and gave way at, last, and I went with my lady.

ways was a young man called Kemp, who from Miss Adela. had not been long in Sir Richard's ser- | 'Raites,'she said, 'we must have missed tect her from the cold; and as of course us, that it was nearly ten o'clock. have a chaperon, as they call it-which, I covered that Tomlin is not on the box. It believe, means a married lady to look is Sir Luke Hendon who is driving us. 'Sir Richard consented to his sister's mar-

itter young girls. by five o'clock to-morrow afternoon. I was greatly startled at first; but, after a hid been drugged by Sir Luke. and he spoke so abrupt-like that he al- thing to be done is to speak to Sir Luke | bell, so you must be off to dress, and where we should be next day at five for me, I guessed at once that it was a The Daily British Athin. o'clock! However, off we drove at last. | plot of Sir Luke's to run away with Miss and the first seven miles of our journey I however, in those days, and I trusted to and my young lady, in spite of our furs, frighten him; so I put my head out o could not help shivering occasionally. the window and screamed out, 'Sir Luke, for warmth, as possible. At the end of with you!" The 'Hendon Arms' was a small road-side | His face was hard, stern, and determin

I can't say I much liked the look of veiled it. the place, as far as I could judge of it, as "Miss Paulinson asked, in as steady a we drove up. It was but dimly lighted voice as she could command, what was with oil lamps, and it was situated just the meaning of this extraordinary proon the edge of a bleak moor, where three ceeding. 'And where is Tomlin ?' she or four roads met. There were no hous- added es or buildings of any sort, as I afterwards " 'fomlin is at the "Herndon Arms, learnt, nearer than Hendon House, which sound asleep, 'said Sir Luke; 'and the was from a mile and a half to two miles | meaning of this proceeding is that I am a fair trade, as it lay at the junction of to make you my wife." several roads, one of which led direct to | 'I really think to this day that the man building, with a wooden horse-trough be- out a couple of pistols and showed us that fore the door, for the accommodation of they were primed and loaded. time by politars, shepherds, and such like end of you all three.'

my young lady would alight and warm tracted from us all three a promise to

Just as you like, madam, said Duminet. But I have a really nice parlor, inet. But I have a rea well warmed, and I thought you might gave the required promise. But I'thought like to sit there whilst your servants took to myself that directly we were over the some refreshment.

"I felt my young lady shiver, and I my tongue between my teeth. to warm herself and take perhaps half a our words not to call out for assistglass of wine and water. I don't think ance, and, when my young lady asked she would have alighted on her own ac- our destination, he said, quite calmly and count, but she was always considerate for | coollyher servants, and when I reminded her "We are first going to be married at that there was a long, cold drive still to Gretna Green.' come for the coachman and footman, she "And so we drove on, in what state of consented to enter the 'Hendon Arms' mind you may imagine. At any rate, we for a quarter of an hour.

and paintings, and wax candles, and the to dread on my own account, I was by far. door was covered with a beautiful white the calmer of the two. carpet flowered with crimson roses, and 'Wiss Adela,' I said, 'nave you your felt like velvet under your feet; a small tablets with you?" landlord or any of his customers, except her, partners at the ball. Sir Luke Hendon and his friends. Sir "Here they are, Raites,' she said. neighboring squires. When I say neigh is sometimes so. Miss Adela was tremben miles. A sort of club was in fact I made her write a few words to Mr. must bear in mind that forty years ago as possible thesegentlemen were not nearly so fastidious in their tastes and habits as they are now. force! Follow immediately!" On the evening of the York ball this room had been specially prepared for my young | Then I softly raised the trap and spoke to lady by Sir Luke's orders, who knew young Kemp. I told himeto drop gently here on its way to York, nitical surprised as I at the unexpected every inch of the country; and, besides, as uppearance of this Aladdin's palace on a l have said, he was devoted to my young dreary moor. In fact she was about to lady, so he needed no pressing. I watch. John brazenly denied Mr. Huntington's put some questions to the inn keeper, ed him with great anxiety as he stealthily when a side door opened, and, to our ex- swung himself out of the rumble, for treme astonishment, in walked Sir Luke feared the terribie consequence if Sir

He walked toward us as airly as if we broke his fall and deadened the soun had been in some fashiouable drawing and I breathed again. coldly for was he not a rejected suitor of with clasp hands and never uttered lady that, knowing that she was to change my young lady's dress. She was supplied horses at the 'Hendon Arms,' he had also with suitable travelling things, so it come across the country in order to ask was evident Sir Luke had laid his plans to be permitted to escort her to York, he well. There was nothing for it but to having accidentally learnt from a friend | take things quietly and be patient. of Sir Richard's illness. I remember "Well, we travelled all this day and that, although this conduct would have part of the next, and at dusk we reached been perfectly natural in an accepted Gretna Green. Here Sir Luke conducted lover, it struck me as being exceedingly us to a small cottage, where we were strange on the part of a rejected one. watched by some creatures of his own in bella strolled out near the point for the beastly bella strolled ou strange on the part of a rejected one.

Strange on the part of a rejected one watched by some creatures of his own—in fact kept close prisoners. Sir Luke, I superconstitute fact kept close prisoners fact kept close prisoners. Sir Luke, I superconstitute fact kept close prisoners f readily take 'No,' and, woman like, I ad pose, had gone to make preparations for not or will not restrain their appetites. and having effectually cut off my retreat, heart did my young lady. She seemed a 'I can't tell you, my dears, how terrible The Toronto Nation, for instance, puts they embarrassed me after this fashion: little confused and disturbed, but she long those few hours seemed; my young that view of the question in this way:could not in common courtesy make any lady sat in a sort of dull despair, heeding "No amount of argument will do away objection after Sir Luke had taken all nothing that was said to her. I had al- with the fact that it is proposed to prethis trouble upon her account. So, most lost hope, for I expected Sir Luke vent a large section of the community

he had sent his valet on with a dress suit had been he had sent his valet on with a dress suit he had sent his valet on with a dress suit he had sent his valet on with a dress suit had been he had sent his valet on with a dress suit had been he had sent his valet on with a dress suit had been he had sent his valet on with a dress of the physically helpless creatures show her just 'how he could,' and then had sent he had sent his valet on with a dress of the physically helpless creatures show her just 'how he could,' and then had sent he had sent his valet on with a dress of the physically helpless creatures show her just 'how he could,' and then had sent he ha ed rooms for the night. So it was all ar | eyes and prayed as I had never in my life | ence to a moral principle does not do away. ranged, and my young lady was persuad - prayed before. ed to take a glass of wine and water spic- "At last we heard the sound of Sir ation in the minds of others." wine, and a large helping of a beautifu! had arrived. Sir Luke entered the room for it is undoubtedly hard on the face of don't think I ever enjoyed anything so with a look of cool determination on his it to make a man suffer for his fellows, of the landlord, and announces that the power of moving.

At last, however, after a deal of coaxing distasteful to her, so he got up on the young lady must not be hurried; and I that curse and the resultant poverty, Man Adela's part, it was settled that I box. It was so exceedingly dark that I proceeded to eke out the time by offering accompany her in the carriage to could not see Tomlin, our coachman. But her a smelling-bottle and other feminine wait at an hotel there till the ball I knew young Kemp was all right be- conveniences for averting hysteriecs. uded, and then we should sleep hind, as I heard his voice saying 'Good- At last Sir Luke would no more be triffor beds had been engaged for Sir night' to the oetler. Kemp, I must be led with; he seized my young lady rather dichard and his sister at the Ebor Hotel. mark, was a raw country lad, bred on the roughly by the arm and insisted on see, as Miss Adela said, this ball was Paulinson estate, and, although he had date compliance. He in fact d agged with a grand affair, she might not have been but a very short time in Sir Rich- her on to her feet, but as he did so

Th dear, oh hear! To think she never were by our rest and, refreshment, the heard, the woman who rented the hut road did not seem so dreary and cold as say. We were to start at six o'clock, the before. My young mistress was very silyear it was dark at five o'clock. But I actually fell asleep. We reckoned to our way!' And she took her watch from My young lady was wrapped from head her bosom, and showed me, by the faint foot in a coatly cloak of sables, to pro- light of a carriage taper that we had with

could not go all that distance bare- Just at that moment we heard a very lady, who had fallen into a dead swoon. fice would of course be no light one, but headed, her head was muffled in a fur gentle tapping at the back of the carriage. The pearls she was to wear in her I must tell you that in our old-fashioned face as he glared at us. The veins of his poverty would almost disappear, crime hair I carried in her jewel-box, for she carriage there was a small trap, through temples stood out like cords, and his eyewas to put on her ornaments in York, as which any one inside the carriage could balls were like coals of fire; a thick purple would shrink into insignificance, homes we were going tirst to the rooms engaged communicate with the footman behind, flush spread over his countenance. He of substantial comfort would take the the rooms engaged communicate with the footman behind, flush spread over his countenance. He of substantial comfort would take the the rooms engaged communicate with the footman behind, flush spread over his countenance. at the hotel before proceeding to the as | in the same way that people riding now | tried to speak, but words failed him; he place of the empty hovel. It is a question of the law—while two others sembly Rooms. As I was not in evening in Which logic can be safely pitched to the vertisements, however, many have only wise she will cheerfully recognise this and circles, as numerous Boston banks held were with difficulty saved. It was more dress, of course I did not require to be so driver. I got up on the seat, and raised one of his pistols, took aim deliberately at much wrapped up as my young lady; but the trap softly, for I began to have a faint Mr. Everard, but before he would pull dogs; if the law has no right to enforce case they show, certainly, very questionmuch wrapped up as my young lady; but the trap softly, for I began to have a faint land of the trap softly in the tr which Miss Adela had lent me, and a Kemp's face was so close to the open trap | the pistol exploding, the bullet passed to submit with a patriotic alacrity. tourse straw bonnet and thick weil. Miss that it almost touched mine. 'Mrs. harmlessly through the window. Adela was to meet her uncle and aunt and Raites, he whispered, in a frightened a large party at the Assembly Rooms; so tone, what can this mean? We are three violent passions, had had a stroke of apeall was right and proper, and she would miles beyond York, and I have just dis- plexy. He never spoke again.

"I was petrified at the lad's statement: most made me drop the glass. But I at once.' She spoke without hesitation; must see to the dessert." said. Oh, certainly, Sir Richard, you jet I could tell by the trembling of her hall be obeyed.' Little did I think hand that she was much agitated. As 'As I have said, it was terribly cold; Paulinson. It was a hanging matter, However, we kept as close to each other, Sir Luks, my young lady desires to speak about eight miles we arrived at the 'Hen- 'I suppose he knew that an explanation don Arms,' where we were to leave our must come sooner or late, for the pulled own horses, and go on with post-horses. up the horses and descended immediately. hosteley, about a mile and a half from as he came to the carriage window; and l the Hendon estate; and Mr. Everard saw then, what I had never seen before, Durneastle's family also lived about two the villainous nature of the man peepin miles farther on, on the other side of the out through the mask of outward courtesy beneath which he had hitherto

But the 'Hendon Arms' did taking you to Scotland, there immediately the York coaches, which passed by at in- 'There is no one on this desolate road tervals; and there were benches under- to hear you cry out,' Sir Luke said; 'but, suppose were used in summer you venture to cry out, there will be an while drinking their draughts of 'Well, what could we do? The lad

"I must say the parlour surprised me. and my young lady and I held a consul-Though it was not large, it was well fur- tation in whispers. At last a brilliant nished. There were sofas, and mirrors, lidea occurred to me, for, having nothing round table was spread with oranges, . "My young lady drew from her bosom cake and wine. We heard afterwards a set of small ivory tablets suspended by that this room was never used by the gold chain, which she usually carried with Luke it appeared, was in the habit of "It may seem strange to you, my ding some of his evenings here, play- dears, but the greater the danger the ing at cards or dire with a few of the stronger became my nerves. I believe it boring,' I mean within a circuit of a doz- ling like a leaf, and did just as I bid her. "a whole." held here by these gentlemen-and you Durnca the. I believe they were as nearly

"I am carried off to Gretna Green "My poor young mistress wrote them Luke should hear him. But the snow goom. But the position was an awkward I "On we bowled and I was busy with my one, and Miss Adela received him very own thoughts, whill it my young lady sat hers? Still, with her high breeding, she syllable. At day break we stopped to though with considerable reluctance, she to return every moment, and I thought from doing what is entirely innocent, and that by this time Mr. Everard ought to within their natural right, in order to re- How could youl Sir Luke was in ball costume, although | have appeared. What if anything had strain the hurtful excesses of a very much opportunity again; so Sir Rich- ard's service; he was devoted to my young sound of a loud altercation were audible in front of the cottage.

ev being so long, and at that time of ent; and for my part I must confess that could stop me, I forced open the door. . promising carsers ruined, crime bred with Tomath, the coachman, knew the way arrive at York a little before nine.

The footwell, and was a steady man. The footwell, and was a steady man. The footside expostulating with the virago who your fellows whose appetites are not like an announcement from a young lady, self- sympathies given to barren and weary Smith, of the 'Jefferson Borden' muticalled herself mistress of the cottage. "Oh, Heaven be praized Mr. Everard!" I exclaimed. 'You are just in time.' " Where is she he cried.

" 'I' tell you there is no lady here." I

" 'And I led him to my poor young Sir Luke Hendon, a victim to his own

"I suppose you can guess the sequely riage with Mr. Everard Durucastle, and the last thing Sir Richard said to me, but I always had a good share of what is for the sake of Sir Luke's family his misafter his sister had kissed him, and we called 'presence of mind;' so I gently shut deeds were hushed up. Let us hope that were just going down to the carriage, was, down the trap; and proceeded to relate the poor man was mad. Tomlin, the way, both social, political and national, birds and poets should sing in May—and through the glamor of which it is usually from his vacation yesterday, and met his to 10c; Eggs 12 to 13c; Potatoes per bush 30c. Rattes, mind you bring Miss Adela back what I had heard to my young lady. She coachman, I must add, was faithful, but was giving him his colchicum at the time, few moments' pause, she said. The only And now there goes the first dinner-

Opifer per Orbem Dicor.

TURDAY EVEN'G, OCT. 2, 1875 REMINDERS.

SATURDAY. TIERNEY & Co's. Sale at 7 p.m.. BASE BALL Match at 2 p.m. RIFLE MATCH at the Butts on Barriefield

BUNDAY. ANRIVERSARY Services in C. M. Churches. Y.M C.A. Meeting at 8 p.m. TEMPERANCE Meeting at 4 p.m., in Sons Hall; Address by Mr. John Stratton. MONDAY EVENING.

L.M.C.A. Meeting at 8 p.m. MINDEN LODGE .- Regular Meeting-8 p.m. COOL BURGESS and the Townsends-8 p.m .-

CORRUPTION FUNDS. Our Conservative friends are desperately anxious to destroy the damning recolcould not have been perfectly sane; for, ection of the Pacific scandal when they The house was a long, low, red-tiled as he pronounced these words, he pulled try to point Mr. George Brown as black as Sir John Macdonald because in 1872 he raised an election fund of $3,700. The two transactions are not to be named in some scrubby-looking bushes, when we come to inhabited districts, if the same breath, The Referm Party is ing visited by the County Inspector, I no more to be blamed for what Mr. Geo. Agnew. Brown did in '72 than they are for Mr. Kemp was unarmed and only eighteen Herman Cook's corrupt extravagance; Of course we were expected, and the years old, and we were two poor defence- Mr. Brown being only a private citizen o and ord - I remember his name was Dum- less woman. We could not cope, with an Toronto and a private member of the Par same to the carriage door to see if armed and desperate man. Sir Luke ex- ty. On the other hand, as the Hamilton Wm. Scott, Bathurst, was burned, with yourself whilst the horses were being hold our tongues until we were over the Times puts it, "Sir John Macdonald was the hay of forty acres of land, and some border. My young mistress, who believ- "the Premier of Canada, using his offici- grain." said that I really thought it would be well Luke grew calmer when he had given fairs. Mr. Brown had not for years, Perth Courier. "and did not then, hold any official or rewere not forbidden to speak to each other, 'other hand was, at the time of his deal- R Walker left for Kingston Countries and P. there is anything for it but to let him maining on that fine building, and in entreated those present to follow the ad-"ing in the Allan bribery fund, had been "for years, and is still the acknowledged "leader of the Conservatives. They en-"afterwards, re-elected him their leader, brick block in Napanee, and $2000. "his action. So, supposing the actions to Beaver. "have been equally wrong in the one case "other, it attaches to the leader of, and

The impudence of a comparison between the two cases is something superb, though | Church was crewded to its utmost capaci-Brown fund was collected with corrupt | cessful tea meeting was held. intent, we never having found it necessary to justify our allegiance to the Rethat her carriage would change horses to the ground and carry the tablets across form Party by claiming that it is imma- Dress Goods, Serges and Winceys. the country to Mr. Everard with all speed. culate. Sir John sold his country for an All goods sold at Auction prices I could see that my young lady was as He was a born Yorksbireman and knew e'ection fund; Mr. Brown got up a small at J. M. McKay & Co's. subscription among a few friends. Sir much resemblance between the two as be- | ing little brides here every week, enough to heap upon them the blame.

THE TYRANNY OF PRONIBITION.

with the principle or neutralize its opered and a sponge cake. As for me, I don't Luke's voice and my young lady shivered It is unquestionable that there is much among the presents will be some curios: mind saying that I had two glasses of from head to foot. The dreaded moment weight in this presentation of the case, ties from Niagara. brow, and his lips firmly set together. wrong, but after making all due allow. steamers will make tri-weekly trips up Sir Luke had retired a few minutes, 'Come, Adela,' was all he said, and he ance for this part of the argument it re- and down on the Canada side, leaving overcoat, which he said he had borrowed and I verily believe she had lost the fair in the interests of the nation and of Saturdays, and up the days following. carriage was ready. He handed us in, but 'At that morning I fancied that I heard humanity to extort such a sacrifice from he would not get in him elf beside us, the sounds of wheels on the road, deaden- temperate drinkers in order that the curse Don't forget the big sale crime and misery are considered, if it not strictly logical that temperate drinkers sliould be deprived of intoxicants, it may be fairly claimed that they shou made submit to that deprivation for the public weal. You, reader, may fret at uch a proposition as you take your mod erate glass of beer, or wine or whisk and resent such a tyrannous invasion your right to eat and drink as you please "Quick as thought; and before Sir Luke | but when you look around you and see "There is there is!" I screamed; and awful fecundity, poverty slark and terriyours under control, you must be selfish styled 'pretty,' 'charming,' &c., that she hearts, as the mother who has half a indeed if you would not content to forego the pleasures of the cup for the sake your country and your race. The sacri-Never shall I forget Sir Luke Hendon's the reward would be commensurate

> While failing to agree with those wh who accentuate the tyranny view of the question we by no means coincide with hose Prohibitionists who fancy that it in all cases hurtful, for in many it is not, while the social pleasure of the bottle very often a genuine one, but for the sake sacrifice. Who does not know some affection which alone can guarantee either friend going to the devil with a bottle happiness or heart-fidelity amid the tryunder his arm? And who would not ing changes and chances of life. There make the sacrifico to rescue him ?

----AKOUND HOME.

-Drainage is the question now in Nap--Brockville horses are enjoying taste qualifications in exchange for the main- ing the last session.

-Brockville's chief topic is the water works question. -Snow is reported to have fallen east of Enterprise some days ago. -The Frontenac public schools are be-

-In some of the townships adjoining Pembroke, harvesting is not yet over the damp, rainy weather preventing grain from being housed. -A barn and stables belonging to Mr out 81 tons on Openicon Lake, Crosby .- seeming amiable to their male friends, it ing of better terms at the present time.

"that of a full private in the ranks, so that | treal, and Queen's University, Kingston. "his actions, be they good, bad or indiff. D. Stewart, P. Brennan and Stewart Mc-"erent. Sir John Macdonald, on the Nee left for Montreal. Messrs. W. G. B. Walker left for Kingston. - Courier.

REAL ESTATE SALES. - James McGuire acres to S. Bell for $1,000. G. Lasher in marrying him. But we should be sorry "dorsed his conduct as right, supported has exchanged a farm of 130 acres, in to think that may of our Canadian young the charges of improper and immoral against his friends and foes without dis-"him in it until his overthrow, and even Ernesttown, with R. A. Wees, for a menere of such miserable stuff as this, conduct against the Rev. C. A. Croeber, thus accepting the full responsibility for Switzer, of Ernesttown, has purchased P. Fraser's farm in Camden, for $5,000.

-On Sunday, the 10th, the new Memember of the Reform party while in the formerly dedicated. The opening service was conducted at 10 a.m., by the Rev. J. Elliott, Kingston, President "through him to the Conservative party as the Montreal Conferences The Rev. Mr. Scott, Chairman of Perth District, officiated at 2 p.m., and the Rev. M. Hammond, North Gower, at 9 p.m. The we do not deny that it is not unlikely the ty. On the following evening a very suc-

BRIDAL COOING AT NIAGARA. - There charge, and called God to witness his in- is no place like Niagara for flirtations, for nocence, as he did a little before to attest | men may come and women go, but they his anxiety to catch Riel. There is as go no forever. There are so many lovtween Alexander the Great and Alex. seem to take an especial delight in 'spooning' before folks and making their marander the Coppersmith. And moreover riage known. The rush and roar of the we protest against the great Reform Par. | rapids drowns the sound of the billing ty being held responsible for what Mr. and cooing of these loving couples, but was polite, though frigidly so.

When they was polite, though frigidly so.

When they can, in the assurance that breakfast at a roadside inn, where the people were clearly in Sir Luke's pay, as ratify it, as the Conservatives ratified the girl's hand, and whispering conumdrans vidence that shapes our ends, the husting that the editor of the Kingston and not be a base ball tournament in Kingston shortly, and it is recommended that the editor of the Kingston and not be a base ball tournament in Kingston shortly, and it is recommended that the editor of the Kingston and not be a base ball tournament in Kingston shortly. breakfast at a roadside inn, where the Brown did in this matter. When they breakfast at a roadside inn, where the Brown did in this matter. When they breakfast at a roadside inn, where the Brown did in this matter. When they breakfast at a roadside inn, where the Brown did in this matter. When they breakfast at a roadside inn, where the Brown did in this matter. phrases, Sir Luke explained to my young they showed no sort of astonishment at band will come in due time, and not be- ly understand your name. going off and doing the same thing him fore; and that if he does not come, they 'I think a little ice would improve the ain't anxious to hear that our cotem, has self. It grows rather monotonous after can do very well indeed without him! wine, was the answer. 'And now I think been torn limb from limb and scattered meets these happy pairs at every turn. It not offer himself. Let every girl be His friend now joined him, and they to a Kingston club will open his eyes to It is argued with considerable force annoys me to overhear remarks not intrained to do some one thing thoroughly, walked to his room together. The deaf some things his philosophy never dreams that to compel temperate drinkers to actended for my ears, but here it cannot the thing, if possible, for which she ledger patronized the house to the extent of. And a man who can calm the discept Prohibition is nothing short of tyra- be helped. The other evening a young shows most decided bent, just as boys are of another brought it up, ventured once turbing elements of a base ball match and He-I'm going away to-morrow. She -No! So soon?

He-Clara, I am (smack). Do you love

She-Oh, you dreadfully wicked fellow. The crimp is all out of my hair, wedding in Brooklyn by-and-bye, and his company on her, as he knew it was was to gain time, I said to Sir Luke, 'My fellows. When the awful dimensions of Kay & Co's, be seriously disastrous. And our 'B llas' wager he had staked on the success of his ality,' might find work enough cut out visited the city.

Matters Matrimonial. (To the Ed tor of the Landon Advertiser.) own lives all the happier for doing so. Sir, -To marry or not to marry, that's Above all things, wemen are needed for the question which seems to be agitating nurses and for taking care of our hospitthe minds of not a few Corydons and als, asylums, etc., which, among Prothe question which seems to be agitating nurses and for taking care of our hospit-Phillipea-juvenile and elderly; to judge testants, are a gre t deal too much left to the Bishop of Breslau has notified the Ecnot only by the flutter of fair and mas uncultivated hirelings. As it is clearly clesiastical Court that he is determined coline pens in the columns of the Ad- woman's most legitimate mission to not to obey its summons to attend for vertiser of late, but also from certain less minister to and relieve human suffering, trial, on the ground that the Court is no obtrusive but no less significant symptoms: this field would furnish ample for our For instance, the advertising columns of disengaged women who want a self-for- competent to try him. a city paper, this day, contained an in- getting occupation or a noble aim in teresting advertisement from a daring life. and surgly a desperate swain, who ap- And she who hasthis last will not feel nonneed their submission to the ecclesiaspended his name and invited a correst inclined to waste time often in unprofit-

invited correspondence of a similar kind. dozen children to kiss and caress. Certainly, while individuals have un- has her own appointed sphere, and to fill questionably a right to their own eccen- it well and worthily-not marriage or no tricities, there can hardly be two opinions | marriage should be the question. The among sensible people as to such frantic | wife has in a measure chosen her own lot the man, and the womanly 'charms' of we are not concerning ourselves with !. mands that stories and fairy tales shall some of the very rough disenchantment It is as natural that 'the young man's deal longer than the glories of the lumber trade. the country at the present. There are fancy and the young woman's too, should trousseau and the orange blossoms, the tremendously heavy difficulties in the lightly turn to thoughts of love, 'as that bridal presents and the wedding tour, and until they think out a practical the intercourse of young men and seen. Long after these are forgotten congregation at the weekly prayer meetscheme by which those difficulties can be maidens tends in the direction of mat- ley 0.85; Oats 40 to 50e; Peas 70 to 75e; Black rimony as naturally as rivers tend to the years, when, as the happiest married | ... surmounted, the discussion of the ques- sea. But the mistake often made con- folks know, there is much to test the tion will never get further than a mere sists in forgetting that every rule has ex- patience and fortitude, much to remind theory. For ourselves, as Canadian, as ceptions, in encouraging the impression them that the trouble against Cheese 8 to 9 1.4c. Hay 9 to $10; lovers of our country, we hope that it will that marriage is, for women especially, land. Of course the sweet often outweighs brewing between the whites and negroes, the one end and aim of life, forgetting the bitter, but how often does the bitter be soon shown that Prohibition is practithat life possesses an abundance of other outweigh the sweet? ticable. The country would unquestion noble interests, and in talking and writ- Yet marriage is a wise ordinance and ably be a vast gainer by the banishment ing, as some of your correspondents do, good thing. Only, dear friends and Speer for outraging a white girl. Subset burn Da to Mine Park Da to Mine Pa of intoxicants, and prevent that change as if either young men or young wemen philosophers, give up urging it on prin- quent to Speer's arrest another negro Kingston. for the better which the home of a reform- were to set before them the aim of mar- ciples of political economy. The 'good who committed the same crime was killed, riage for its own sake, instead of as a old way, the way that has prevailed from ed drunkard presents over the old days of union with the one other being preferred | the days of Jacob; is the only safe way of excess, only multiplied many thousand before the whole world for his or her own still, the warm individual affection times. Not that we believe drinking is sake alone. This to a really completed straining the individual choice. - VERA. human being, in his or her spring time or prime, is the only true basis for a happy marriage, and many a sad tragedy, even among ourselves, has attested the extreme of the victims unable to throw off the peril of entering spon a union so solemn, grip of the curse, we would arge the and which should be so indissoluble, on any other foundation than that supreme

ing changes and chances of life. There may, indeed, be some antiquated 'Lairds into the firm of Osler & Moss to supply BANCE-RESOLUTIONS - REFLECTING The SUNDAY DISTURof Cockpen,' with ossitied hearts and the place of R. A. Harrison. 'natural selection,' may find unexacting St. Peter's canal. partners of their own type, ready to be tenance and position of a wife, given innnions, when the parties thereto are amiable and telerably sensible, may have a certain tranquil satisfaction of their own. But, to ensure anything like happican fit either a man of a woman for the portfolio of Postmaster-General. married life. It is all very well to lecture | killed and three seriously injured. young men about smoking, billiard-play- - The committee of the creditors of habits of selfish indolence more than any the liabilities at $578,230. other habit, perhaps -even more than -During this season T96 tons of phos- and more openly dreaded. And if our delegates from all parts of the world are per means to prevent its recurrence." Mr

"cognized position in the party beyond week for the universities of McGill, Mo: - anything else. "no one beyond himself is responsible for Donald, John McKinlay, J. H. Stewart, billiard-playing, and self-indulgence - When billiard-playing, and self-indulgence - When the Aylmer people opened His Worship the Mayor re-echoed the generally, to the nobler happiness and their new church some one proposed that alone, leaving him to the avenging hands half an hour it was done. That little debt vice which had been tendered them, and of Time, since no girl with a heart and was just $9,000. has sold his farm in Ernesttown, of 100 soul could reasonably look for happiness and, in point of fact, we don't think so. have acquitted him, and suits for slander tinction. If the Roman Catholic proage as the goal of all a girl's hopes may accusers. morbid on this subject. It would be well $900 to $700. for them to remember that, though marriage is in general, woman's appointed. and, when circumstances are favorable, her happiest lot, yet that to many dividual women marriage is neither pos- Very Cheap.

sible, nor, in their peculiar circumstances, des rable. The realization of this would make them more independent of masculine society more choice as to its quality, and would tend somewhat to do away with the idea that between people of op posite sexes there cannot be any frank, true friendship without ulterior 'intentions.' Certainly no condemnation is too hour. But they who imagine that men er ran after him, screaming in his ear, or women cannot be friends; 'only that, and nothing more, would deprive both sexes of one of the pleasantest and most way; don't give yourself any trouble.' useful kinds of friendships that each can tween men and women who neithrthought of nor desired any warmer tie.

a time to hear nothing but 'George, dear,' But let them train themselves, and be of it, you may put the bottle in a wine- to the four winds of heaven by the disor Oh, ducky, and 'What, love!' as one trained, to do without him, if he does cooler.' are numbers of kinds of employment open | and cheese.' they begin to show themselves fit for when the stranger's horse was at the face." them. Even those pursuits which have door, he asked for his bill. He was told hitherto seemed reserved for man's that it was six dollars and three-quarters. stronger frame are not at all forbidden te 'You are very kind, said he. 'I had THE RAFT.-A second telegram from to Mrs. C. E. CARTWRIGHT, Barrie street, them. The recent swimming feat of a expected to pay you; but if this is your Quebec makes the following and fuller residence of late James O Reilly. young girl in the Thames shows that. custom, to charge nothing for the first with proper training, girls need not alvisit, you shall lose nothing by it—all my And then the wicked fellow proceeds to ways be the physically helpless creatures friends in 'Spongeville' will certhinly near there: course she promised, and instead of going energetic maidens who took a rough fore you go, screened the burkeeper. down by the steamer John A. Macdonald, now on hand and in course of construction western farm, and worked it successfully 'I am obliged to you,' said the deaf gen- and consigned to D. D. Calvin & Co., varied assertment of 'lieutenant' is here yet. There will be a too-more, of course, by brains than them on; and he took broke loose when near St. Augustine. A muscle. And such pursuits as market up his saddle-bags and departed. As he great quantity of it at once sunk, and the OPEN AND TOP BUGGIES ? gardening beecultivating, etc., have been mounted, the bystanders began to laugh balance became scattered over the giver. shown to be capable of successful pro- immoderately at the awkward embarrass. Three tug steamers were despatched to secution by women. Our girls only need ment which afflicted the bar-keeper, who the scene of the disaster early this mornto take up the idea with Canadian energy was in despair, while he bawled after the ing to assist in saving part of it." to have their lives seasoned with interest | delinquent, who continued bowing, and | enough, putting 'beaux' out of the repeating his assurance that he would one question. Possibly, indeed, after their tainly remember the accommodations, preparations for an independent life are civility, and liberality of the house, and a $25 cheque to the Secretary of the ail made, some discerning young man recommend it to al his friends who might Central Fair. may step in and carry off the intending pass through the city. The gentleman spinster, but such contretemps would not | who so well affected deafness won the

for them in relieving the sorrow and suf- TELEGRAPHIC. A Woman or Wirs. - Mrs. J mes fering that do so abound, and find their TELEGRAPHIC. Rourke, wife of the Captain of the schr.

i-pondent with a view to matrimonial re- able speculations about what 'might have tical laws. sults; while a journal in one of our been, for she will have as real and true country towns was recently enlivened by outlets for the womanly affections and has been rendered against Miller and

THINGS IN GENERAL.

Mr. Charles Bradlaugh will lecture in Boston on the 6th of October. -Severe gales on the English coast the past few days have been destructive to life and shipping.

extinct affections, who only want 'a wife, -A Halifax despatch says work has their braw house to keep; and who, by commenced on the enlargement of the -Cardinal McCloskey took possession stead of housekeeper's wages. And such of his title yesterday, with great cere strain. The following resolutions were mony, in the church of the Santa Maria, moved by Ogle R. Gowan :-"That this STOCKED WITH ness worthy of the name, there must be Laurier, M.P. for Drumond and Artha- city of Toronto by the recent conflicts the deep and special affection which alone basks, has been offered and accepted the which have taken place in the public duties and sacrifices, the bearing and for- By a gas explosion at Anchor bearing, needful even in the most ideal Colliery, Pottsville, Pa, two men have enervate our young men and foster assets of the firm at $153,266 net, and dram-drinking, which is less insidious, . - A Freemasons' Congress, at which

"spent on behalf of his party in corrupt- Messrs. T. Lett, of Newboro, 280 tons most every moman really detests, and from the President of the "ing the public charter to keep himself have been taken out on Eagle Lake, Lo- were not so timidly polite as to profess from the President of the Legislative attempt to preserve the public peace of evening. "and his friends in control of public af. borough, and Mr. G. Oliver has taken to quite like a cigar, for the sake of council of Manitoba opposing the grantwould perhaps do more to put down the __The Toronto Court of Assizes opens | His Worship be requested to read the -A batch of students left town this odious and unwholesome practice than on 5 prox; the trial of Davis and his wife, Riot Act and command all disorderly per-sacrifices of married life, we don't see that they should wipe off a little debt still re- sentiments of the preceding speakers and

The clerical tribunal investigating duty to see that the law was carried out But it is possible that the idea of marri- and perjury are threatened against his cossions were distasteful to the Protesand by means of the fascination that all have been reducing salaries of city sured them that the Catholics had a perthe blame attaches to but a single private thodist Church in Boyd's settlement, was bounds, may render 'our girls' really officers as follows: Chamberlin from $1

the blame attaches to but a single private thodist Church in Boyd's settlement, was bounds, may render 'our girls' really officers as follows: Chamberlin from $1
the blame attaches to but a single private thodist Church in Boyd's settlement, was bounds, may render 'our girls' really officers as follows: Chamberlin from $1 the Before party whilesin the formerly dedicated. The opening set the commissioner from that the Catholics had a per town best of the Reference party whilesin the commissioner from the com

Go to Gordon's New Gro- PASSING cery Store for No. 1 Flour,---

Affecting Deafness.

A stranger dismounted at the door of officions waiter. The bar-keeper opened ma Munro, Toledo, Montreal, corn. the register to take his name. 'You are right,' said he, 'a single room severe for the male or female flirt who would be more agreeable,' and he walked

'What name you say?' 'Thank you,' said he, 'I can find the Kay & Co's. On his return into the bar-room a waiter

friendships ever known have been be- stranger he would show him to his cham-So let our girls set their hearts at rest with me, perfers pale sherry,' said he. | bolical reference }

Berlin, Oct. 1 .- A Breslau paper says that the priests in that diocese have au-nous crew. Glen has been acquitted.

Newmarket October handicap to-day. endeavors to enter the enchanted land and must try to fill it faithfully, lovingly says it is reported that Shepard, Hall & disregard of it the result of official of Hymen, and serious doubts may and wisely. If the unmarried woman Co., extensive lumber dealers of this city, laxity ? Last night a very threatening fire reasonably be felt as to the manliness, of has not in the same sense chosen hers have suspended, with liabilities amount occurred in a nest of them. Two were them male and female' obviously intend. life is conditioned; to but few, she will be has about two hundred thousand dollars common regard for mutual safety, or reed marriage to be the complete state of less likely to repine that the very highest of paper, and another bank in that city spect of the law that the fire did not human beings, as a rule; and the instinct happiness has not fallen to her lot, than has one hundred thousand. It is stated spread in all directions through lines of is not altogether a false one which de- to be thankful for having been spared that only about 20 per cent. on the in- tinder boxes. end with the union at last run smoothly, that has fallen to some of her less for debtedness is in business paper. The failwould be proper to force that measure on and who shall hive happily ever after. for marriage lasts a good ure is attributed to the long depression in growing out of the conviction and sentence to be hanged of a negro named and Speer's friends claim the dead negro MILLINERY who committed the crime, for which the former was sentenced to death on Monday night. The militia armory was broken open and 21 guns etolen, which were afterwards found hidden in a negro school

CANADIAN TELEGRAMS

PUBLIC FEELING. Toronto, October 2. - The public meet-inglast night in regard to the Sunday The English Parliament passed 96 procession controversy was very largely stow their society and housekeeping public, 215 local, and 7 private acts dur- attended, and a number of gentlemen men spoke, mostly in a conciliating meeting is profoundly moved by the dis--It is reported in Quebec that Mr. grace brought upon this usually peaceful streets between certain processionists calling themselves "Pilgrims" and other Millinery and Mantles, them in religious opinion, and every good ing &c., and the former certainly tends to Lee & Shepard, Boston, reports the total citizen must deplore the riotous and disorderly conduct which has taken place, and ought to use all legitimate and profor murder, in connection with the sons to disperse, and, if necessary, to call But if a young man is so heartlessly abortion case is set down for hearing on out the military and civil powers to preserve the peace of the City of Toronto.' Having received the greater portion of as Chief Magistrate of the city it was his tants of Toronto, they should seek an al- BLACK SILKS OF SUPERIOR MAKES occupy too large a share of her thoughts, -The Watertown Common Council teration in the law. At present he as-The meeting then adjourned.

THROUGH THE WELLAND

PORT COLBORNE, Oct. 1. Down-Prop City of St Catharines, Toledo, Montreal, corn; schr Grantham, troit, Montseal, wheat; schr M F Minck, Courtwright, Clayton, staves; Eralin the-Hotel, and gave his horse to the Bates, Toledo, Kingston, corn; prop Al-

Auction prices! Auction prices! heartlessly feigns an affection or an inter- into the supper-room, to which the crowd All our Stock of Dry Goods, Fancy est only as something to amuse an idle of boarders were passing. The bar-keep- Tier, Collars and Cuffs. &c., are selling at the above rates at Mc-

THE TOURNAMENT, The Sun-skit man CHINA enjoy. Some of the noblest and purest took up his saddle-bags, and told the deaf slanders all base ballers, and particularly outrages the feelings and innocency of 'My friend, who will spend the evening our leading base ball club with this dia- Finnan Haddies, agreeing contestants, but standing umpire need never foar liver complaint, and can to them already, and more will be, as The next morning, after breakfast, stare cholera morbus straight in the

To-DAY Mr. John Carruthers handed

Over 1400 entries have to-day and year and Jennies, even if they have no 'speci- scheme, and paid his bill the next time he terday been received for the Central

"Union Jack," which sunk on Lake Erie. London, Oct. 1. -A Pall Mall Gazette is a woman of some sense. The Picton Our contemporary says "although driven from the sinking vessel in five minutes time she had the presence of mind to enable her to gather up her preserved peaches and other fruit. Who will say, after this, that men possess all the conrage in the hour of danger?" Not one. When a vessel is sinking he would be a rare man indeed who would think of preserved peaches. He looks first to biscuits and life preservers.

WOODEN BUILDINGS. - What of this law London, Oct. 1. - Munden won the prohibiting the erection of wooden buildings within the fire limits of the city? Is Boston, Oct. 1 .- The Evening Journal | there no seriousness in it, or is the public

-----FARMERS' MARRETS.

PERTH -Wheat-spring, per bush 1,20; Fall do 1,25 ; Peas 60 to 70e ; Barley 60c ; Oats 35c ; New York, Oct. 2. -Beecher returned | Rye 40 to 45e; Butter 15 to 18c; Cheese 9 t Picton -- Wheat $1.00 to 1.10; Rye 60c; Bar eved Peas 85e; Buckwheat 40 to 50e; Potatoes A despatch from Jonesboro, Ga., to the 17 to 18c; Lard 12 1-2 to 15c; Pork 10 to $12

In Kingston, on Oct. 1st at the residence of burg, Pa., to Miss Filena Alvira Hugabone, of

RICHMOND & BOYDEN

Beg to announce that

WILL BE OPENED

On Tuesday Next, 5th Inst.,

ALL THE NOVELTIES!

From London and New York.

CARD OF THANKS. THE SISTERS' OF L HOTEL DIEU return most sincere thanks to the Fire Brigade which was carried amid approarious cheer- and citizens generally, for their kind and charit-

their NEW STOCK of

Fall and Winter

Are offering Bargains in every Department of their House.

Handsome Striped Silks. Real Irish Poplins.

A very Large Stock of the Newest Importations of Piain and Fancy Dress Fabrics. Novelties in Shawls and Martle Cloths. Real Lyona, Silk Mantle Velvets. A Large and Choice Assortment of Real Maltese and English Thread Luces.

Bugled Gimps Fringes and Ornaments. Very Handsome Satin Underskirts, also Quilted Alpacea and Felt Skirts. A Large Stock of Josephine's Kid Gloves do, Kingston, do; prop California, De- in New Seal Brown and other Choice Shades. New Cardinal Ribbons, Cardinal Red, Navy Blue and other shades of Ladies Silk Scarfs, with hundreds of other

All offered at extrordinary lew prices.

PRINCESS STREET.

Sept. 29, 1875.

Finnan Haddies. New Currants. New Currants. Also a small lot of

FOR SALE AT

Ferguson's Block, Princess St. Kingston, Sept 30, 1875.

YOOK WANTED to do plain Cooking, milk two cows, wash and assist troning. Apply

Phaetons, Light and Heavy Democrats, Platform Business Waggons, of

Superior Style, Platform Market Waggons,

Which he a prepared to sell on reasonable

KING STREET, EAST.

N.B.—Repairs promptly attended