The Corporation Counsel is good authori-; most men will adopt his view on a point of law without reasoning, and will acquiesce in the nullification of the Liquor Law. But, whatever the public may think, he is clear-Its ly the guide of the municipal authorities, the Mayor and the police. When, therefore, he gives it as his deliberate opinion Class Lake Steamers will leave the United that the law cannot be construed so as prevent the sale of foreign liquors or wines, the Mayor and police will of course abide by his decision, and decline to proceed against parties selling them. This exception will, indeed nullify the whole law. As it is, most of our domestic liquors are sold as foreign; the fraud will be urged with double care, when a foreign title becomes so valuable a passport.

It may be a question whether under the A very suggestive Parliamentary debate | 22d section of the act, permission is not
