Thence it is by no means wonderful if the treatment of these disorders has become the domain as it were, of quacks and empiries, who, devoid of all medical science and legal right whatever, arrogate to themselves the power of deciding upon the health, and upon the life even, of their fellow-creatures. The purpose we have in view is, to snatch the victims of those pretenders from the scare which ignorance and capality are constantly laying or them. If we succeed, our task will receive the happiest accomplishment, and our long and laborious researches their noblest reward:
