A CAREFUL MAN ROBBED. - A good story is told of a Chaudiere gentleman who presented his son with a gold watch a few days previous to the Exhibition During exhibition week the young man, was very anxious to wear the watch, and refused to listen to the advice of his father, and his warning against pickpockets. One afternoon both went to the Exhibi-TUESDAY EVEN'G, OCT. 5, 1875.1 tion together and the old man decided to play a practical joke on the son. While pushing through the crowd he relieved the young man of his chronometer and secreted it in his own back pocket. Then he called the boy's attention to the fact that he had lost his watch. George regretted then that he had not taken his father's advice, but said there was no use in crying for spilled milk. The old man explained about half an hour afterwards that he had take the watch for a joke, and put his hand in his breeches pocket to Johnson was right. Although some men adore return it to him. Imagine his surprise on Wisdom in woman, and with wisdom cram her finding that a genuine pickpocket had been there before him, and had succeeded in taking the watch without attracting his attention. - Ottawa Citizen.

Where Does it all Come From?

Pints and quarts of filthy Catarrhal discharges. Where does it all come from? The kind of tongue that husband a relish most | The mucous membrane which the chambers of the nose, and its little glands, are diseased, so that they draw from the blood its liquid, and exposure to the air changes it into corruption.
