"UNDER THE ROSE."

Such breaths as never yet have dipped The bee in fragrance over shoe, While rose leaves of their color stripped Themselves to make a blush for you. Norchide with such a cold constraint. As if you laid the rose in show;

For this the summer stores her paint,

The dappled twilights overflow With motley colors, pied and quaint, For kisses that in flowers do grow. Nor pout and tease: you did not mean So sweet a thing. Abide this test : In open markets grades are seen

Of good and bad, in price expressed The buyer's purse must choose between But when give, we give the best. Yet if that color, sweet as bee, Of flower flushes tenses, see

How we can pluck such thorns as these,

That bleed in blushes, easily; For kiss me, sweet, just as you please: I'll take ir as it pleases me. -WILL WALLACE HARNEY. in Harper's Magz. The Human Hair .- To give it strength and charm of both sexes-this is the work preparation which greatly assists the group of the fibres, at the same time rendering the smooth, silky and elastic.

The Great Trial,

The members of the Plymouth Investigating Committee have yet to testify Mr. Cleveland, and District Attorney pames are known, are Mrs. Morse, Bessie Torner, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher. General Tracey, it is now sai will not go upon the stand. If the Bill of Senator Cole, of Albany, which seeks anthority for placing Mrs. Tilton on the stand, passes both Houses she will be called by the defence. Plaintiff is desirous of her testimony, I cannot call her, as it is the plan to fect his case by calling in contradic ory testimony from those persons to whom she has made confessions. These perso are Mrs. Martha Bradshaw, Mrs. Eliza beth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, Paulina Wright Davis, Mrs Emma Mou on, Francis B. Carpenter, and others.

COSTS OF THE TRIAL. incurred by the State are very hea-All WUVIVN. officers, and to this must be added the cess of the six officers employed in excess of the usual quota.

A great deal of idle speculation is indulged in by the public over the amount of costs which will be assessed upon whichever party loses the case. This ma!ter of costs is prescribed by statute, and does not differ in this trial from the most ordinary suit at law. Should the plaintiff win a verdict, the bill which than $200 or $250. The statute regulates the "trial fee" to be paid by the losing party at one dollar, nominally for LACE CURTAINS, the use of the court-room.
