Governor on Saturday.

At 11 o'clock His Excellency the Lieut. Governor and Mrs. Howland, together. with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Kirkpafrick and Dr. Yates, and Capt. Curtis, A.D.U., visited the Rockwood Asylum, where they were received by Dr. Dickson, who accompanied them through the Institution. Upon leaving His Excellency thanked Dr. Dickson, and congratulated him upon the admirable appearance which the establishment presented. After leaving the Asylum the party proceeded to the Kingston Penitentiary, where they were received by the Warden, Mr. Ferres, and the Deputy Warden Mr. Fianigan. After a close inspection, and having seen the whole number of convicts assemble at dinner, the Lieut-Governor expressed trial, without any alternative of bail. parties.
