Milk in Kingston. Very appropriate. People are never weaned down there until they are old enough to swear at John A -The Kingston Whig publishes a se- Keppered Herring, lection of what it calls 'shorts.' Shorts were what brought Capt. Neelon into trouble. Let the Whig man pause in his mad career ere it be too late. -We can't help observing that even the fathers of large families who say grace with the greatest regularity, are only human when they come to put up stove pipes, and when they make remarks on the damaged condition of an elbow or a T they throw much soul into the first syllable of the word.

When a young lady is about to be married in Brockville the Recorder and william Begg & Constant Mr. So and So is about to lead to the altar one of the fairest daughters of our beautiful town." Then the Wholesale & Retail Grocers editor sits down on the stairs and waits for wedding cake enough to make a good square meal.

EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL and COMFORT ATTENTION ALL. ING .- "By a thorough knowledge of the tural laws waich govern the operations of restion and autrition, and by a careful aplication of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast ables with a delicately flavoured beverage by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up unti strong enough to resist every tendency sease. Hundreds of subtle malidies are floating round us ready to attack wherever their is a weak point. We may escape many a a fatal The greatest trouble is yet in prospect- has time to look into the law regulating shart by keeping ourselves well fortified with ive—the flooding of the cellars of the domestic jars, and discovers a means of pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—
