ROBBERY. - While the Orangemen were listening to a sermon in the grove near Mr. Emo's residence in Huntingdon on the 12th, some person obtained entrance to that gentleman's premises, and secured between $50 and $60 in money. No clue to the robber. - Intelligencer.

AT ARDEN.—The little village situated DEW POHM. about 20 miles back of Tamworth celebrated the anniversary in the usual loyal manner. The Lodges of Parham, Olden and Anglosea united with the Arden Brethren in the formation of a respectable procession. After the walk and refreshments, amusements were improvised and the remainder of the day very agreeably
