NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. THE GREATEST ORGANIST IN AMERICA,

ARCHERI

GRAND ORGAN RECITAL, QUEEN ST. METHODIST CHURCH, THURSDAY, MAY 22nd, 8 P.M.

- PROGRAMME:-

Our photographs of Kingston Hundred and Twenty Subjects. FULGER, hing street. Each one is acknowledged to be a work of art at a distance a better idea of Kingston's importance, the solidity of ply at No. 3 Carman Building, Belleville, or her Public Buildings, and the beauty of her surroundings than by sending to them a few copies of these photographs. Help to build up your city. Boom it!

The new Chalmers' Church, the new Andrew's Church, Launch of the Minnedosa, 3 views.

Penitentiary, Rockwood Asylum, City Buildings, 3 views; Court House, 3 views; Queen's University, 3 views; General Hospital, Central School, Merchants Bank, St. Mary's Cathedra' A views; St. Mary's Cathedral Interior, Bishop' Palace, St. George's Cathedral, 2 views; First BARNEY, 39 Princess Street, or at 231 E Methodist Church, Second Methodist Church, First Congregational Church, Salvation Army BARNSTABLE TERRACE, Clergy street, sion to Ogdensburg, Mitting Street, St. Lawrence.

BARNSTABLE TERRACE, Clergy street, sion to Ogdensburg, Mitting street.

Wait for the Christines.

BARNSTABLE TERRACE, Clergy street, sion to Ogdensburg, Mitting street.

Wait for the Christines.

BARNSTABLE TERRACE, Clergy street, sion to Ogdensburg, Mitting street.

St. Lawrence. AW Size 8x10. Price -50c each.

PRINCESS STREET.

If so, remember our stock is large and complete, and our prices within the reach of all.

-CABINET MAKER AND UPHOLSTERER,-

MONBY TO LEND.

Mowat and sood Government

Steady employment to first class bands. Ar TWENTY QUARRYMEN at Crockstowy

HOUSE IN VAUGHNTERRACE, No. 2, oc. | cupied by George Smith. Apply at White THE LATEST 188UES ARE: STONE HOUSE, Corner Sydenham and Queen streets, 11 rooms and bathroom. Apply

THE HOUSE AND GROUNDS at Prospect Hill, Division Street, Possession immediately, Apply to DONALD FRASES. A FIRST-CLASS BEDROOM TO RENT BRICK HOUSE ON EARL STREET, op posite Chalmers Church, Possession May I Apply to MRts. RENTON, 272 Earl Street. NEW BRICK HOUSE, KARL STREET lately occupied by Rev. Mr. Prime, contains 10 rooms, hard and soft water, good yard and XXX prime startly us

FOR SALE. A VALUABLE FARM of 125 acres. Cr will exchange for city property. STEINWAY PIANO, nearly new; would SPECIAL MENTION.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY. Newsy Paragraphs Picked Up by Our Reporters in Their Rambles.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.

PROBABILITIES ARE

NO ONE CAN BELL YOU A

FOR 11c lb. BUT

JAMES CRAWFORD. SENSE BRAME. LEADING UNDERTAKER & EMBALMER PRINCIPE STREET, Corner Sydenham street

JAMES REID.

oney-In Kingston, on May 19th, Timothy The funeral will take place from his daugh ances are respectfully invited to attend W. M. DRENNAN. THE UNDERTAKER, 75 PRINCESS STREY

GRINS FOR THE GLUM Little Laughs Crowded in With Facts From The Merchants. A hoarse race-The frogs at wight. ming to terms—The school year.

Crawford's sugar cured shoulders, 10c. The minuet is a fiseting fancy of the hour. A spring opening-The early morning It does not follow that girls who show small waists are all economical. Crawford's California apricots, 25c per lb, It must have been a deaf man who got up an proverb, "Actions speak louder than Wait for the Christian Endeavor excursion to Ogdensburg, May 30th, per steamer

The broker who married a pretty but pen nifess girl explained that he had taken XXX prime stock ale and porter in kegs for family use at McParland's. "Taffy" is the cheapest commodity in domestic economy, and will go further than any other article of food. Orawford's pitted plums, 15c per 1b. In singing love sougs to piano accompa-ment it would seem the soft pedal ought

A SACRIFICE OF LIFE.

SIZING OF A VESSEL

the families bereaved. The lost are : THOMAS MACKIE, Captain. JOSEPH MACKIE, Mate.

MARIAN MACKIE, Cook. JAMES MACKIE, Sallor. WILLIAM MULLEN, Sailor. FRANK GEORGE, Sailor. JOHN MULLEN, Sailer. DONALD MACDONALD, Sailor, With the exception of Frank Ge ew belonged to Woife Island. porters tell the story of the disasty their accustomed vividness.

ston, and as the mariners looked over the lake they shook their beads and predicted afternoon about four o'clock. She said: livelihood. True there are many good life saving crews in existence but not half enough turbulent waters. Along about noon a sail turbulent waters. Along about noon a sail saving crews in existence but not half enough the space for the door was built with stone, is still going on and when it is done the numbered. The canal from the Rideau river. The canal contains two locks. The work in connection with it is not entirely completed. Dredging is still going on and when it is done the numbered the still going on the still going on a still going on a still going on the still going three master was battling with the angry had acted as mate. Last year he was first sea. The waves at times seemed to engulf | mate of the Breck. He passed an examina-

CAPP. THOMAS MACKIE. careened, but would square herself again for the next. The boat was beating about the point and running in the trough of the sea | cook. She had been sailing for two seasons. Her sails were set, and she was bravely | She was twenty-eight years of age. flighting her way down. But soon a mighty wave was seen to strike the craft and the spray flew higher in the air before the gale than had been noticed before. Then when another view was had it was found that the vessel was lying on her side and she sank from sight rapidly. Charles Grass, living on the label share, was an ever witness of the mourning the loss of a kind husband and father and a loving son and brother. Mrs. on the label share, was an ever witness of the label share and a loving son and brother. Mrs. It is the share who attend the called upon from I oledo.

In a latest Notes.

A report was circulated this morning that mouth to night, and that ridy borough will show its reform side in a happy way.

The G.T.R. ticket agents will issue cheap father and a loving son and brother. Mrs. has been received stating that the crew who left Kingston shipped on her from I oledo.

The G.T.R. ticket agents will issue cheap father and a loving son and brother. Mrs. has been received stating that the crew who left Kingston shipped on her from I oledo.

Capt. Booth at once endeavored to get a log to go to the rescue. He asked every to get a boat, as they were all away. About three o'clock, when the captain found he captain fou A. Jones, builder and contractor, Prise one street.

Hempseled husband—I wish we lived in Japan. Shrewish wife—What for: H. H. Hem and graphed to Garden Island for the steamer of Googne. He was a good natured, joyal fellow, for of telling attent with a tow down the river and had lid ateam up. She was allo loaded deep with sood, when adhe rearrance in a heavy sea. Her services were quickly little eight in the gale. She managed to get which sood with make her answered to quicker than to Googne. He was a good natured, joyal fellow, for of telling atories and especially about all the "old boxen," as he termed them, on which he had sailed. Of his early life words and not got caught in the gale. She managed to get with sood, which he had sailed. Of his early life words all night model on Saturday and made are two of the Dayaria causing them to take the presentation.

The prop. Niegare left here, Fridsy, and got caught in the gale. She managed to get with seed with evening session. He was chairman and, of course, I carried everything lefter made and of the was good and need are words all night. Monday morning broke ovariety there were going along the course, I carried everything lefter made and of the words and the words with the United States.

Six hundred yards now pautings arrived

A. Jones, builder and contractor, Prise and shall do the late of Capt. John Marshall and the late o Six hundred yards new pantings arrived at the "Star Wardrobe," $3 25, or two pairs for $6. O'Brien & Howland, corner King for $6. O'Brien & Howland, corner King for $6. O'Brien & Howland, corner King the lake at a fast rate. When Simcoe is land was reached a call was made there to land and managed to get the Breck free from her animan and managed to get the Breck free from her animan and managed to get the Breck free from her animan and managed to get the Breck free from her animan and much admired. She is the daughter of cided then to divide into parties, and select the said that a marriage has been at possed that we return thanks to Almighty God for our miraculous delates and much admired. She is the daughter of cided then to divide into parties, and select the said that a marriage has been at possed that we return thanks to Almighty God for our miraculous delates and much admired. She is the daughter of cided then to divide into parties, and select the said that a marriage has been at possed that we return thanks to Almighty God for our miraculous delates and much admired. She is the daughter of cided then to divide into parties, and select the said that a marriage has been at possed that we return thanks to Almighty the said that a marriage has been at possed that we return thanks to Almighty the said that a marriage has been at possed that we return thanks to Almighty the said that a marriage has been at possed that we return thanks to Almighty the said that a marriage has been at possed that we return thanks to Almighty the said that a marriage has been at the said that The lake at a fast rate. When Simcoe is and Perinces streets. Poneby (to tailor)—I should think you'd be tired standing up all day cutting out garments. Tailor—I don't mind that. What they were two bosts near the head of the and when the effect head on the protect her, coming direct to be cook this evening direct to the lake at a fast rate. When Simcoe is land as reached a call was made there to said how managed to get the Breek free from her an index. Both tugs took hold of her, and it is and much admired. She is the daughter of the lake were two bosts near the head of the island. It was then thought that he two bosts must be the schooners Jessie Breek and when the steamship landed in Quebec he cong direct to be cook this evening direct to be cook this evening direct to be cook this evening direct to be cook this event will be at Garden Jaland by the description of the late Charles Tennant, and has become well known through her disowned the land and managed to get the Breek free from her an individual to the was French. She thought that he had come to this country as a "maring ments. Tailor—I don't mind that was French. She thought that he had come to this country as a "maring ments. Tailor—I don't mind that was French. She thought that he had come to this country as a "maring ments. Tailor—I don't mind that was French. She thought that he had come to this country as a "maring ments. Tailor—I don't mind that was French. She thought that he don't mind that he was French. She thought that he had come to this country as a "maring ments. Tailor—I don't mind that was French. She thought that he down the field of the will be at Garden Jaland by the late of the late Charles Tennant, and has become well known through her disowned the land and managed to get the Breek free from her as a down. The only information ascertained was the will be at Garden Jaland by the late of the l

Broke through the Bridge.

This morning as one of the K. & P. wag gons was coming over Cataraqui bridge it shows off. No damage was done to the wage off. No damage was done to the wage off. No damage was done to the wage of the broke it was seen and is load of hones thrown off. No damage was done to the wage of the w gen went down and a load of bones thrown the water. She had her full sails up at consoled themselves that the command gen went down and a road or nonter thrown off. No damage was done to the waggon. The hole made in the bridge is a large one. Next Sunday afternoon Rev. A. L. Mac. The place where the accident occurred the planks are very much worn and should have been repaired long ago. If a van load of the water from the action of the water that the commander might have taken precautions and ran into a plane of safety till the storm had abated. When the report reached Maryeville that a craft had been iost off the head of the inlant the Breck was the first and only the storm that a craft had been iost off the head of the inlant the Breck was the first and only the storm that a consoled themselves that the commander might have taken precautions and ran into a plane of safety till the storm had abated. When the report reached Maryeville that a craft had been iost off the head of the inlant the Breck was the first and only the storm that the storm had abated.

ever. He then headed for the opening lead | the vessel he observed men cli The jib and mainsail were lowered | was another in the rigging. The vessel dis- with grain, for the same place, Horseshoe Island. Many laughed at him. the waves, hence the supposition that she box with the initials "I. B." went ashore minutes would have brought such a crew to and can cover eleven inities an hour. during the night. Other articles were also the side of the Breck and those clinging to occurred during a howling south western gale. All morning the wind blew wildly, gale. All morning the wind blew wildly, gale. All morning the wind blew wildly, gale. The gale occurred to foronto the seat his aide de camp to tell us that he would law one partition before her on city wharves. This is an unusual occur the brother in law, and was in great distress. Canal and other improvements and show a here from the basin of the new Tay canal determined the windly, at the residence of Alexander Darragh, her seem more willing to lavish on nanecessary dize. This is the first cargo that has arrived here from the basin of the new Tay canal determined the was on a Thursday, and we rence in the land locked harbor of King. The young woman had been informed of the cold heart in the matter of saving the lives which runs into Perth, seven and a half determined then and there to help ourselves ston, and as the mariners looked over the fate of her husband's vessel on Saturday of those who have to follow the takes for a miles from the Rideau river. The canal The fort was so acranged that doors led her as they struck, and in a shower of mist | tion early this year and secured captain's | Breck & Booth, of Kingston. She was built papers, when he was given command of the at Port Colborne in 1873 for her present boat. He was in charge of the vessel for owners. She was classed as All and was two and a half months, having assisted in considered a strong and substantial boat. the raising of the Armstrong. It was his Two years ago she was caught in a heavy first trip as captain. It is just four weeks gale and had her masts taken out of her. since he left Collinsby. We have been None of the crew were lost. This is the married thirteen years and have no chil- | first serious accident she has met.

the head of Wolfe Island, close to the farm spent $2,200 on her last season.

A Great Berenvement.

a the her the glasses told her to keep sight

A Sketch of the Vessel. The schr. Jessie Breck was owned by The Haggart is a tidy little craft and a our beds. Everything was carried on in-Joseph Mackie, mate, brother of the cap 86,000 and was not insured. She was kept tain, was also a married man, He lived on in excellent repairs, her owners having is able to be out again. never lost a man before. She was valued at reside. He was about thirty years of age and an experienced sailor. This was, his maiden trip as mate.

The Montreal Witness speaks of the late by making incisions with a jack knife. This was by this we carefully hid, because it was by this disaster. The schr. Gaskin was sunk at of the captain's. He was twenty-four years her bottom; the str. McArthur was burned office in one of Mr. Murphy's buildings on the straight was ready at miduight we.

is burst open and the cabin swept away.

ATT. Williamswilk. or to George Cliff, Rest And Single Corner of the State of St. Paul's a state on the beliance of the St. Corner of the were seen floating in Batteau channel. This about settled the point that the foundered and you. Approally senders the house that much big gard, do not fear; I will not raise the rent on you. Approally senders the house that the foundered at was the Jessie Brech Near Horses accept and the pass of the coloring as were reen floating in Batteau channel. This about settled the point that the foundered and you. Approally senders the house that much big gard, do not fear; I will not raise the rent on you. Approally senders the house that much big gard, do not fear; I will not raise the rent on you. Approally senders the house that the foundered at the series received the point that the foundered at the series received the point that the foundered at the series received the point that the foundered at the series received the point that the foundered at the series received the point that the foundered of the means of the me

LETTERS' TO THE EDITOR.

The Collection Agency Claims.

An attempt having been suggested to re

Haggart will make regular trips between the numbered the stones, and with the Iron

SECOND EDITION.

GENERAL PARAGRAPHS. The Very Latest News Crowded Into Small Space.

Fred. Gillen, suffering from rheumatism of his parents, where his wife (formerly is a remarkable fact that the Breck bicyclists this season will be blush grey in color of the mortar. On the night before I sincerely mourned. He was of vigorous con- access could be obtained to the Amer stitution until his late illness set in a few | side of the river. The wretched months since. He leaves a large and widely | were laboring under the disadvantage respected family-two sons, John and James, | not knowing whether they ; were William Rigney, of Lingston; Mrs. Barrett, | in the district,

His wife died ten years ago. He has been | stock to the woods, and, weary with p

HOW REBELS ESCAPED. JOHN STEWART OF PAISLEY, RE-

COUNTS EVENTS OF LONG AGO. Deed Was Accomplished A Deserter Who Was Captured-Making For the

TWO CENTS.

Land of the Free. John Stewart, of Painley, aged eighty two, ortation to Van Dieman's land. With for business will be done by means of the canal. | spike we picked out the mortar. The morsteady sailor. She is owned by Seeley & the night time, so that on Saturday night the aperature through which we were to escape was completed. When all was quiet on Saturday night, having made a dark lantern of an old hat, we sent three of our men to examine the passage. When they got to the gunroom they were fifteen feet above the saleport. Next day was Sunday and we determined to try our luck at night We placed a bed against the aperture, upon the seasons. He was a single man.

The Jessie Breck is a wreck near Simcoe Marian Mackie, sister of the captain, was Island. It will cost between $2,000 and pointed telegraph operator at the lower to the gun room. The most perilous part During the time the annual bicycle meetof the work was yet to come, we had to de ing will be held in Ottawa the Kingston club below, when we might be certain to be seen be used almost exclusively.

Perfectly dry slabe and edgings at Crawford's wood and coal yard, foot Queen street.

There is very little postry in a lawyer's interest of the hastened to Persmouth and had messages sent to Kingston. The new had messages sent to Kingston. The new of coal fame Campbell's for slabs, edgand slab, holds h

would soon be in every one's mouth