Port Deposit, Bambridge, Morilla, Pitts- Boxes, barrels, logs, &c., floated down the Conservative banner to victor ton and Wilkesboro indicate the continu- the streets. The Atlantic and Pacific "Wellington and the 18th" shall now ance of the destructive floods at these sections. At Port Deposit fourteen hun- feet of water, and so sudden was the in- kenzie soon must acknowledge the exist ded citizens were driven from their undation that no attempt was made at ence of a Conservative re action. houses. Little destitution, however, ex- taking out the contents, but the The wisdom which is supposed to ter of a sudden overflow from numerous)

New York, March 20 .- It is snowing and hailing here to-day; weather cold. de is understood that Sharkey, the murderer who escaped from the Tombs, will shortly be brought from Havana to this their business in boats, as this is the only ed over by Liberals. It is chiefly notice. city for trial.

DERBY--DARK BLUE WINS.

London, March 20. - The University | race between the Cambridge and Oxford craws came off in the Thames to-day, over the usual course-from Putrey to Mortlake. There was the usual immense patch to an evening paper here announces Liberal side of the mouth. The event is attendance of spectators on both sides of the death of John Mitchell, the Trish to be "to be to asted on both sides of the Atthe river. Among those present were Patriot and member of Parliament from lantic." We have no objection, but for pressions of the liveliest nature. Finally several of the nobility in carriages. For Tipperary county. the hour announced for the start, ap- morning, and now prevails throughout were not aware that the Canadian county 'That's your bill, sir,' said the grocer, projected, the excitement increased. The the State. river in the vicinity of the starting-point was covered with pleasure boats, steamers and other craft. Everything being in realiness and the crews in position, the St Lawrence Ward signal was given, and both boats shot forward simultaneously amid deafening cheers. They rowed well together for some distance, when the Oxford The Daily British Athin took the lead and slowly but surely widened the gap between themselves and their opponents. The Cambridge crew) rowed bravely, but it soon became apparent to the spectators that the Oxford | SATURDAY EV'NG, MARCH 20, 1875. crew was the stronger. The latter crew had the lead until the close, and won an easy race. Several fine spurts were made by the Cambridges, but they did not succeel in gaining the ground they had lost. The victory of Oxford after the dark blue hul for five successive years sustained defeat consed the greatest enthusiasm Sunday evening. a mong their supporters and friends on the shore. The following are the names of at J. E. Hutchinson's auction rooms the respective crews: Oxford -- H. M 7:30 this evening. Courtney, how oar; H. P. Marriott, No. 2. J Elinks, No. 3; M. Boustead, No.

Chicago, March 19 .- The storm of last night was generally felt throughout the northwest, and this morning the throng trains are very much behind time. water is visible in the lake and the ap pearance favors another seige of winter danger of organizations, like the Temper- which it was luxuriously dining.

7, H. E. Rhodes, stroke; G. L. Davis,

COXSWAID.

H. J. Hall, a courier from General Pope, who has just reached Wichila Kansas, from Cheyenne agency, says that at the roll call of the tribe on Saturday is was determined to arrest the Indians engaged in the murder of the Germane Catherine Germane was lead among the file of Indians and was unable to identify but four of the band which committed the massacre. These were Medicine Water, the chief one who shot ther father, and a squaw that burned her give the pledge required from them. Men stand a boiler of water on the stove sister and sank a bullet in her father's skull, and the others of the remaining thirteen of the murderous band were not to be found. During the roll call several of the young bucks quietly withdrew and fled down a ravine and disappeared. cavalry squad was immediately sent in pursuit but failed to overtake the fugitives. It is now ascertained by the Agency and Gen. Neil that the terms of surrender as made by Stonecalf have not been complied with and that more than one hundred of the young fighting Indians having horses and arms belonging to the tribe are still on the plains, and are making their way Justice, and his opponents did their best observance in the Roman Catholic north to the Black Hills. Infortation of | by belittling his talents to injure him in Church. their having crossed the Atcheson rail- the public estimation. Notwithstanding The capture of the murderous Chey- a very considerable success, and shown presented with a memorial from his numers party reached Yanktown with teams | Minister. "In the administration of Jus- been so much spoken of for some time. en fonte to Black Hills. They were well armed, and evinced a determination to go through at all hazards. A special train carrying U. S. soldiers en route to Black Hills passed through Northern Indiana yesterday. A San Jose, California, special says that Vosquese was exceedingly calm in his call last night, smoking and talking with the reporters. About nine o'clock he naked to see his coffin. When it was brought and laid before him he measured it by spanning it with his hands and re- North-West Bill the Minister of Justice portant decision respecting the rights and marked that it was bad enough looking. had to take an important part, and we liabilities of railway companies as common On noticing the silver plate with his name doubt not that the bill when completed carriers, has been rendered in the Quemuch do I owe you for that?" On being complimented on his nerve he said. What is the use of anything else ? I mittees with which he has been brought gave notice that they would not carry is a ramor that 50 mounted Mexicans are on the way here to rescue him, but the views of those with whom he was work on the way here to rescue him, but the views of those with whom he was work the poice, as they are large consumers of highly respectable looking gentleman was

The Beaver is an architect, builder and authorities say that such a force could not ing, and has besides shown a knowledge that wood. Rutherford, in January, observed this afternoon to stop suddenly wood cutter. with the best appliances effect an entrance of business affairs in a degree far higher 1873, wanted to have his cedar carried on Princess street, wave one hand as if in the in five hours. A large crowd is in the than might naturally have been expected to Montreal, and on the Company refus- defiance of a passer by, and the other as due and drains to keep them dry. city expecting to see the execution. The from one who was not so closely associating he brought the suit. In the Superi- if there was something in the air which The white ants maintain a refused to interfere In the Governor has refused to interfere. In the ed with matters of hard pounds, shillings or Court and in the court of Review he wanted. At the same time he sent army of soldiers. salloons to-night there is considerable betting as to whether Vosquese will weaken on the drop. The odds are strongly in favor of Vosquese. The town is swarming with Mexicans. Port Deposit, Md., March 19 .- The ice here was running slowly all day yesterday, and last night, about 8 o'clock, the river commenced to rise very fast, and continued to rise till 2 a.m. to day. plug.

TELEGRAPHIC The water commenced coming into the streets about 9 p.m., and continued until the streets were completely sub-Special Despatches per Dominion Line. | merged and boats could sail along with ease. The people seemed to become more date, and as the omens all assured New York, March 20. Specials from and more excited as the water rose. would be the case, Mr. Drew has carried

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS TO-DAY.

Opifer per Orbem Dicor.

REMINDERS.

Sunday evenings.

some years.

Y.M.C.A.-Meetings on Saturday, and

Sons of Temperance. - Meeting on

SERMON in Congregational Church

REMEMBER the auction sale of watche ance Electoral Association, meddling with politics as they are doing. The tendency

Sunday afternoon at four o'clock.

1sts. West Pittston is threatened with instruments were unharmed. The tend age is lacking in the Mail's case. nundation; there are nine miles of an ice ran at the rate of a mile in three min- Once before when it was younger it was ice gorge above that place still solid, and when it moves will flood the place. Bainwhen it moves will flood the place. Bainbridge was flooded yesterday by the breaking of the ice gorges in the Susquehanna.

Tailroad through the town and to the capitals by the monks and friars who ing of the ice gorges in the Susquehanna.

Tailroad through the town and to the capitals by the monks and friars who in the capitals by the monks are capitals by th The water is several feet deep in the ter. For a distance of over five miles the older, but apparently as fond as ever of streets, and the Pennsylvania railroad is trestle work and bridges of the railroad cooking hares before they are caught. It gone. Then she went to the store and I m afraid some of those ancient record- "Did you see the Taylors!" asked the streets, and the constraint and is not Drew, but Higginbotham who is the purchased another four dezen having ers of legendary lore possessed some of the widow, faintly, looking at her sister. dwellings have been destroyed and great crushed, and much lumber has been victor. It is the Conservative, not the state was damage done, but no lives have been lost. swept away. The trains will likely be Reform banner that has gone down in no more to him about kindlings. For taking about kindlings are to him about kindlings. For taking about kindlings are to him about kindlings. At Moritta a d Columbia houses, mills, unable to run over the damaged part of the dust. The reaction cackled and years she had kept up the battle, and now inventive powers, as modern reporters do said the sympathizing sister. "As you Atlantic Monthly, lumber, telegraph poles and railroad the road for two weeks, and there are no crowed over is one-vote, and who knows she was tired and sick at heart. He when items are scarce. tracks have been torn up and swept away signs of the ice starting. Such a conglo- but that Mr. Drew voted for himself this could go on his own way, and she would I met the Chimes man the other day - clusive. by the flood. Wilkesboro Falls station | meration of houses, lumber, logs, barrels, | time ? a d'tie whole Wyoming Valley is in dan- fences, trees, brushwood, &c., has never As we have said before had the Minis.

tell where the danger will end and the tle cause for rejoicing for the Tories, and trouble cease. Individuals are going to an opposite success is as little to be shout by the dropping of his lower jaw; and way they can possibly travel, the water able on account of the wild jubilations THE OXFORD-CAMBRIDGE WATER being from four to six feet deep on the and cap-tossing of the Tories over an im- whistle. Half way down he said : aginary triumph. These now, doubtless feel foolish enough over the juvenile precipitancy of the organ which has to eat its gushing words, "Glorious 18th." We New York, March 20. - A London des- admit that, but the smile is rather on the the life of us cannot see what there is to he threw the bill down. hours before the start the crowds were Manchester, N. H.; March 20. -A toast even when we have won, be mine; you've got me mixed up with lining the river banks. As one o'clock, heavy snow storm commenced early this instead of being defeated. We some laundry. of Wellington was extensively known on smiling pleasantly.

NORTH WELLINCTON ELECTION.

(From the Toront's Mail.)

the month proved fatal to a Grit cano

It would be an excellent toast for a Barmecidal feast. And how does Dr. Tupper, the "mag-"nificent orator" of the Opposition, feel? | man. Darkly in the dead of night he stole away 'Yes sir.' from Ottawa and smuggled himself off to Wellington lest an opponent should hear of it and accompany him. He recited his one turgid speech to the groundlings, the paper on the table before his wife, nation toward heretical teachers of Methodisplayed the unrivalled magnificence of knocked his hat on the back of his head dist, Baptist, and such schismatical perhis wristbands, all the whiter in contrast denunciation of the horrid Grits. But his usual bad luck attended him once more, clinging to him like a very shirt of Nessus. His presence in a constituency at election time seems to be a sure guarantee of the defeat of the candidate he is supposed to assist. The sweep of his eloquence, his fine heroics, the spot-The annual struggle between the water- lessness of his linen all go for nothing and H Stayner, No. 5; A. Mitchison, No. men of the Isis and the Cam came off this less than nothing. The Opposition way, Renben Wheeler Johnson, nor 6; T. C. Elward Moss, No 7; J. H. Way, morning, Oxford winning easily. For should, before threatened extinction, 1 stroke; M. Hopwood, coxswain. Cam- five successive years has victory perched berally subsidize him to stay at home, for

J. E. Aymer, No. 6; C. E. Benson, No. | characterizes the future contests, it is to Conservative candidates and productive jawing and fighting to get you to contests. likely to hold the headship of the river for of obdurate Wellingtons and inglorious 18ths. By all means he should be extinguished, and for his speedy taking off Commenting on Mr. Fred Mackenzie's in a poetically just way we would recom-Anti-Prohibition speech, and his alleged | mend that he be compelled to eat one coquetry with the Temperance people of his own speeches, which would kill him as Montreal before his election, the Gazette certainly as one of Mark Twain's exagge- Thompy Mr. Johnson very wisely observes that what is worth rations killed the hungry camel who came pointing out in this connection is the across it in the pocket of the old coat on

OTTAWA.

of such Associations is to creates premium Ottawa, March 20. - A heartrending upon fraud and dishonesty. A body of gentlemen like those comprising the accident occurred on Thursday afternoon league, offering to support anyone no at Cyrusville, in the township of Gloucesmatter what his antecedents, if he will ter, about two miles east of this only pledge himself to sustain their causing the death of a child and particular views if elected to Parliament | ing to insanity of its mother. It would | the first shadow of fine weather came | wards spiritual things. Many persons exare certain to prove a strong temptation | seem that a Mrs. Landry, while engaged to candidates what ever their opinions to in washing on that day, has occasion are ready to give anti-election pledges just the kitchen, which by accident slipped in proportion as they are dishonest and off, pouring its contents over her fine willing afterwards to violate them. It is little baby who was close by. The mother your-most reckless politician. the man in her efforts to save her child was also who being a candidate is determined to severely scalded. Medical aid was sum be elected by any means, who is most ad- moned as speedily as possible, but inefvantaged by such associations as these, feetnally, as it died in a few hours after because he is the most willing to comply intense suffering. The awful nature with any conditions they desire to impose the accident has effected Mrs. mind, and as she is enceinte, fears are entertained that she will not survive the It was thought that when M. Dorion

The festival of St. Joseph was celebratretired M. Fournier would be too small a man for the important post of Minister of ed here yesterday with the customary been peculiarly successful, and the num | last night. ber of useful measures which he has this The match for the silver tankard, pres- an easterly current. If these experiments session introduced has probably been the ented by members of Parliament t cause of the terrent of detraction with Ottawa Curling Club, begins to day and which during the past few weeks he has promises to be an interesting affair. Th again been assailed. Among these are playing will be by points, each competitor the new Insolvency bill, the amended Su- having to play in his own merck.

R.S.M. Bouchett, late Collector of Custice," says the Herald, "M. Fournier has Hon. George Brown left for Toronto made for carrying in a successful sum-

preme Jourt bill, the bill to regulate Pen- | The Peterson divorce bill was passed itentiaries and their inspection, together last night by a majority of 20 in the House with many others of interest, more to the of Commons.

legal fraternity than to the general public. Of course in the drafting of the new THE DUTIES OF CARRIERS. - A very imin its details and carried into operation, bec Court of Appeals in the case of Ruthwill be productive of those results which | eragainst the Grand Trunk Railway Comit is intended to bear. In those Com- pany. In October, 1872, the Company into more immediate contact, he has cedar in future, the reason apparently place to linger in, but after all the weather gers and goods duly tendered them, un and after a moment's reflection he is not so bad as out in Montana, where it less they have good reason to refuse on ac- sued his way, looking very much as if other sufficient cause.

Fifty five Dozen Clothes Pins.

(Danbury News.) negletful in supplying them with kindlings should carefully study the experience of a Division street sister. All her marwith her husband to keep herself supplied more so-very choice morceauc. her definess with the axe, and anyone delightfully anachronistic and medæval. knows what a dreadful thing it is. Two must have edited such a paper, and half He said he wouldn't. But he finally did. of the contributions.

she continued until the four dozen were fashion. go hers-patiently, uscomplainingly until and congraturated him on his success in "I thought I saw the Curtises also," British Quarterly Reviews, 1874 the end would come.

On Monday he signified at the store dusty recesses of the past. then his mouth gradually opened, caused revivalist ranters." wrinkles formed on his forehead. One- gested. third down the column he formed his lips as if to whistle. Four lines below he did

A little further on he said:

"By the jumping Jupiter!"

I say, Benson, look here; this bill can this side of the Atlantic, not to speak of | 'I tell you it can't be,' persisted the the other. But it seems so, and that Division street man, beginning to loo. scared, 'Why, here's fifty-five dozen toast-masters of two continents have been clothes pins in a two month's bill. What Magazines J Henderson | eagerly watching the telegrams for tidings | or earth do you take me for -a four story

> But it is your bill, Your wife can explain it to you. She ordered the "My wife!" gasped the unfortunate

The debtor clutched the bill, jammed selling the Sun on the streets. The first for talk," said the widow, smoothing the it into his pocket, and hurried straight manifestations of his zeal in the cause of skirt of her dress; home. He belted into the house with our holy religion remind us of the career out any abatement of speed, and flinging of St. Paul. He displayed a godly indig- home, and the house was put in order.

"Martha Ann Johnson, what does this mony to the truth by casting snowballs with his hands, and thrashed the air in mean? There are fifty-live dozen clothes and other missiles at these emissaries of pins in Benson's bill for the past two Satan. On one occasion, in order months, and he says you ordered every check the pernicious system of Reformed blessed one of them.'

'And so I did,' said she demurely. W-h-a-t! Fifty-five dez-n clothes pins | blasphemons heresy of forty shekels ch ir as if a freight car had fall n a ton ing souls from the Catholic faith. of him, - Fifty five dezen clothes pins zeal drew upon him the censure of the auin two months,' he howled 'Will a just heaven stand that ?' 'I tell you you needn't stare at me that calling unto heaven with your impious ness. I ordered them clothespins mysel bridge - H. S. Hibbert, bow oar; W. S. upon the sculls of the Light Blues, but like another Alaric, political grass will and I have burned every one of 'em t at there stove, just because you were Close, No 2; G. O. Dicker, No. 3; W. C. Oxford has at last put a stop to the Cam. not grow where the hoof of this wild to all-fired lazy to get a stick of wood, Mychell, No. 4; E. A. Phillips, No. 5; bridge score, and if the usual run of luck | charger has trodden. His breath is death | And I declare, before I'll be bothere the land, and you shall pay for them, you have to sell the shirt on your back t

And Mrs. Johnson, with a face like scarlet, snatched up the broom, and went to sweeping the carpet as if every flake of dust was a red hot coal, while the store, and paid the bill. And before dark that night he had half a cord of wood sawed, split and piled up ready for

Baloon Voyaging

After the unglerious failure of West and Donaldson most people fancied that Many of them he relieved of nearly all the last of balloon voyaging across the their worldly possessions whereby their Atlantic, or for that matter in any given minds were freed from many of the cor- derson has placed on the Editor's Table direction, had been heard of. but with roding cares of earth, and directed to the March numbers of Good Words, Day fresh programmes for foolhardy advent- perienced prectous "times of refreshing, ures in acromatics. Under the auspices and great was the outpouring of the unusually interesting this month. of that prince of humbugs, P. T. Barnum spirit. He was not, however, suffered to Donaldson is said to be preparing for a persevere in his holy work unmolested, ocy. balloon season during the coming summer but was subjected to great tribulation and St. LaWrence Ward. are all furnished complete. A number of the door articles Horse let of Harman and D. of proportions vaster and efforts more persecution at the hands of Miknab, the daring than any that has yet been experi- infidel prefect of the city, by whom he between the principals, Mr. Donaldson fence was a refusal to participate in the agrees to devote his entire services to the centious ceremonies ordained by the City ing the text eighteen months, for which semblance to the Roman Saturnalia-St. he is to receive the sum of $20,000, Mr. Guttersnipe firmly declaring that his con-Barnum further agreeing to pay all ex. sciene would not permit him to avail him aldson still adheres to the belief that - it paired by frequent imprisonments, no le is possible to land a baloon successfully at than by his ardent devotions, and he any point named and to reascend without | finally died in the strong odor of sanctity. material loss of ascending power; and sec- Subscriptions for the erection of a suitable ond, that a fixed law governs the air cur- shrine to contain the bones of this illusrents, a knowledge of which will enable trious martyr will be received at this the voyageur to leave any spot and re- office .-- National. turn to the same at pleasure. The scienlific American says that during the past winter Mr. Donaldson has been engaged road has already been received. this, however, M. Fournier has achieved toms, is in the city, and will shortly be in arranging compactly the results of his work during his many years' experience. and possesses therein a more complete ennes is yet to be accomplished. A min- himself a very able as well as industrious erous friends in the Customs, which has acromplished. A mined. Extensive preparations have been

mer campaign during the coming months | equal to a quarter of a mile for a man. to absolutely determine the existence of continue to develop Mr. Doualdson's theory, there is little doubt that by October of this year he and a selected company will have a try at the Atlantic. He is now at work upon six balloons of various sizes, capable of carrying from one to twelve people. In these ascensions will constantly be made in all weathers and at every available point. The largest bill. oon will hold 70,000 enbic feet of gas, being about the size of the "Graphic "No shape trap is exactly correct in conforma-2,' These balloons will be supplied with tion, as if he had been formed by the most every convenience for comfort and safety, skillful artist of air special with the best many of the appliances being the result instrumenst. of experiments made during the winter at the Hippodrome. A number of perfected instruments are in process of manufacture | ithmetician, so also are crows, the wild to be used during the summer royages in turkey and some other birds. obtaining data to corroborate and increase the information already obtained. judgment went in favor of the Company one foot on an expedition toward the gut- The East India ants are horticulturists; these Courts holding the right to refuse ter while the other pedal extremity moved they make mushrooms upon which they WEATHERY. - This is strange weather to carry it. The Court of Appeals, how- in an opposite direction. Then the feed their young. for the 20th March-more like February ever, has unanimously reversed this de- gentleman straightened himself up, lookwith its cold and snow and bluster. The cision, and beld that under the Railway ed hard at the sidewalk as if he expectlap of this Spring so far is rather a cold Act they are bound to carry all passen ed to be assinated by it at any moment He weaves a web to build his nest. having risen four feet in ten minutes, is so cold that they sell whisky by the count of their being dangerous, or some found it very hard work to preserve the third commandment.

Jimuel Briggs, D.B.

THE "CHURCH CHIMES"-THE LEGEND OF ST. GUTTERSNIPB.

missals, croziers and such things-and is her sister.

months ago she begged of him not to go expect to see the names of Thomas away without leaving her some kindlings. A'Becket or St. Dunstan signed to some no more to him about kindlings. For ten stale and monotonous, fell back on their "Oh, yes, the Taylors were all here," resuscitating ancient legends from the suggested the bereaved woman drooping-

"How so," said he.

"Of similia similibus cure-ranter." "Dam !" said the Chimes man.

stock of saintly legends will be soon run served ; cut, and then you will have to get some | "The Colonel was very sociable, and Harper's Magazine, vellous and absurd. That story of the sickness of your husban I." I tof bran-new, first-class, original legends The friends now rose to go, each bidnever before published which I will guar- ding her good-bye, and expressing the antee to create a perfect furore in Ritual | hope that she would be calm. Her sister | MacMillan's Magazine,

He said he would think of it. Since then I have produced several brief biographies of hitherto unrecognized bors think of it. 1 wouldn't have had Scribner's Monthly, think are calculated to excite the devout aspirations of the faithful.

The following is a specimen. THE LEGEND OF ST. GUTTERSNIPE. mia, of uncertain parentage. The early ing to look hopeful. chronicles of the church afford comparahood. Prior to his conversion he is enough by their looks." known to have obtained a livelihood by "Well, I am glad there is no occasion LONDON PARCEL OF MAGAZINES! suasions, and would often seal his testi-Episcopalism, he found opportunity deprive one of the promulgators of thorities, and led to his seclusion from the world for a considerable time, during which, in accordance with the custon the period, he remained in his cell gaged in meditation and prayer. Among other miracles recorded of St. Guttersnipe, it is stated that on his renunciation of the heretical tenets of the Sun and undertaking to promote the spread Catholic truth, he was so specially favored by Providence that he was enabled to dis- Moore. pos of no less than ten copies of the Church Chimes in the course of one day. A number of lewd and wicked youth, envying the success of the saint, determined to rob him of the wealth he had acquired. To this end they proposed game of euchre, a large amount being staked on the result, when by another miraculous interposition the saint was enabled to play two right bowers in succession, by means of which his shekels in were redeemed from the spoilers and the alversary put to shame and confusion face. And Guttersnipe grew in wisdom and stature, and when he had attained & Co maturity he opened a hostelry for the accommodation of pilgrims. His benevolent disposition was manifested by his solicitude to relieve the weary and distressed.

af Rest and Saturday Journal, which are

By an agreement recently made was oft-times cast into prison. His offurtherance of acronautic travelling dur- Fathers, which seem to have borne a repenses attending the experiment. Don- self of such license. His health was im-

> FACTS AND SCRAPS. The bones of birds are hollow, and filled with air instead of marrow. A single horse fly produces in one sea son, 20,080,320 eggs. The flea jumps 200 times its own length New Dress Goods,

The black ostrich stands seven feet. The knowledge of the arts and sciences which is possessed by the different members of the animal creation has not frequently been a subject of wonder to so constructed, as with the least quality of material to have the largest spaces and the least possible loss of interstice. So also is the ant lion. His funnel

The mole is a meteorologist. The bird called the kine killer is an ar-The torpedo, the ray and the electric eel.

The nautilus is a navigator. He raises and lowers his sail and casts anchor and Wasps are paper makers. Caterpillars are silk spinners. The bird ploceous textor is a weaver

The squirrel is a ferryman. With chip or piece of bark for a boat, and his tail for a sail, he crosses the stream. Dogs, wolves, jackals, and many other animals are hunters.

After the Funeral.

(Danbury News,) It was just after the funeral. The be-Editor National,— Probably some of your readers have heard of Church Chimes.

There was that constrained look, so pecu-It is a Ritualistic paper only somewhat hiar to the occasion, observable on every countenance. The widow sighed. It believes in saints, legends, brevaries, "How do you feel, my dear," observed

FULL YEARLY SETS OF THE FOLLOW ING ENGLISH AND AMERICAN "Oh, I don't know," said the poor wo-You feel as though the Venerable Bede | man, with difficulty restraining her tears. But I hope everything went off well." "Indeed it did," said all the ladies. "It was as large and respectable a funeral as I have seen this winter," said the say, they go but a little; they are so ex-before been witnessed here. The river torialist been defeated we should like to settle his account. - "Yes," said he, "it is a great and glo- 'Oh, yes," chimed in several. "They Blackwood's Magazine, has fallen very little, and a higher rise is have been disappointed, so closely divid- The bili was made out and handed him. rious work. In this age of infidelity and carriage, too," said the looked for to day, or at the latest before ed are Parties in the Riding. Had such He glanced down the items. As he ad schism we are striving to restore the pristhe ice passes out, and it is impossible to been the case, there would have been lit- vanced along the column his face began to the Randalls, and Van Ransalears. Mrs. Contemporary Review work. First his eyes slowly cularged, antidote to the corrupting influences of Van Ransalear had her cousin from the city with her. And Mrs. Randall wore a Cornhill, "On the homospathic principle," Laug- very heavy black silk, which I am sure Chamber's, was quite new. Did you see Col. Hay- Edinburgh Review, wood and his daughters, love?" "I thought I saw them, but I wasn't sure. They were here, then, were they ?" I rebuked him mildly and set 'em up. "Yes, indeed," said they all again, and Fortnightly Review, "I've been thinking," said I, "that your the lady who lived across the way ob- Good Words.

more. The public always love the mar- inquired most kindly about you, and the London Society rehabilitated hog was a brilliant success. The widow smiled faintly. She was > bowed them out. When she returned, Once a Week, she said : "You can see, my love, what the neigh-saints, with miracles interspersed which I anything unfortunate happened for a good Temple Bar, deal. But nothing did. The arrange- St. Paul's Magazine. ments couldn't have been better." "I think some of the people in the neighborhood must have been surprised to see so many of the up-town people Magazines for sale at 5 and ten cents each.

St. Guttersnipe was a native of Bohe- here," suggested the afflicted woman, try-"You may be quite sure of that!" astively little information as to his boy- serted the sister. "I could see that plain

And after that the boys took the chairs

CUSTOMS IMPORTS-IN BOND.

March 19. Sleighs, Cape Vincent-2 tubs oysters, The Young Ladies' Journal. Old Sam; 2 kegs oysters, 1 bx candy, Recs Bros; 1 pa, E Stacey; 1 pa, Fenwick, Hendry & Co: 26 coils rope, Calvin & Breck: 18 bbls rosin, 100 bbls plums, G Cassell's New Magazine, Robertson & Son; 1 bl cider, HA Har- The Young Englishwoman, Englishwoman's Domestic Magz. Son: 3 bxs. 1 bx. 1 bl. 1 keg tinware, Mc-K. Ivey & Birch; I bx. W J Mahood; 24 The Day of Rest, Illustrated, chests tea, J Harty & Co; 40 bales, J The Saturday Journal do. Muckleston & Co; I bale, Macnee & War - The Family Herald, dell; 5 bxs h ware, 2 bdls, A Chown & The Christian Co; 1 bx, Weber & Co; 1 bx candy, H & Good Words, W J Crothers; I bx, Chown & Co; 8 bxs, 2 crates, 1 bx paper, G W Refenstein; 1 The Quiver, &c. bx, 1 can, R Waldron, GTR, Coaticook-5 cases, Macnee & Waddell; 2 cases, R W.duron; 1 case, 1 John Henderson. bale, Macnee & Waddell; I case, Thomas GTR, Prescott-1 b : paper hangings, GTR, Coaticook -1 bale, McAuley & Co; 1 bale, J Henderson; 1 bx, J C Gilmour; 1 case, Dr Henderson.

A on the Westerly side of Queen street, GTR. Sarnia-1 bx. J Vanhorn 2 cses, I Muckleston & Co. ng rooms, with folding doors, six Bedrooms GTR, Conticook 40 bdls turpentine. and Kitchen with usual appartment. A com-Gunn & Co: 1 case, Macnee & Wadmodious yard, stables and woodshed attached.

GTR, Fort Erie -10 kegs, 5 bdis, 3 blls ham, 3 bbls, R Carson; 4 bbls hams, bbls, 2 bbls bacon and beef, G Robertson

Sleighs, Cape Vincent-57 bdls, G Robertson & Son; 1,001 dry hides, 500 bxs, A

NEW PUBLICATIONS. - Mr. John Hen-

Y for the honor done us by putting our mes in nomination beg leave to give notice that we will not be candidates at the approach ing election for this Ward. W. ROBINSON JOHN MCKELVEY

IN GREAT VARIETY

Infants and Childrens Made Up Dresses.

New Costumes in the latest styles, New Prints, including the New York Stripes and Boston Checks, nesumy last, the cordiality extended adding to the pleasure it felt in taking part in the Cele Muslins, Cretonnes, Divihity, &c.,

A CARD.

SHELDON & DAVIS. Photographers,

72 King Street,

Feb. 19, 1875.

PHŒNIX

Hartford, Conn.

CHAS. HENTIG, A out for Kingston Feb 12, 187

MAGAZINES FOR SALE

PRINCESS STREET.

Also a large quantity of odd Numbers of

HAS ARRIVED.

FOR APRIL:

FOR MARCH:

PRINCESS STREET.

A STONE DWELLING HOUSE, situated

CREAT AUCTION SALE

Dining Room, Reading Room, Office, Bar-Room,

door articles, Horse, lot of Harness and Buggy nearly new, and other articles too numerou to mention. A large portion of the above Fur-

Sale sommences each day at 11 o'clock, a.m.

Closes at 4 p.m., so as to deliver each day's sale. Any article sold privately up to the day

Terms of Sale :- Under $50 cash; over $50,

Wanted.

A GENERAL MAID SERVANT. Apply

Found,

ON THURSDAY MORNING, on the side walk on Wellington street, a SILVER WATCH with chain attached. The loser can have it of application at the BRITISH WHIG OFFICE.

CARD

L CHETY of Wolfe Island wishes to record its

EDW. CUFF,

Vice-President.

which it was received by the St. Patrick's So-

J. CONOLLY, Marshal.

A LARGE LOT OF BREEDING CAGES, and Wire Flower Stands and Baskets, and Handsome Perambulators.

HORSEY'S

Hardware House.

165 and 166 Princess Street

Auction Sale

At 7:30 o'clock.

J. E. HUTCHESON,

Wolfe Island, March 19, 1875.

six months' credit by approved papers.

Mrs. D. Fraser, Merchant's Bank.

niture have been very little used.

March 18, 1875.

. LANGAN.

March 19, 1875.

March 49, 1875.

Barber's Shop and Kitchen. The above rooms

BAWDEN & MACHAR.

March 20, 1875.

March 18, 1875.

Henderson's.

JOHN HENDERSON,

Princess Street.

FANCY AND STAPLE

R. & J. GARDINER'S

PRINCESS STREET A Large Stock

BLACK and COLORED SILKS

At Extremely Low Prices.

A GOOD ASSURTMENT OF 100 DRESS GOODS.

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, to be offered CHEAP FOR CASH.

Laces, Ribbons, Ostrich Feathers and Trimmings,

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION AND AT VERY LOW PRICES.

A LARGE STOCK OF

Dress Grenadines.

PLAIN, STRIPED AND FLOWERED-

A GOOD ASSORTMENT OF

Paisley Shawls, Plaid Shawls, Ottoman Shawls. Black Lace Shawls,

AT LOW PRICES.

Linens, Tickings, Towellings, Sheetings, Lace Curtains, and all kinds of Fur> nishing Goods, AT VERY LOW PRICES.

R. & J. GARDINER

PRINCESS STREET. March 1, 1875.

GREDIT SALE

THE Subscriber has received instructions to sell at Public Auction all the Farming Wm. David,

MONDAY, THE 5th OF APRIL, On the premises, Lot 24, in the 5th Concession of the Township of Kingston, the undermen tioned goods, consisting of 1 2 Horses, and fancy Buggy Beast, I Cow, I lumber Waggor spring Waggons, I Buggy, I pleasure Sleigh single or double, nearly new, I Cutter, nearly new, I large Land Roller, nearly new, 2 Steel Ploughs, 1 Harrow, 1 Horse Rake, 2 Hay Racks, Set of double Harness, nearly new, I set of Single Harness, 1 set Plough Harness, 1 set Bob Sleighs, I Fanning Mill, I Corn Sheller, Spades, Logging Chains, Crow Bars, and other Sale to commence at 12 o'clock. TERMS-Under $5 cash : over that amount six months credit, by furnishing approved endorsed notes, with interest at 7 per cent. .

Buffalo Robe, Rakes and Forks, Shovels and

The Farm will be offered For Sale at the WM. MURRAY,

March 13, 1875.

Mr. William David is returning to Kingston on the 1st of Apr'l, where he will open out a large Broker Store in Mr. Thibodo's buildings Hotel. 'There is a lare bake oven on the pre mises to let. Apply to Wm. David. He will be prepared to receive your orders from the 2nd day of April for old and new goods of every description, such as Stoves and Beds, Bedding Furniture, Hardware, Dry Goods, Jewellery, Musical Instruments, Clothing, Men's, Women's and Children's, Watches and Clocks, old Copper and Brass.

Lady's Muff Lost.

Taken, it is supposed by mistake, last evening, from the Counter in Mr. Stacey's Book-Store, a FINE SEALSKIN MUFE, trimmed with Otter. Whoever will return the same to this Office will be rewarded. THE ST. PATRICK'S BENEVOLENT SO. March 17th, 1875.

> TO LET, ELMHURST, the residence of Professor Ferthe line of the projected Street Railway. Ap-KIRKPATRICK & ROGERS.

Prof. J. Y. Egan, The Celebrated English Phrenologist and Physiologist,

TATILL BE AT THE ANGLO AMERICAN VV HOTEL, Kingston, From Wednesday, Noon, March 17th, until

Thursday, March 25th. Those wishing a scientific, Phrenological and Physiological examination of themselves or their children should call early. He may be consulted on Consumption and all Chronic Nervous Diseases. To the poor and suffering consultation and advice free, formerly the Annexation, now lying at Amherst Island, rigging and anchors complete. For terms apply to EDW. H. SMYTHE, Esq., Solicitor, Ontario street. March 11, 1875.

March 16, 1875. Schooner For Sale.

companions in good standing are requested attend. By order W.C. in March 16, 1875.