Must Wear Uniform.

London, Feb. 11.—Some of the army officers are bitterly complaining of an innovation since lord Roberts took command of the forces, by which they are obliged to wear uniforms whenever they go to the war office. Whatever his purpose, lord Roberts, in this way and many others, is trying to down the prejudice of the majority of officers against appearing in public in uniform. Soon officers' uniforms are likely to be as common in London streets as privates uniforms are now.
