A Mr. Hiler died three months ago, leaving a will in which he devised most of his property to two of his sons and two daughters, to the exclusion other children. There has been talk of coutesting the will and much bitterness has been manifested. This was a case for damages under an alleged breach of contract between Joseph Hiler and Barngrover, who was one of the sons-in-law of Mr. Hiler. During the trial Constable I. N. Alle. another son-in-law, stepped to the door, when a pistol shot was heard. Allen can staggering into the room and fell across chair, exclaiming: "John Hiler did it."

Before the terrorized spectators co realize what had happened the murderer was seen standing in the middle of the crowded court room, and fired a secon shot, which took effect in the right breast George Barngrover, passing entirely through his body. The excitement was indescribable, the court room being crowded with men and women. As Hiler rushed from the room int. have loads for two more men."
