Montreal Telegraph-160, 159, NEXT WEDN SDAY! St. George's Pic-Nic Everyone is going.

ST. GEORGE'S PIC-NIC. - This pic-nic will probably draw together the largest assemblage yet held on Simcoe and. Should the weather continue its present happy mood, those present will be counted by hundreds above the irst thousand. This is due to the attractiveness of the grounds, the pleasure of the short trip across, and the great er tent, variety and liberality of the pro gramme of sports, amusements and contests-such an unusually good return for low prices of tickets as to be altogether exceptional, and no wonder that all the world of Kingston and his wife (and the baby, ! Montreyl, Aug. 2.—A little boy named for the baby show) is going. The pro- to-day at ceeds of the affair are to be very satisfactorily placed-added to the benevolent A.
