Canada is in the Right. Paris, Oct. 31,-The questions at issue between the Dominion of Canada the United States are receiving the attent of foreign experts. Dr. Geffeken, the cele brated publicist, writes to The Revue Droit International with regard to the fishery treaty of 1888, which the United States Senate rejected: "It is astonishi that the Senate of the United States, which of the treaty, should not have ratified one did not remember that all foreign examination, is contrary to the Russo-American treaty of 1824, and is no stronger Gulf of Bengal in order to carry on the pearl fishery there. If that is the case, that claim is unlawful, and does not justify that set up in respect of the Behring Sea." The is troubled with Anglomania, for he attacks the British position on the Newfoundland question, and says the colonists are right.
