DEATH WAS SUDDEN.

John Barker, Picton, Fell Dead on a Sailing Yacht.

Death came sudden to John Barker, Picton, on Thursday morning. In company with judge Merrill he sailed down to Stella in a yacht in good health. The next morning, the two gentlemen got aboard the yacht to prepare for their homeward journey. Judge Merrill arranged to sail. while Mr. Barker, bending on one knee, hauled up the anchor. Just as he had the anchor swung, he fell over on the deck and expired. Dr. Kennedy was summoned, and pronounced death due to heart disease. The remains were taken to Picton on a yacht.

The late Mr. Barker was about sixty-five years of age, and was a cousin to Sir John Barker, governor of wife, three daughters and one son sur-
