THE DAILY WHIG.

"Opiter per Urbem Dico."

GOVERNMENT RECOGNITION.

The government of Ontario has to deal with a question in which it cannot be too decisive. Mr. Awey, formerly a member of the legislature, died in an office which his many friends rejoiced to see him occupy by reason of his long public service...

AFRAID OF THE TRUSTS.

The American tariff is still under discussion before the senate, and as things go there is no telling when the end will be. The senators profess to have a horror of trusts, though some of them are understood to be favorable to stock jobbing...

A CRISIS AT HAND.

The scene has shifted, or rather the point of contact and friction, and the senate and the commons sense bent upon further collision. Supposing that the senate did feel that the Intercolonial extension bill had the appearance of "hasty legislation," which it had a right to block...

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Word For Ex-Aid. Drennan. KINGSTON, June 25.—(To the Editor): The applications received by the council board, relative to the appointment of an official to fill the vacancy made by the death of the late James Michael Flanagan, will, no doubt, be varied. I have heard the names of several, and among those mentioned that of ex-aiderman Drennan.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of the People—What they are saying and doing. Mrs. T. G. Marquis, Brockville, is visiting her parents in this city.

LEARNED IN THE LAW

MISS HERTZEL, ASSISTANT CORPORATION COUNSEL OF CHICAGO. How a Studious and Fussy Woman Won a High Position at the Bar—Famed For Her Able Briefs—Not a New Woman.

Women lawyers are not so much of a novelty now as they were a few years ago, for the law schools turn them out by the hundreds every year, but it is seldom that any of them attain the distinction which has come to Miss Cora B. Hertzol. She

PLACES IN NEW YORK.

The Wonderful Temples Devoted to Commerce and Comfort. Mrs. Schuyler van Rensselaer contributes to the Century a paper on "Places in New York," in the course of which she says: "If you enter one of the largest office buildings and go up and down and around it, you will see that it is not a mere house, but almost a town in itself."

ON A MUTUAL BASIS.

That's the way we mean to do business. We feel that our interests are helped if your interests are considered. That is why we are so careful to see that everything about the store is made pleasant for you.
