THE LEEDS GANG .- In order to show the perseverance and determination of a member of the noted Leeds gang, some of whom were recently convicted at Brocky lie, the Recorder telates a story told it by one of the imprisoned parties in relation to a feat performed by Carrie Chase. Carrie having gone to the west to look about him, visited the State of Missouri, tibe day he passed a field in which a number of esses were grazing. Taking down a portion of the fence he drove the at imale iuto the road in order that the theft might not be so readily detected, and then selec ed a spl-ndid specimen of the 'Jack' species son of a widow, Chase induced the boy to go with him, and, mouunting him on the Jack \ss, he told him to go ahead.
