Sense Medical Adviser,' by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. Surely, this in my dreams. My friend loaned me the work; and every day, as my strength permitted, I perused its pages. Although it contained very interesting treatises on Biology, Cerebral Physiology, Human Temperaments, Nursing of the Sick, etc. yet, being an invalid, I was most interaffection, and yet more than one medical attendent had pronounced my disease Consumption, and that I would fall with the autumn leaves. In that book I found my symptoms perfectly portrayed, I was can so truthfully depict my feelings, and apparently understands my constitutional tendencies, must know just what my physical system demands. I will trust my case with Pr. Pierce. I will take his Golden Medical Discovery as recommended for my disease. The result is, that after having perseveringly followed his prescribed treatment, I once again enjoy the blessings of health. Therefore,
