SONG OF IRON.

I am mighty in the saber.
Fiercely wielded by the brave,
Riorious in the stalwart steamer,
Laughing at the storm and wave.

Beauteous in the palace pillare, Saving in the pointed rod, As it brings the deadly lightning, Quelled and harmless to the sod.

But there is a giorious essence, Where I take my grandest power, Siving to the Race my surest. Sweetest aid, in danger's hour.

Fig. dyspepsia ! fly consumption !
Yes, all ills are crushed at length,
For I give what human nature
Only ever needed—Strength !

Shall I tell in what great essence I can thus your spirits cheer up? Pallid, trembling, dying sufferer, "Tis the famed "Peruvian Syrup."
