Bland is the morning's breath of June The southwest breezes play, And through its haze the winter noon-Seems warm as summer a day. The snow-plumed angel of the north Has dropped his icy spear, Again the mossy earth looks forth, Again the streams gush clear. The fox his hillside dell forsakes, She muskrat leaves his nook, The bluebird in the meadow brakes Is singing with the brook. Bear up, oh Mother Nature!" cry Bird, Breeze and streamlet free Our winter voices prophesy

Of summer days to thee." So, in those winters of the soul, By bitter blasts and drear, O'er-swept by memory's frezen pole, Will sunny days appear.
Reviving hope and faith, they show The soul its living powers, And how beneath the winter's snew Lie germs of summer flowers.

The night is mother of the day, The winter of the spring, And ever upon old decay The greenest mosses cling ; Through showers the sunbeams fall For God, who loveth all his works, Has left his hope with all!

ever violent, of Diarrhea, Dysentery, and Incipient Cholera. Thirty years' use in hospitals and private practice has proved it to be a specific, and thousand of rapid cures have been made by its use during the present sickly season. Every person should be provided with this sure remedy. Price 25 cents and 50 I HE WORLD'S FAIR OF ALL NATIONS .among the neticeable things on exhibition at the Crystal Palace, we saw a contribution of New Pills, from the laboratory of Dr. J. C. Ayer, the author of the widely known and valued Cherry Pectoral. As it is against the express regulations of the Palace, to admit any quack medicines, this fact shows that his remedies are not placed in that category by the author Indeed, we have before known that his Pectoral was highly appreciated by scientific men, and have seen lately that his Pills are held in great estimation by those deeply learned in the healing art .--True Reformer, Mase. An ounce of fact is worth a pound of theory; and the awarm of conclusive facts that cluster around that incomparable preparation, Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, establish-would rrevent incredulity itself from questioning its efficacy. In all cases of diseases of the stomach, whether acute er chronic, it may be recommended for its soothing, cordial and renovating influence. Dyspepsia, heart-burn, loss of appetite, nausea, nervous tremors, relaxation and debility, &c., and relieved by the Bitters in a very short space of time; and a perseverance in their use never fails to work a thorough cure.
