led early next month, a strong internal the meeting of parliament. emperor Kwang Su and prince council the king took the title of Ed left eye. Tuan to Pekin.

Was Badly Damaged: con a large two storey brick building I toms and to hear him assume the title at, vo 2 Manitoba Hard, 8% to stock will be a complete loss. The loss of King Edward VII.

> Presentations To Soldiers. place in England, the presentation was The lord chancellor (lord Salisbury) eign, whose noble life and beneficient inmade in an informal manner.

Was Tired Of Life. tired of life, and was going to commit brought the ceremony to a close. Ellis was about twenty-cight tan Stock Evchange. cight years old. Residence unknown.

Declined To Interfere. Winnipeg, Jan. 23.—Chief justice Kil- his majesty was signed by the princes act, and has dismissed the application nalize king Edward's accession to the hold a memorial service at the cathedin the matter without costs.

WARD VII. The Duke of York May be Made

The Prince of Wales-The Time Months-Latest From London. London, Jan. 23 .- (1 p.m.) -The kingproceeded to Marlborough than he was before the accident to his House. After attending the first privy knee in July, 1898.

To Lasso The Emperor. ing the public proclamation of his ac-living, which he has observed since. show the close relations existing bewhen a decision will be reached regard valided be acquired habits of careful Tien Tein, Jan. 23.—It is reported in cession, which it is expected will be True, be is somewhat stouter, and, while tween different branches of the service German circles that unless the peace read to morrow at 10 a.m., the king his color is that of a healthy man, it is of the two countries, and proclaiming negotiations are satisfactorily consider will proceed to the house of lords for unquestionably noticealle that one side the fact that though owing allegiance to 3.03 p.m.—At the meeting of the pricy fers from an incessant twitching of the one race, and that the sorrow of one is Lord Salisbury, lord Rosebery, A. J. meals, either of w. and . soda or Las been promulgated: Balfour, the duke of Devonshire, lord champagne and seltzer. He rarely takes "To the officers and men of the 14th Strathcona and Mount Royal, and a wine neat nowadays, unless it is alto- regiment, Princess of Wales Own rifles: Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 23.—The Duncan host of the most prominent personages gether faultless in quality. Formerly he in the land were present at the prive in the land were present at the privy was fond of heavy, highly-seasoned separate division, N.M., N.Y., in special council meeting to receive the king's dishes, such as Irisn stew, curries, sal- meeting assembled, desire to convey to

The ceremony was interesting and according to precedent. The king was in Kinley sent the following message

"His majesty the king, Osborne house,

then administered the oath to the king fuence have prompted the peace and Tand afterwards to the various members | wen the affection of the world. (Signed) "WILLIAM McKINLEY."

Bryan's Eulogy.

Will Hold Memorial.

Robbers Meet Stern Justice. Hartsville, Tenn., Jan. 23.-Three safe her death. blowers were surrounded by a posse yes-Paul's cathedral. During the night the rushed forward in an effort to force the Wellington as a chapel and this morning the body son fatally wounded. The posse volleyed that she is dead, passes on. was removed thither and is guarded by the cabin and wounded one of the robla body of royal reserves. This morning bers. The other two ran to the woods. It was with considerable difficulty that their the prisoner was carried to Hopkinsville ail, as the crowd was bent on lynching

Later the two who escaped were over London, Jan. 23,-At the memorial taken seven miles from Flippen. One Soldier In Trouble.

Gr. Newton, "C" field battery, lately is conducted after a having in his possession a Boer Mauser the civilized nations of the world.

Farmers Drawing Wood. Bolingbroke, Jan. 22.-Farmers queen slept into death and knew no drawing wood. James Deacon is kept light over the social world. It was thus her uncle William busy with his sawing machine. The parjusty recognized the prince and also the cess. Our school opened on Monday opening of the twentieth century. She with Mr. Kean as teacher. Mrs. Rich- was the model christian wife ard Botting has returned to her home mother, the ideal christian ruler. No in Rochester, N.Y. Miss Rancier, Chris- other woman either in private life or

Signs Of Spring.

The new sovereign's eldest son is still fresh green mint you can get it at

Though there is a solid sheet of ice confer the principality of the prince of for three miles across, there is danger lord Strathcona. wetting yesterday. The harbor master It is expected that the king will re- should place one or two bridges across at Windsor during the early the crack. It is just as necessary work that ultimately their chief residences | Bishop and Mrs. Mills and Mrs. Mulwill be Buckingham palace and Marl- holland returned to Kingston vesterday. The hishop left for Lansdowne

King street occupied by Prof. McNaugh-King Charles of Portugal, intends to ton, who has leased Walter Macnee's attend personally the funeral of queen residence on Bagot street. The latter Victoria. Court mourning for a month | will occupy the Macnee homestead, next

The crown prince, Copenhagen, will I Thomas Crockett, general manager of I attend the funeral, as the condition of the Temiscouta railway, has retired of public mourning and call upon the the king's health precludes his under from the position and D. B. Lindsay, taking the journey. All fetes have been former freight and trame manager, suc

the British-horn residents of Buffalo. The IN, Y., will hold a memorial service empress has arrived at Hamburg and St. Paul's church on the day the body king Edward VII. The change in the proceeded to the royal castle in order to is laid to rest.

> Dr. Daly, dentist. Canon Spencer has been at Ottawa, of King Edward VII has not figured chester, N.Y., Remember The 14th Regiment in Their Hour of Sorrow-The two Mations in Close Contact.

This morning major R. E. Kent, commanding the 14th regiment, received the felt by the other. No kindlier tribute The new king drinks sparingly at his to the loss Canadians have experienced the rear of market square and sames formal oath binding him to govern the mis and the like, but these he now the members of the 14th regiment, deepest sympathy and condolence in the loss of their beloved sovereign, the of friendship which has existed in the condolence to king Edward VII: Tele- past between the 14th regiment and the gram sent from Washington, Jan. 22nd, second naval division makes your loss

> To which mayor Kent made this short but appropriate reply:

Princess Street in Mourning.

In many of the Princess street store windows the portraits of the late sovereign have been draped in heavy mourning. Beneath her picture in Steacy & body of L. B. Eins was found on the giance and they then passed in turn Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 23.—W. J. Bryan Steacy's window is a card bearing the track, yesterday, with the nead northly before his majesty as at a levee, exmangled and nearly severes from the cept that each paused and kissed hands ing the death of queen Victoria: "The ing good." One entire window of E. P. body. A letter on his person stated ne before passing out of the chamber. This death of queen Victoria will be regretted Jenkins' gents' furnishing store bears in all lands. Her personal virtues won the garb of mourning, relieved here and The king at the accession ceremony for her the love of her subjects, and the there by small, modest union jacks. Bework a military uniform. His brief respect of the world. Her successor will neath the portrait of the dead queen find it difficult to fill her place, in publare the words: "Many have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all." In Starr & Sutcliffe's window the same design is shown, accompanied by a card preparation of the new South Winnipeg At 4.30 p.m. the artillery began fir. Albany, Jan. 23,—Bishop Doane, of bearing date of birth, coronation and the list, under the manhood suffrage ing salutes in St. James park to sig. Albany, announces that he will shortly death. A pretty design was also shown These are but a few testimonials to the love which Canadians felt for their queen, and to the sorrow occasioned by

A handsome picture of the queen, bably will be removed on Friday to terday in a cabin near Flippen, Ky. A draped in the garb of mourning, is to London, where it will lie in state in St. [local preacher named Densey and his son be seen in H. J. Wilkinson's window,) dining-room at Osborne was prepared cabin door. Densey was kined and his stops to gaze upon it, and, with a sigh

What Kingstonians Say. $

B. M. Britton, Q.C., M.P.-Where so much can be said, having regard to all that is good and exemplary and noble in the line of queen Victoria, it seems to me that the best tribute to her life and character is, that during her long and illustrious reign she has enjoyed in the most ample manner, without any reservation, the respect and affection of her subjects. While she has stood for the best in legislation and administration, of have influenced for good, people of all.

fashion, but the people have no heart rifle, the property of a comrade, Gr. Mayor Kent.-"God Save our Noble for such affairs. The common sorrow is Tyner, Toronto, and for which offence Queen," is the sincerest sentiment ever uttered by a people, because it proclaimed the national safety in the rule of a noble woman, who looked ever to worn by the citizens. The columns of money from other members of the corps the humble and charitable side of pubthe newspapers have deep rules of black while they were in transit from Halifax lic Juty, and held the reins of power as a sacred trust for impartial use. To the world she has given a beautiful example of womanhood in the practice of the most estimable virtues, and from her great height they shone as a bright > Archdeacon Carey-Queen Victoria was the world's unique personage at the as the queen and ruler of a large portion of this globe, exercised such a w de influence for good and secured such profound admiration and respect. This influence and respect will undoubtedly her well-earned rest, and both her successor on the throne, and her bereaved subjects will show their admiration for her and loyalty to her rule by emulating her virtues and reproducing in large degree the noble acts of her richly blessed life.

What Is Being Done.

Some Kingston ladies are putting on mourning for the queen. Cobourg council and Northumberland county council cabled condolences Laval university, sent a communication to the new king of England, of entire devotion and lovalty.

The Montreal corn exchange association has adjourned for two weeks out of respect for the queen's death. The D.O.C. has orders to have 101 guns fired from Fort Henry as soon as the official notice of the queen's death is received at Ottawa. Detroit council passed a resolution de ploring the queen's death and express ing sympathy with royal family, British government and people, Sydenham street Methodist church will be draped in mourning to-morrow in commemoration of the death of her majesty, queen Victoria. Morrisburg council set apart a day various denominations to fittingly commemorate the sad event by special ser-after must be published in the name name of sovereigns makes a great change in legal circles.

information at the local police headlidy, queen Victoria. So far the name a local legal document.

A new edition of the prayer book of the Church of England will have to be published at once. The prayer for queen I Victoria will be amended to read, "Our Hours, 10 to Montreal courts adjourned until Feb. | sovereign lord, king Edward VII, and all the royal family."

Embroideries

Over 11,000 yards of NEW EMBROI-DERIES, bought at very special prices, wili be offered to-morrow at 20 per cent. off regular marked prices.

EMBROIDERIES, 3c, 4c., 5c, 8c., 7c., 6c.

EMBBOIDERIES, 12 tc, 10c., 9 ... 18c., 25c.

EMBROIDERIES, 11c, 14c., 15c., 193.

INSERTIONS, 5c., 7c, 8c., 10c, 12dc. and up.

570 Yards

Very Fine White

INDIA LINEN

Manufactured expressly for White Summer Dresses and Waists.

We secured this lot at a great reduction, owing to a portion being slightly imperfect in weave. This, you will not detect unless your attention is drawn to it.

The regular value of this lot is 25c and 30c.

Sale Price To-morrow

15c. Yard.

Not more than 20 Yards to one Customer.

All Sales For CASH.

Sale Opens at 9 O'clock.

JOHN LAIDLAW & SON.

SAMA ARABARARA ARABARARA ARABARARANA The Last Week of The Dissolution Sale. OUR SALE WILL STOP ON

NEXT SATURDAY. You have all this week to lay in a stock of cheap Shoes, Rubbers and Leggings.

Radia Household 1

The Former Bookstore.

WHITE BED OULTS.

Some Very Special Offerings: Double Red Crochet Quilts, fini hed at ends, splendid length and width, regular $1.25, for 98c each.

Extra Heavy Crochet Quilts, (slightly soiled) very large sizes, regular $2 50, for $1 80 each Sarin Finish Quilte, fine even qualities, $150,

$1 75. $2, $2.25, $2 50, $3 Marsailles Quilte, extra heavy, raised patterns, at $2.50, $3.50, $3.75, $4, $4.50, $5, $6

BLACK SILKS

At Special Reductions to Clear Before Stock Taking.

Black Peau de Soie, 21 inches wide, reversible, regular value $1.25 yard, for 98c yard. Black Silk Poplin, regular $1.35 quality heavy corded effect for $1 15 yard. Back Satin Duchesse, 23 inches wide, hest French make. Regular $1 75 for $1 33 yard ; regular $2 quality for $1 68.

FLANNELSATLOW PRICES.

30 in. Scarlet All-Wool Flannel, worth 37 c, for

27 in. Navy All-Wool Flannel, worth 42c, 3 yards 27 in. Grey All-Wool Flinnel, worth 30c, for 221c

28 in, Twilled Scarlet Flannel, worth 50c, for 37 c. Fancy All-Wool Flannels, shrunk, special at 35c

Remnants of Flannels at Reduced Prices.

COTTONS.

Sost White Cotton, suitable for needle work, 7c.

Horrockse's fine even Colton, very strong, 10c, 12 c yard

Oneen's Own Cotton for 12 c 3 ard.

MAIDEON

HAVE YOUR PALM READ.

The New King's Health.

New York, Jan. 23.-A London special of his face has gone down, and he suf- different flags, yet they are people of separate apartment from the privy Devonshire formally communicated the 1901 death of queen Victoria and the succession of her son, the prince of Wales to Isle of Wight: St. Untharines. Ont. Jan. 23.—On the throne. The royal dukes and cer- "I have received with protound sorbehalf of the people of this city, a gold tain lords of the council were then direction row the lamentable tidings of the death men of your command our appreciation watch has been presented to each of the ected to repair to the king's presence of her majesty, the queen. Allow me, of your thoughtful and considerate exreturned soldiers from South Africa, and to acquaint him with the terms of sir, to offer my sincere sympathy and pression of sympathy. Your kind mesbelonging to the city or county; a gold the lord president's statement. Shortly that of the American people in your sage has been conveyed to all ranks of locket to those who enlisted here, but afterwards his majesty entered the room personal becavement and in the loss the 14th regiment, and will form anbelonged to outside points. Owing to in which the councillors were assembl- Great Pritain has suffered in the death other of the links that unite the two the sad event, which has just taken ed and addressed them in a brief speech. If its ver rable and illustrious sover- corps in strong bonds of friendship.

From President McKinley.

of the council. Commencing with the lord in council, I body of L. B. Ellis was found on the they took their respective onfile of affective > speech was delivered with great earnestness and was extemporaneous. The proclamation of the accession of queen and mistress.

Removed On Friday.

Offering Of Prayers. service at St. Paul to-day prayers were was killed and the other wounded and made for "our sovereign lord, the king, captured. the queen consort, the duke and of York and all the royal

The public buildings are swathed in himself into trouble. He is accused written on every face, and the personal he is serving seven days in the nature of the loss is manifested in the rack cells. The authorities are also tryblack clothing, black cravats and crape ing to implicate him in the loss and there are rosettes of crape on the to Kingston. Newton's home is in St. harness of bus horses. Elaborate ac- Catharines. counts of the queen's last moments are to be found in all the newspapers. There is comfort in the fact that the kaiser, her grandson.

A Sad Anniversary. January has been a fateful month in ty Lake, is visiting friends here. the life of the royal family. It is a singular coincidence that queen Victoria passed away on the eighty-first anniversary of the death of her father, the duke of Kent, which event acurred just six days before the death of his fa- Watertown, where diss Louisa Randall ther, George III, in 1820. It was on and Mrs. William Cousins were placed Jan. 20th, 1896, that prince Henry Battenberg passed away, and it was al- fined in the same house with them. so in January that the duke of Clarence, the direct heir to the throne in the second generation, came to his unthe duke of York, but he becomes also Carnovsky's; also parsiey, lettuce, shalduke of Cornwall, this title descending lots, radishes, horse radish, etc. to him from his father. It is generally assumed that the king will immediately

Wales upon him, as it is within his at the crack. Several persons got royal prerogative so to do. months of the reign, and that the duke as street work in town, and avoids York will occupy Sandringham, but greater dangers.

wil be no London season. The king, after the coronation, is ex- pation.

has been ordered.

died. It is also a comfort that her ma- ty at Mr. Doudall's was a grand suc-

Smallpox Situation. Watertown, N.Y., Jan. 22.-No new cases of small-pox were reported to-day bear fruit long after she has gone to except at Glen part, three miles from under quarantine. Six boarders are con-

If at any time you should require

All royal functions will be suspended resume his visitation tour. Mrs. Mill during the next six months, and there and Mrs. Mulholland will remain here. The see house is nearly ready for occu-

James Daly, chief magistrate of Napance, was here to-day, visiting his son,