ST. ANDREW'S SABBATH SCHOOL.

The annual Christmas festival of this school took place last evening in St. Andrew's Hall, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. There were probable four hundred children present, also a good ly sprinkling of adults interested in the welfare of the school. In the absence Rev. Mr. Smith the chair was occupied by the Rev. Prof. Mowat, who opened the moeting with prayer, after the singing of the Christmas hymn, "Peace Earth." The children then sang Christmas carol, as only children can sing. Immediately at the conclusion of which the curtain was dropped from i.
