> ELOCUTION ASSOCIATION .- The first entertainment this session by this Society was given last evening in St. Andrew's Hall. The chair was occupied by the President, Prof. McKerras, who has resumed his duties in connection with Queen's University, apparently quite restored to his usual state of health by a somewhat lengthened residence on the Continent of Europe. The President, after having welcomed the large and fashionable audience assembled, introduced the Glee Club, which during the evening rendered a number of selections in excellent style. Readings were then given by Messrs. McCillivray, Webster, Dyckman, Mordy; McLaren, Lavell and Taylor. After two hours very agreeably spent t audience dispersed after singing the National Anthem.

TEMPLARISM .- On, Monday evening Hope Temple, I.O.G.T., hold a musical and literary entertainment which, we are assured, will be a most enjoyable affair It will take place in the Victoria Musi Hall, which, it is hoped, will be fille! an audience of refined taste-apprecta tive of literature and harmony, and one desirious of encouraging at least in this way the cause of Temperance.
