WHEN I SAW SWEET NELLY HOME

In the sky the bright stars glittered. On the grass the moonlight fell Hushed the sound of daylight's bustle, Closed the pink-eyed pimpernell As adown the moss-grown wood-path-Where the cattle love to roam -From Aunt Pattie's quilting party I was seeing Nelly home

Jetty ringlets softly fluttered O'er a brow as white as snow. And her cheek !-- the crimson sunset Scarcely had a warmer glow; 'Mid her parted lips' vermillion, White teeth flashed like ocean's foam : All I marked, with pulses throbbing, As I saw sweet Nelly home.

Turning all its leaves to gold. In the lawn by alders shaded, I my love to Nelly told ; As we stood together gazing On the star-bespangled dome. How I blessed the August evening When I saw sweet Nelly home. White hairs mingle with my tresses,

When the Autumn tinged the greenwood,

Furrows steal upon my brow, But a love-smile cheers and blesses Life's declining moments now; Matron in a snowy kerchief, Closer to my besom come-Tell me, dont thou still remember When I saw sweet Nelly home?

BIRDS. Birds are singing round my window, Turies the aweetest ever heard; And I hang my cage there daily, But & never catch a bird!

So with thoughts my brain is peopled, And they sing there all day long; But they will not fold their piaious In this little cage of song ! ..
