of private residences, etc., were ablaze with incandescent electric lights, wrought into various designs and patterns.

H.M.S. Talbot was in the harbor, and during Monday afternoon thousands of persons visited and inspected her. There was a constant stream of people going up one gang plank and leaving by another.

Outside of London, England, the largest gathering of troops in the British Empire occurred in Montreal, where over 7,000 men were in line. It was a sight never to be forgotten.

MANY IMPORTANT CHANGES TO BE MADE AT PENITENTIARY.

The Report of the Commission Discussed at Ottawa--A Battle Royal Between Solicitor-General Fitzpatrick and Mr. Quinn--Mr. Devlin Has Been Removed From the Penitentiary.

Ottawa, June 21.--The very first item brought up in the house to-day was that of penitentiaries, and, although the house met at eleven o'clock, it was well on to six before the discussion of the report of the commissioners who recently investigated its management was at an end.

The debate was largely in the nature of a duel between Mr. Fitzpatrick, the solicitor-general, and Mr. Quinn, of Montreal, who had constituted himself the champion of James Devlin, the entire accused of manslaughter in office, and of the contractors with whom the engineer is said to have had improper relations.

The solicitor-general said Devlin would either have to stand trial before the criminal courts or, if the latter department, if the latter, he would be given the right to call witnesses and engage counsel to assist him in making reply to the very serious charges against him.

All the other officials reported against except warden Metcalfe, are to be retained. They are deputy warden Sullivan, storekeeper O'Donnell, assistant storekeeper Wood and steward Weir.

The state of affairs disclosed at Kingston has led the government to decide to make a thorough investigation into the management of all the penitentiaries of the dominion.

The inquiry at St. Vincent de Paul will close in a few days, and the Manitoba and British Columbia penitentiaries will probably be overhauled during the summer.

Funeral of a Well-Known Officer of Engineers at Woolwich.

London, June 21.--Canadians who had the pleasure of being acquainted with the late Lieut.-General E. Osborne Hewett, C.M.G., R.E., during the period he was commanding the Royal military college, Kingston, will have heard of his death (the result of an accident while playing tennis with a dagger while running forward, slipping and fracturing his leg) with deep regret.

After he left Canada he continued to take a great interest in the affairs of the country. I met him several times during the past twelve months, and in the course of conversations he invariably made kind enquiries about old friends in various parts of the dominion.

He followed the career of the Royal military college graduates with unceasing interest, and when he learned of their success he was greatly pleased. I can bear personal testimony to General Hewett's attention to Canadians who visited Woolwich (where he was commanding the Royal military academy) for the purpose of seeing the arsenal and other places of interest.

The funeral took place yesterday, and was an imposing spectacle, witnessed by a vast concourse of people. The whole of the troops in Woolwich garrison, including the cadets, paraded at the Royal military academy, and while the coffin was being placed on the gun carriage (drawn by six black horses) a battery of Royal Horse artillery, stationed on Woolwich common, fired a salute of thirteen guns.

The coffin was covered with the union flag, and bore the deceased officer's hat, sword, accoutrements, and a profusion of magnificent flowers. The pall-bearers were:--General J. F. Maurice, C.B., commanding the Woolwich district; Colonel F. Slade, C.B., chief staff officer; Colonel R. D. E. Lockhart, commanding Horse and Field artillery; Surgeon-Colonel R. P. Ferguson, principal medical officer; Colonel E. Blakley, commanding Depot Royal Horse artillery; Colonel J. E. Joseph, commanding the 1st Division Royal Horse artillery; Colonel R. K. Parks, commanding the 3rd Dragoon Guards; Lieut.-Col. F. O. Barrington Foot, commanding the Royal artillery regimental staff; Lieut.-Col. W. G. Du Boulay, commanding Royal engineers; and Lieut.-Col. H. R. Roberts, commanding 2nd battalion Lincoln regiment. The cadet company, numbering 100, in command of Col. F. A. York, accompanied the remains, and were followed by the bands of the Royal artillery, 3rd Dragoon Guards, and the 2nd Lincoln regiment.

Following these were Royal engineers and cadets' servants, each carrying a wreath, the troops, numbering 1,500, bringing up the rear. At the arsenal station the remains were placed in a special train for Chatham, attached to which was a saloon carriage from London, conveying representatives on behalf of the duke of York, Lord Wolseley, with the following officers from the Horse Guards:--Major-General Coleridge Grove, C.B., military secretary; Major-General F. T. Lloyd, C.B., deputy adjutant-general Royal artillery; Major-General A. Royal, commanding Royal engineers; and Major-General Sir Charles W. Wilson, K.C.B., director-general of military education. The funeral party then went by train to Chatham, where they were met at the Royal engineers' institute by the whole of the troops of the garrison, who followed the gun-carriage to Gillingham cemetery, a distance of three miles. The general was buried with military honors, a party of 120 Royal engineers firing three volleys over the grave.

Canoe Races at Royal Military College.

The annual regatta in connection with the Royal military college took place on Saturday, Monday, June 21, beginning at three o'clock. There was a fair turnout of spectators, the majority of whom were ladies. A strong wind from the southwest prevented several of the events from coming off, and rather spoiled the events which were contested. The following are the winners of the events:--

Single blade canoe race, one-half mile, with a turn, cadet Macdougall.

Cyph race, cadet Peters, first.

Swimming race, cadet Bayouet, first.

Tandem race, single paddles, one-half mile, cadets Musgrove and Dean first; Macdougall and Tobin second.

The sport ended in an "At Home," and a dance.

Killed Near Perth.

Perth, June 21.--William John Lang, a young man about twenty-five years of age, was killed near Perth station Sunday night. While heading his way from Perth to Renfrew, he fell between the cars and the train, passing over his body severed it in two. The driver of the morning express found the body. It had all appearances been dead some hours. He was a boy from the home and worked in this section last winter.

Tobacco Heart.

GENTLEMEN.--My heart troubled me with violent palpitation, shortness of breath and sleeplessness. This was cured, my physician advised me, by excessive use of tobacco. Since taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills the distressing symptoms have entirely disappeared. They have cured me, and I am thankful to testify to their good effects. Signed, W. J. MEDICAL DROPPED DEAD.

Suddenly Stricken Down By Heart Disease "A sad and sudden death occurred to a well-known citizen on one of the leading streets this morning."

Nearly every large city paper contains daily some such heading. The number of deaths from heart failure is very large, but it is only when they occur in some public and sensational manner that general attention is drawn to them.

Palpitation and fluttering of the heart are common complaints. With the heart itself there is nothing radically wrong. But the system is disorganized, the kidneys and liver are out of order, and the stomach is not in condition to do its work properly.

Between them all they throw too much responsibility on the heart, and the latter is unable to stand the strain.

A box of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills at a cost of twenty-five cents will regulate the system, purify the blood and make a new person of every sickly man, woman or child.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills may be had from any dealer or from the manufacturer, Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. One pill a dose, one cent a dose.

Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine is used for coughs and colds. Largest bottles on the market; only 25 cents.
