A MEETING OF THE ENVOYS.

Pekin, Jan. 31.-At a general meeting next week.

Nothing has been definitely arranged p.m. regarding the punishments, and opinions are much divided, some favorite drasc measures, like beheading the majoriof those considered especially responsible, particularly prince Tuan, who next to the empress downger, is considered the principal culprit; but others, acting under instructions from their government, advocate nominal punishments, like banishments. It is recognized that all the foreign envoys, with the possible exception of M. De Giers, the Russian minister, personally believe leniency would be a great mistake, considering the interpretation the Chinese would put on it.
