Police Court.-Since Friday there have been no arrests in this city. With such an exhibit comment is unnecessary. On Tuesday there was a summuns case, to much like six of one and half a dozen of the other, that Mr. Creighton reserved his decision. Yesterday there was a case far the person of Mr. McWilliams, the Bishop's less interesting. Somebody had thrown a Secretary, and noticed the supposed im- stone at somebody else's docks, and the sevement in his appearance since his offended owner sought to avenge the insult trial, is not so remarkably acute, perhaps, as to her flock, with what result is not stated.
