FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 10, 1869.

Waggings.

Tomkins for Mayor!

Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer, &c., &c.

Curiosity of the press—"This day the Ecumenical Council is to assemble at Rome, and on that account it will be observed as a Fete d' Obligation by Roman Catholics throughout the world.—Montreal Witness. Was the Immaculate Conception never a Fete d' Obligation before?

Ald. Glockmeyer, of London, was nominated for Alderman for 1870, and declined,—which shows that he entertains a more keen appreciation of his position in relation to "that hill" than his constituents do.

The streets, a diner out says, have just enough gaslight to "make darkness visible."

Yesterday was a charming day for promenading, and quite a number of the fair and fashionable were of that opinion, on Princess street especially.

The Dagger, a comic sensational paper, is announced at Toronto. Let us hope it will find features worthy of its steel, altho' it must look for them outside of Parliament and the City Council, the usual targets of comic journals.

The Madoc Mercury is the smallest paper in the province, because we presume, it has a Small-field for its support.

An Austrian baron has been found carrying a hod in Illinois. Great was his fall.

The T. H. G. is at London. The papers say "she is a two-faced thing."

It is not to be supposed that a Cooper is always a Phrenologist, because he examines heads of barrels.

Boarding-house ladies are called gamblers, because they set stakes on the board.

The meanest newspapers in Ontario publish the following notice:—

"Parties getting their Sale Bills printed at this Office, will receive a notice free of charge."

Wanted, in this city, a site for the Madoc Railway depot, and a lecturer who will produce a panic in real estate, by predicting the destruction of the earth somewhere about 6,920 years hence.

"He was always such a fool" is the heading of a story going the rounds. Such personalities are disgusting.

If a man were to marry the two-headed girl would he be liable to be prosecuted for bigamy?

Order is Heaven's first law; but nothing but disorder prevails among the roughs who congregate nightly at the corners (our principal offences.

By a hen-pecked Benedict—He who steals my purse steals cash,—'tis something he should not do,—but he who takes my wife away, takes that which he is welcome to.

A sensible girl who was out in the late cold, on hearing the following line in one of Moore's songs spoken to her—"Our couch shall be roses, bespangled with dew"—replied: "I would give me the rheumatic, and so it would you."

It is authoritatively announced that now, when the Syracuse giant inclines at night, as soon as he hears the church clock strike the midnight hour, he removes his right hand from its customary position, and placing the thumb on one end of his nose, vibrates his fingers in the air.

CORRECTION.—CATARACT WARD.—In this Ward, Mr. Alderman Dillon goes out by rotation, instead of Mr. Ald. Allen. If Mr. Alderman Dillon offers again he will be re-elected.

THE RAILWAY.—Yesterday at Toronto, the Kingston and Madoc Railway bill passed the Railway Committee with amendments regulating the trains of bonuses.

THE RAILWAY BILL.—The Belleville Intelligencer publishes a synopsis of the Kingston and Madoc Railway Incorporation Bill, but does not appear to have read it, or it would not have perpetrated the following blunder:

"Query! Should not municipalities which give bonuses have a representation at the board. Having a direct interest they should have something to say in the management."

For the information of our captious contemporary we will publish the 13th section of he Bill:

"13. The mayor, warden or reeve being the head of any municipal corporation subscribing for and holding stock in the company in the amount of ten thousand dollars or upwards, shall be ex-officio one of the directors of the company in addition to the number of directors authorized by this act, and shall have the same rights, power and duties as any of the directors of the company."

NAPANEE.—The December quarterly fair held on Tuesday was well attended. The amount of stock brought in for sale was not large, but brought good prices.

J. C. Hoffman, Esq., the present Mayor, is a candidate for the office for 1870. He will not be allowed to walk the course unopposed, as several other parties are already spoken of as probable candidates, including E. Malloy, Esq.

POLICE COURT, Thursday.—The morals of the city seem to be in a healthy state, if the docket of the Police Court is an indication. There were no cases of any public interest whatever.

A young Frenchman applied for a summons against a party for non-payment of wages. The magistrate granted the summons but expressed his doubts as to his jurisdiction in the matter.

Mary Ann Sheppard and Hannah Marth Reid were charged with vagrancy. The prisoners having expressed their intention of leaving the city at once, if permitted, the magistrate acceded to their request and they were discharged.

ROME.

The Ecumenical Council.

OPENING.

Rome, Dec. 8.

The Ecumenical Council was opened to-day by Pope Pius IX. The weather was unfavorable—rain falling at intervals throughout the day—but enormous crowds filled the Vatican and lined the streets through which the members of the Council passed. The Pope, preceded by seven hundred bishops, proceeded to the hall of the Council amid the ringing of bells and the thundering of cannon from the Forts of St. Angelo and Monte Aventine. The holy father was in fine health. The galleries of the hall of the Council were occupied by the sovereigns and princes now in Rome, by members of the Corps Diplomatique and other notables. The ceremonies excelled in grandeur and magnificence any that have taken place in Rome within the present century. No praise is a special representative.

Thus the 19th General Council of the Roman Catholic Church began its session in the Eternal City. It is of probably less importance to the world at large, although greatly of as much importance to the church as any of its predecessors. The world has changed since the Council of Trent in 1545; and it will pay less heed to anything that may be done than it did then. But as regards the church, the result will be either great or no thing at all. It is decided beforehand, are confined to the more affirmation of dogmas already held dear by the council for all the bishops have probably might as well have never been convened. But if discussion be permitted there is good reason for the opinion that from to-day will date the era of a reform in the church which may lead to results of which an enemy of the Roman Catholic communion can not dream.

United States.

The silver mines of Colorado are developing great riches, and are rapidly extending over the country.

The building of the Philadelphia Commercial Exchange Association was destroyed by fire on Monday.

A Wisconsin paper says a number of strong young men are returning from the lumber regions, unable to procure work for the coming season.

A murderer, on being sentenced to be hanged in Terre Haute, Ind., did not catch the date, and inquired: "Which did you say your honor, that occurrence is to take place?"

It is estimated that within five years $120,000,000 will be invested in factories in Maine, employing 200,000 hands and producing $400,000,000 annually.

The English residents are holding a twelve days' mission in London, under the patronage of several bishops, after the example of the Church of Rome. Several churches are placed at their service.

The decayed remains of an animal, which, it is computed, must have been thirteen feet high and twenty feet in length, have been discovered recently about four feet beneath the surface, in digging for a well, near Wheaton, Ill. The bones of the knee-leg, when joined together, measured ten feet in length.

The Bank of New Orleans has brought a suit against the Western Union Telegraph Company, claiming damages in the amount of $1,700, for an alleged mistake in reporting the New York Gold market one per cent. above the market price, on a certain day, by which error the Bank lost the amount claimed in transacting its foreign exchange business upon the basis as stated in the dispatch.

On and after the 1st of January, 1870, the single rate of postage, half an ounce or under, for prepaid letters between the United States and Great Britain, will be reduced to six cents if not prepaid or insufficiently prepaid, a fine of six cents will be added to the deficient postage and collected on delivery. The rates of postage are collected on delivery. The rates of postage, conditions of payment on newspapers, book packages and samples of merchandise remain unchanged.
