SONG OF IRON.

I am mighty in the saber, Fiercely wielded by the brave, orious in the stal wart steamer Laughing at the storm and wave.

Beauteous in the palace pillars, Saving in the pointed rod, As it brings the deadly lightning, Quelled and harmless to the sod.

But there is a glorious essence, Where I take my grandest power, Giving to the Race my surest, Sweetest aid, in danger's hour. See ! hefore me fly diseases !
See the darkest hydras bow!
See the rose of health and beauty
Take the palest cheek and brow.

Fly, dyspepsia! fly consumption! Yes, all ills are crushed at length. For I give what human nature Only ever needed—Strength!

Shall I tell in what great essence. I can thus your spirits cheer up? Pallid, trembling, dying sufferer, "Tis the famed "Peruvian Syrup,"
