POSTPONEMENT .- At the request of the Sisters of the Hotel Dieu, the lecture on the " Temporal Power of the Pope' is postponed until further notice.

REPORTED DE ERTION. - Yesterday morning it was reported that two more artillerymen had deserted the night before, but the report was incorrect-probably having got affoat by a conjunction of the fact of the two desertions of Friday night, and the fitting of more guns on Sunday night for two soldiers who were dilatory in reaching their barracks in time for post roll. The men are all right, but Friday night's skedaddlers are unheard of.

THE NEW APPOINTMENTS .- The following appointments apper in a Saturday's Gazette :- Hon. P. Vankoughnet, James Cowan, J.
