Wedded Last Evening. An interesting event occurred last night in the Salvation army barracks, when two officers laboring in the work were united in marriage. Preceding the ceremony there was a street parade, participated in by about 150 persons, including eighty officere of corps in this district. There was a good attendance of spectators, who took a deep interest in the event. Brigadier Sharp performed the ceremony, the contracting parties being Lieut. Brokenshire, of Ottawa, and adjutant Blackburn, of Sherbrooke, Que. The bride was attended b ensign Kerr, late of Ottawa, and Mrs. (brigadier) Sharp, while ensign Sims, G.B.M., looked after the needs of the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn will be stationed in the Cornwall district.

During the service adjutant Robert sang a solo in French, she having been stationed mophone selections helped to pass away the remainder of the evening. Adjutant and Mrs. Blackburn left this morning on a been fifteen years in the service. The bride received numerous presents.
