SONG OF IRON.

I am mighty in the saber,
Fiercely wielded by the brave,
Florious in the stalwart steamer,
Laughing at the storm and wave.

Beauteous in the palace pillars, Saving in the pointed rod. As it brings the deadly lightning, Quelled and harmless to the sod.

But there is a glorious essence, Where I take my grandest power, Giving to the Race my surest, Sweetest aid, in danger's hour.

See I before me fly diseases !
See the darkest hydras bow!
See the rose of health and beauty
Take the palest cheek and brow.

Fly, dyspepsia! fly consumption! Yes, all ills are crushed at length,

Shall I tell in what great essence I can thus your spirits cheer up?

Pallid, trembling, dying sufferer, "Tis the famed "Peruvian Syrup."

The complaint is now becoming general that the Police Force are becoming too small for the multitudinous duties which properly should devolve upon them. I is a question in whose hands the remed lays, but there is one grievance which might readily be dispelled by the present force, which is the nightly congregation, especially on the Sabbath, of idle, ill-conlucted young men on the street corners, Have these young men heard of the new ; vagrant sot, or have the police been told

And ell Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels. It is not a weak or nutried Medicine, rashly or carelessly intruded on the public attention, but has been used by thousands in this immediate vicinity, as well as else where through Canada, and in every case, as far as known, with the best results. Da. ARNOT, the emment Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and this remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its won 'cital curative powers as well worthy of ite author's reputation.

No one need continue a sufferer from pain when by the timely and proper use of A. A. A, the suffering is sure to be alleviated immediately, and entirely banished atter a few applications. Its taste and odour are both agreeable, so that when taken it gives no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrile it refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerves more than the best Eau de Cologne. It you suffer from NEURALGIA, use A. A. A.
